AT THE FOREFRONT OF COLLEGE FOOTBALL

K-State student-athletes have regularly been among the most decorated and publicized in all of college football with frequent nationally televised games and nation publication features. In fact, Kansas State has had all 39 games over the last three years televised to a national audience, including five apiece on FOX and ESPN.

The 2012 season saw increased exposure as quarterback Collin Klein was a Heisman Trophy finalist and winner of the prestigious Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award, while linebacker Arthur Brown was a finalist for the Lott IMPACT Trophy and former Wildcat great Mark Simoneau was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame.

The national spotlight will be on Kansas State and the Manhattan community on Thursday, September 18, as the Wildcats host BCS National Championship Runner Up Auburn on ESPN College Football Primetime.

K-STATEHD.TV

K-StateHD.TV is the nation's No. 1 subscription-based HD network across the entire CBS online platform. K-State's season opener against Stephen F. Austin will be televised globally on K-StateHD.TV.

DISTINGUISHING THEMSELVES ON AND OFF THE FIELD

K-State started a new tradition in 2002 as the football program announced the inaugural Ring of Honor Class. The distinction is designed to recognize those in the football program who have distinguished themselves on and off the field at the highest level.

Selection into the Ring of Honor is at the discretion of the Director of Athletics upon recommendations of the Head Football Coach and with final approval from the K-State Athletics, Inc. Board.

In determining candidates, the Head Football Coach and Director of Athletics shall consider categories such as quality of character, whether the person is an excellent representative of K-State and whether a person has achieved performance that warrants consensus All-America level status at Kansas State University or performed at a program-transformational level that warrants consideration. The student-athlete also has to be at least five years out of school.

OF THE 18 FORMER K-STATE PLAYERS CURRENTLY ON NFL ROSTERS, SEVEN WERE UNDRAFTED ROOKIE FREE AGENTS, INCLUDING LINEBACKER REGGIE WALKER, WHO IS ENTERING HIS SEVENTH NFL SEASON IN 2014.

IT'S MORE THAN JUST A JOB...

At K-State, players are coached and taught life lessons by people that are not just there for the job... it is a place they call home. For a community and insitution that is as tight-knit as Manhattan and Kansas State, it's no surprise that K-State is at the top of the list for graduates coaching at their schools. Half of K-State's 10 full-time coaches played at and graduated from Kansas State, a figure that is tops among the most visable 65 schools in the nation. A span of 30 years of graduates, from Mo Latimore in 1976 to Blake Seiler in 2006 and Dana Dimel, Sean Snyder and Andre Coleman in between, these five coaches take extra pride in the success of K-State Football.

DAWSON HAS TRAINED 34 PLAYERS SELECTED IN THE NFL DRAFT

CHRIS DAWSON

MAXIMIZING ON-FIELD PERFORMANCE

Under the guidance of Director of Strength and Conditioning Chris Dawson and assistant strength coaches Darren Honeycutt, Corey Meredith, Kevin Schadt and Joe Cronn, the K-State strength and conditioning program is committed to maximizing the on-field performance of every student-athlete. The program, designed by Dawson, combines weight training, plyometrics, stretching and flexibility exercises, running and proper nutrition to enhance each student-athlete's ability to compete. Dawson is a 19-year veteran of the strength training and conditioning field and in 2007 was named the National Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coach of the Year by the Professional Football Strength and Conditioning Coaches Society.

PROPER NUTRITION

Maximizing on-field potential is more than just lifting weights and running; it's also ensuring that each student-athlete is benefitting from a nutritional and dietary program specific to their needs. Under the direction of K-State's first full-time sports nutritionist, Scott Trausch, K-State football players receive performance fueling strategies, team and individual nutrition education, hydration and body composition testing. Trausch works with Chef Michael Moyes at the new Ahearn Fund Student-Athlete Performance Table in the West Stadium Center to coordinate nutritious meals for all K-State student-athletes.

TOOLS FOR ACADEMIC SUCCESS

At Kansas State, being a champion is more than winning trophies on the field; it's about providing student-athletes a world-class experience which includes being a champion in the classroom and, most importantly, becoming a champion in life.

K-State's program of Academic Student Services for Athletics assists, directs, supports and promotes student development, academic achievement, academic athletic eligibility and progress toward graduation. The unit provides the following services through its superior academic facility for student-athletes, the Academic Learning Center:

- student orientation program
- academic counseling skills training
- develop class schedules
- develop graduations timelines
- tracks academic progress
- tutoring and mentoring services

The 250,00 square foot West Stadium Center at Bill Snyder Family Stadium opened in Fall 2013, and is a first-class facility that impacts the daily experience of 444 student-athletes in 16 sports who proudly represent K-State. The West Stadium Center also enhances the game-day experience for all 50,000 K-State fans as we cheer for another Wildcat Victory.

The West Stadium Center features amenities for all fans at Bill Snyder Family Stadium. New concessions, restrooms and ticket o ces replace the current west side facilities, which were originally built in 1968. Additionally, a new Fan Store and Hall of Honor is included on the main Concourse Level.

In addition to being a first-class facility for K-State student-athletes and fans, the West Stadium Center at Bill Snyder Family Stadium also serves as the northwest gateway to campus and a rallying point for the University's visionary "K-State 2025" plan. The structure makes a statement to the Big 12 Conference, the nation and prospective student-athletes that K-State is committed to competing at the highest level of intercollegiate athletics.

The Terrace Level features the Ahearn Fund Student-Athlete Performance Table to serve the daily dietary needs of all K-State student-athletes. The Tailgate Terrace is a great place to enjoy the unique tailgate atmosphere of a K-State gameday.

K-State Football is housed in an all-in-one facility known as the Vanier Football Complex. The facility includes the program's weight room and athletic training facility; hydrotherapy center; locker room and lounge area; equipment distribution center; meeting rooms; o ces and meeting space for the coaching staff.

Having gone through many renovations since the building was orginally constructed in 1968, K-State Athletics announced this past spring that the building will be torn down and rebuilt prior to the 2015 season. (See next page for more on the new Vanier Football Complex)

THE FUTURE OF K-STATE FOOTBALL

Bill Snyder Family Stadium is in the midst of a transformation.

As evidenced by the completion of the West Stadium Center, K-Staters from across the nation have spoken again. Now is the time to capitalize on our momentum and complete the next critical Phase III of the Bill Snyder Family Stadium Master Plan.

With a new Vanier Football Complex, the Wildcats will more than double the amount of space for student-athletes and coaches, providing access to world-class resources, equipment and facilities and creating a more e cient experience to train, study and compete.

The new complex, attached to the stadium, will include expansive spaces, bold graphics and state-of-the-art equipment. A grand 4-story atrium will leave a memorable first impression and be accessible from all levels, including the main concourse. Perhaps most importantly, a new Academic Learning Center will facilitate the very best in academic support services.

A massive new Strength & Conditioning Center will more than double the current footprint with multi-level height ceilings, natural lighting and a built-in plyometric ramp. All-new sports medicine and hydrotherapy equipment will include the latest in student-athlete training and recovery resources.

A new team theater will be added, along with a customized and centrally located locker room, multiple lounge spaces and expansive meeting rooms. The entire top floor will be dedicated to the football program, including o ces and meeting rooms, with a private balcony outside of the coaches' o ces displaying incredible views of the field and stadium.

The north stadium expansion will result in a much-improved game day experience for the grass-roots fan base and a more intimidating atmosphere within the fully-enclosed seating bowl. The completion of the Vanier Football Complex will further solidify the university's place as a prominent force in the Big 12.

A HELPING HAND

A lot more goes into being a student-athlete at Kansas State than just working out and going to class.

K-State's Life Skills program focuses on encouraging student-athletes to become strong leaders and positive role models. K-State players are also encouraged to get involved in their community and annually participate in a number of service projects throughout the region.

The goal of these programs is not only to enhance the student-athlete experience but also to expand character and provide leadership opportunities. By getting involved, K-State players gain a strong sense of self-worth, while experiencing the personal satisfaction that comes from volunteering.

A WINNING TEAM

A bond that started in 2006, K-State Football has partnered with the 1-28 Infantry Division of the U.S. Army, known as the Black Lions, at Fort Riley, which is located just 20 minutes away from Bill Snyder Family Stadium. This past summer, the Wildcats traveled to the base on two different occasions, one to go through an exercise at the firing range and another to go through Physical Training (PT). Many Fort Riley soldiers, including the Black Lions, travel to Manhattan for the annual "Fort Riley Day" during the season.

WELCOME TO THE LITTLE APPLE

When it comes to classic college towns, the Little Apple ranks among the best. Although considerably smaller than its New York namesake, Manhattan has blossomed into a diversified city with urban amenities while retaining its small-town appeal.

CNNMonney.com rates the area as one of the 10 best places in America to retire young. Men's Journal selected Manhattan as one of the 50 best places to live in America, while Manhattan also checked in at No. 74 in Sporting News' annual Best Sports Cities rankings. American Airlines now offers daily round-trip flights between Dallas/Fort Worth International Airport, Chicago O'Hare International Airport and Manhattan Regional Airport, so flights out of an to Manhattan now connect to anywhere in the world.

Manhattan also has many appealing places to shop, eat and socialize. An award-winning shopping mall is located in the heart of the downtown region, and Aggieville continues to be particularly popular with students. Around the holidays, Manhattan bustles with activity as approximately 15,000 revelers each year take to the streets of Aggieville to celebrate the Little Apple at the annual New Year's Eve ball drop.

In addition, Manhattan ranks at or near the top nationally in nearly every measure of economic growth:

- Top 10 Per Capita Income Growth
- Least Economically Stressed County in US
- #2 US Metro in Economic Growth Potential
- Top 1% in US Fastest Personal Income Growth
- Top 5% Nationally in Job Growth

SEIZING MOMENTUM

After a historic in-season turnaround, a large nucleus of impact players return for 2014

The 2013 Kansas State football season did not start off like anyone had hope or anticipated. Coming off an 11-3 campaign that included the program's second Big 12 Championship in 10 years, many believed that the Wildcats would pick right up where they left off.

Beginning with a 24-21 loss to eventual undefeated FCS Champion North Dakota State to open the 2013 slate, the Wildcats fell out of the national conversation midway through 2013 with a 2-4 record, including an 0-3 mark in conference play. The silver lining? All four losses were by 10 points or less, including a 35-25 loss to eventual Big 12 Champion Baylor, which scored at least 41 points in 10 games.

With a bye week following the contest against the Bears, the Wildcats needed to regroup - and that they did. K-State went 6-1 in the second half of the season with double-digit wins against West Virginia (35-12), Iowa State (41-7), No. 25 Texas Tech (49-26) and Kansas (31-10).

K-State topped its season off with extra focus and preperation for its fifth-straight bowl game, this one against the winningest program in college football history: Michigan. All the Wildcats did was dispatch the Wolverines, 31-14, to win their first bowl game in 10 years.

The late-season feat was rather historic, too, as the 2013 Wildcats became just the eighth program in the BCS era (1998) to turn a 2-4 or worse start into an eight-win campaign.

With the 2013 season serving as a stiff reminder of the work neccessary to compete for conference and national titles, the 2014 squad has been emulating that work ethic from two years ago during the offseason. And, with 39 returning letterwinners, including 14 starters - headlined by 2013 All-Americans Tyler Lockett and Ryan Mueller - the leadership and talent is in place to make another run.

That leadership starts with 23rd-year head coach Bill Snyder, the sure-fire College Football Hall of Fame coach that has proven not in one tenure, but in two, how to motivate young men to play to the best of their abilities, and that continues with this year's captains in Lockett, Mueller, Jonathan Truman, B.J. Finney and Jake Waters.

◀ All-American Wide Receiver Tyler Lockett

OFFENSE

Primarily a running team each of the last five seasons, K-State's aerial attack may be the dominant theme in 2014 as it returns its starting quarterback, Jake Waters, and 2013 All-America wide receiver Tyler Lockett. A nice compliment to Lockett is senior Curry Sexton, who recorded at least one catch in every game a year ago. Another senior starter returns at tight end in Zach Trujillo, while sophomore Glenn Gronkowski is returning at fullback.

What the Wildcats must figure out during fall camp is their running back situation. With the departure of the second-leading rusher in school history, John Hubert, as well as others that were prolific in the running game, K-State returns only 15-percent of its rushing yardage from a year ago, a third of which comes from Waters. A senior (DeMarcus Robinson), a pair of sophomores who have yet to see time on the field (Charles Jones and Jarvis Leverett, Jr.) and a highly-touted incoming freshman (Dalvin Warmack), among others, will compete for starting duties in the backfield not only throughout fall camp but possibly into the early stages of the season.

Whomever wins the starting running back role can take comfort in knowing the offensive line – spearheaded by All-Big 12 performers B.J. Finney (center) and Cody Whitehair (guard), as well as another returning guard in Boston Stiverson – has depth despite both starting tackle positions needing to be replaced.

QUARTERBACKS

K-State's 2-4 start to the 2013 campaign coincided with the learning curve of Jake Waters, the 2012 National Junior College Player of the Year who started the season under center for the Wildcats. During that initial stretch, the Council Bluffs, Iowa, native threw for 172.7 yards per game with just four touchdowns and five interceptions. However, as he turned it around, so did the Wildcats. During K-State's 6-1 finish, Waters turned into one of the best quarterbacks in the Big 12 by throwing for 204.7 yards per game with 14 touchdowns and only four picks.

And with head coach Bill Snyder being an exceptional teacher of the position, history is on Waters' side for substantial improvement. The last four returning starting quarterbacks under Snyder – Collin Klein (2011-12), Ell Roberson (2002-03), Jonathan Beasley (1999-2000) and Michael Bishop (1997-98) – improved their completion percentage by an average of five percent and their yards per game by 30.6.

There will be a quarterback battle in fall camp, however, as the departure of Daniel Sams has created an opportunity for two younger players, sophomore Joe Hubener and redshirt freshman Jesse Ertz, to compete for the primary backup spot. In addition, the Wildcats will begin to develop true freshman Zach Davidson.

A Look at the Quarterbacks

Joe Hubener (6-4, 205, So.)
Jesse Ertz (6-4, 199, RFr.)

RUNNING BACKS

John Hubert finished his three-year starting career in 2013 with the second-most rushing yards in school history (2,993) and 28 career touchdowns. Most of the time, K-State has another player waiting in the wings with a fair amount of playing time under their belts. However, that is not the case in 2014 as the group has a combined 45 yards on 11 carries in six games, all of which have come from senior DeMarcus Robinson. Two sophomores, Charles Jones and Jarvis Leverett, Jr., have used the last two years to develop. Jones, a product of Mandeville, Louisiana, rushed for 73 yards in the 2014 spring game, while Leverett was the program's Red Raider Award winner as the best scout team player in 2012.

One darkhorse in the competition is true freshman Dalvin Warmack. The Blue Springs, Missouri, product was the first back-to-back Simone Award winner, which is presented to the top prep player in the Kansas City area, after totaling over 4,500 yards and 74 touchdowns over this final two high school seasons.

What K-State's running back will have is experienced blockers leading the way in sophomore Glenn Gronkowski and senior Zach Nemechek. Gronkowski was an All-Big 12 performer as a redshirt freshman in 2013 and a weapon in the passing game by hauling in five receptions for a 38.8-yard average and three touchdowns. Nemechek has played in every game over his three year career and has been vital as both a blocking back and on special teams.

A Look at the Running Backs

DeMarcus Robinson (5-7, 209, Sr.)
Charles Jones (5-10, 197, So.)

Dalvin Warmack (5-8, 182, Fr.)
Glenn Gronkowski [FB] (6-3, 234, So.)
Zach Nemechek [FB] (6-3, 243, Sr.)

WIDE RECEIVERS

Regarded as one of the best returning receivers in the country, Tyler Lockett is looking to complete one of the best careers in K-State football history. The Tulsa, Oklahoma, native is 75 receptions, 838 yards and nine touchdowns away from breaking all three school records, which are held by his father, Kevin (1993-96). The senior became the fifth three-time All-American in school history and can be the first K-State player to ever put together four All-America seasons.

The receiver position may begin with Lockett, but it certainly doesn't end there. Senior Curry Sexton touts 50 career receptions for 564 yards, including a 39-catch, 446-yard performance last season when he was the first Wildcat since 2003 to record a catch in every team game.

Junior Kyle Klein has played in 18 career games, while sophomore Deante Burton may be poised for a breakout season at receiver after getting his feet wet last season, primarily as a special teams player. Another piece to the puzzle could also be community-college transfer Andre Davis, who enrolled at K-State in January and participated in spring practices, while junior Stanton Weber, sophomore Stephen West and redshirt freshmen Judah Jones and Vernon Vaughn will also provide depth.

A Look at the Wide Receiver

Steven West (6-0, 196, So.)
Judah Jones (5-11, 180, RFr.)
Vernon Vaughn (6-2, 198, RFr.)

TIGHT ENDS

Senior starter Zach Trujillo has been an exceptional blocker throughout his career and has gradually improved his receiving skills, including a five-catch, 111-yard season in 2013. The Edmond, Oklahoma, product started seven games a year ago and will look to continue that role. Behind Trujillo are a pair of younger players – redshirt freshman Cody Small and true freshman Dayton Valentine – who will continue to develop while providing depth in 2014. Valentine is an in-state product who was originally a member of K-State's 2013 signing class but deferred his enrollment to the Spring 2014 semester.

A Look at the Tight Ends

Zach Trujillo (6-5, 256, Sr.)

OFFENSIVE LINE

Annually one of the top positions on the offensive side of the ball for the Wildcats, the offensive line returns a combined 70 starts, including 39 from center B.J. Finney and 25 from guard Cody Whitehair. Finney is a three-time All-Big 12 performer, including his junior campaign when he earned first-team honors. In addition to his on-field accolades, he is also one of the primary leaders in the program as the two-time Rimington Award candidate is the fifth three-time team captain in program history, but the first offensive lineman ever to serve three terms. Whitehair is a versatile lineman who can also play tackle but started every game at guard during his All-Big 12 season of 2013.

Junior Boston Stiverson, who has started six career games, looks poised to start at one of the guard positions, while senior Drew Liddle will back up at both center and guard along with returners Will Ash and Aderius Epps and community-college transfer Terrale Johnson.

Despite returning experience in the middle of the line, K-State must replace two All-Big 12 tackles in Cornelius Lucas and Tavon Rooks. Two community-college players, Luke Hayes – who participated in spring practices – and A.J. Allen, were brought in to compete for those spots, while Aaron Bennett and Matt Kleinsorge will also be vying for one of those spots.

DEFENSE

Key contributors return on the defensive side of the ball, led in the front end by 2013 Big 12 Defensive Lineman of the Year Ryan Mueller, who tied the school's single-season sacks record (11.5). He will be flanked by other returners at defensive end in Marquel Bryant, Laton Dowling and Jordan Willis. All-Big 12 performer Travis Britz, who led the nation in 2013 with four blocked kicks, is also back but a new starter will have to be found opposite the junior.

At linebacker resides K-State's leading returner in tackles, Jonathan Truman, who had 89 stops in his first season as the starter. The senior will have new running mates following the departure of Blake Slaughter and Tre Walker, but underclassmen who have been developing over the past two to three seasons are waiting in the wings.

The defensive backfield will be led by junior safety Dante Barnett, the Buffalo Wild Wings Bowl Defensive MVP who carded three of his team-leading four interceptions in the final two games last year. Two-game starter Dylan Schellenberg will attempt to hold off competition at the other safety position. Hybrid defensive back Randall Evans, who is the Wildcats' active career leader in tackles, is back for his senior campaign and could be one of the starting cornerbacks, but underclassmen and community-college transfers will also battle for starting duties.

DEFENSIVE LINE

A Second Team All-American who began his career as a walk-on, Ryan Mueller is back for his senior campaign looking to etch his name further into the K-State record book. After tying the single-season school mark for sacks with 11.5 in 2013, Mueller is only 1.5 sacks away from entering the school's career top-10 list.

Mueller had Alauna Finau on the opposite side in 2013, but K-State needs to find a replacement, most likely from returnees Marquel Bryant, Laton Dowling and Jordan Willis. Bryant started the first two games of the season while Dowling has been a reserve each of the last three years and Willis played a limited role as a true freshman last season. Tanner Wood, who originally signed with K-State out of high school in 2013, deferred his enrollment until the spring and could see immediate playing time.

Travis Britz, who played as a true freshman in 2012, is back after starting all 13 games last season and coming away with 37 tackles, including 6.5 for loss. The Wildcats lost the services of another 13-game starter, Chaquil Reed, and that starting job will likely be a battle between returnees Valentino Coleman, Demonte Hood, Matt Seiwert and Will Geary as well as community-college transfer Terrell Clinkscales. Coleman and Hood played in 10 and nine games, respectively, while Seiwert and Geary redshirted. Clinkscales was regarded by many as one of the best community-college defensive tackles in the country last season after earning Second Team All-America honors.

LINEBACKERS

Another "walk-on-turned-star" story is Jonathan Truman, who paid his dues by redshirting and working on special teams before getting his shot as a defensive starter in 2013. And the Kechi, Kansas, native ran with that chance as he started all 13 games last season and finished with nearly 90 stops and 4.5 tackles for loss. A tough-nosed team captain who can work at all three spots, Truman will be called upon to be the leader of the linebacking corps that will need to find two new starters.

One likely replacement could be Will Davis, a sophomore who has been regarded as a tough linebacker throughout his prep career and was solid in late-game duty and on special teams a year ago. The Southlake, Texas, native finished the season with 16 tackles, including six on kickoff coverage. Former community-college transfer Dakorey Johnson has a year experience under his belt and is looking to break out as a senior after collecting six tackles and an interception in eight games in 2013.

Charmeachealle Moore, a junior who was used primarily as a third-down rush end in 2013, will also battle for starting duties along with community-college transfers D'Vonta Derricott and Isaiah Riddle. Moore had two sacks and a forced fumble in 2013, while Derricott was rated as one of the top community-college linebackers in the nation when he signed with K-State in February.

A Look at the Linebackers

Jonathan Truman (5-11, 219, Sr.)
Dakorey Johnson (6-3, 200, Sr.)
Charmeachealle Moore (6-0, 217, Jr.)
Will Davis (6-0, 223, So.)
D'Vonta Derricott (6-0, 225, Jr.)
Isaiah Riddle (6-3, 235, Jr.)
Colborn Couchman (6-2, 203, So.)

DEFENSIVE BACKS

After starting every game in 2013, junior safety Dante Barnett will be called upon to be the leader of the defensive backfield this season. The Tulsa, Oklahoma, product was third on the team with 75 tackles and led the Wildcats with four interceptions, while he was especially good down the stretch run of the season by carding 32 tackles and three picks over the final four contests.

Senior Dylan Schellenberg returns after starting two games last year, including the Kansas game in which he recorded his first career interception. He will be battled by former community-college transfer Travis Green and redshirt freshman Sean Newlan. Green, a junior, played in six games last season prior to an injury, while Newlan impressed the coaches in practices a year ago.

For the second-straight season, both cornerback positions will need to be replaced, but there are no shortage of candidates. Randall Evans, who boasts 146 career tackles and has started 17 career games as a hybrid defensive back/linebacker, could line up as a true cornerback or his regular spot depending on the development of younger players in Morgan Burns, Donnie Starks and Cre Moore as well as community-college transfers Danzel McDaniel, Nate Jackson and Jesse Mack. Burns, a junior, has played in 24 career games with 13 tackles, primarily on special teams, while Starks, a sophomore, has improved since arriving on campus prior to the 2012 season and Moore redshirted last year.

McDaniel was rated one the best community-college defensive backs in the nation last season and enrolled at K-State last January to participate in spring practices. Jackson arrived in Manhattan prior to the 2013 campaign, but an injury sidlelined him for the entire season, while Mack recorded 42 tackles and two intercepitons during his only season at Highland Community College in 2013.

A Look at the Defensive Backs

Dante Barnett (6-1, 186, Jr.)
Randall Evans (6-0, 190, Sr.)
Dylan Schellenberg (6-0, 189, Sr.)
Morgan Burns (5-11, 195, Jr.)
Danzel McDaniel (6-1, 205, Jr.)
Travis Green (6-1, 207, Jr.)
Nate Jackson (5-11, 185, Jr.)
Jesse Mack (6-0, 180, So.)
Cre Moore (6-0, 175, RFr.)

SPECIALISTS

K-State has the luxury of two solid place kickers, Jack Cantele and Ian Patterson. Both saw siginificant time last season as Cantele began the year handling both placements and kickoffs. He was true on 11-of-13 field goals with a season-high four against TCU, including the game winner with three seconds remaining. Patterson, who was the primary kickoff man the second half of the year, took over for Cantele on placements due to injury and made three of his five field goal attempts and all 12 extra points.

Experience also is also back in the return game as Tyler Lockett is the reigning Big 12 Special Teams Player of the Year. The dynamic player holds a career kickoff-return average of 31.1 yards with four touchdowns, including a pair of 100-yard returns. He may be used more in the punt-return game as well, but Andre Davis was solid as a punt return during his two-year community-college career.

The Wilcats also return an experienced long snapper in Dalton Converse, who snapped the 2012 Cotton Bowl, redshirted the 2012 season, and was perfect on all eight attempts in over a span of three games in 2013.

Where K-State will need to fill a void in its specialty units is at punter as a pair of redshirt freshmen, Mitch Lochbihler and Nick Walsh, will battle to replace 2013 punter Mark Krause. Lochbihler averaged 43.8 yards per punt during his prep career in Charlotte, North Carolina, while Walsh is an in-state product from Lyndon who was an all-state punter his senior year.

SCHEDULE

K-State's 2014 schedule takes an interesting form as the Wildcats play their first Big 12 game in week two and have five Saturdays off due to three byes and two Thursday-night contests. After opening the season with Stephen F. Austin on Aug. 30, K-State travels to Iowa State on Sept. 6, its earliest conference game since hosting Texas Tech in the first-ever Big 12 game on Aug. 31, 1996.

Manhattan will then be the center of the college football universe on Thurs., Sept. 18, as the Wildcats host BCS National Championship Runner-Up Auburn, while they finish their non-conference slate on Sept. 27 against UTEP.

Three of K-State's next four games are at home against Big 12 foes as the Wildcats host Texas Tech (Oct. 4) and travel to Oklahoma (Sept. 18) before hosting Texas (Oct. 25) and Oklahoma State (Nov. 1). However, the Wildcats finish with three road games in their final four contests by traveling to TCU (Nov. 8) and West Virginia (Thurs., Nov. 20) before hosting Kansas (Nov. 29) and finishing at Baylor (Dec. 6).

BILL SNYDER

*23rd Season at K-State

currently ranked 4th Nationally in Wins among active FBS coaches

Five-Time National Coach of the Year

The 2009 season saw one of the greatest legends in college football return to the sidelines in hopes of revitalizing a program that he once built, piece by piece, into a national force. And, after four seasons back in charge, Bill Snyder has done just that – and then some.

The architect of the "greatest turnaround in the history of college football" Bill Snyder returned to lead the Kansas State football program in 2009 after 17 ultra-successful seasons as the head coach from 1989-2005. And, following a 7-5 campaign in 2010 and a berth in the inaugural Pinstripe Bowl, the Wildcats climbed to heights only previously seen under Snyder as the Wildcats went 10-3 in 2011, finished No. 8 in the final BCS standings and earned their first Cotton Bowl invitation since 2001.

The bar was raised again in 2012 as the sure-fire hall of famer led the Wildcats to their third conference championship in school history and first since 2003. Kansas State, which won its first 10 games of the season and finished 11-1 with an 8-1 mark in Big 12 play, tied the school record for overall wins and conference victories while also ascending to No. 1 in the BCS rankings following its 10-0 start. Snyder went on to win the Bobby Dodd Coach of the Year Award as well as top Big 12 coach honors for the second straight season following the Cats' 2012 season that culminated with a berth in the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl.

Quarterback Collin Klein became just the second player in school history to be named a Heisman Trophy finalist, while a school-record 20 Wildcats earned 2012 All-Big 12 honors including Klein (Big 12 Offensive Player of the Year), Arthur Brown (Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year) and Meshak Williams (Big 12 Defensive Lineman of the Year).

This past season, K-State opened the year 2-4 with all four defeats being by 10 points or less. But Snyder's charges continued to improve each week and went on to become just the fourth team in Big 12 history to bounce back from a 2-4 start to become bowl-eligible. In fact, only 48 FBS teams out of 598 in the BCS era who started 2-4 or worse reached a bowl game prior to the 2013 Cats.

In 2011, Snyder's Wildcats jumped out to a 7-0 start – the best in 12 years – which included big wins at Miami, against 15th-ranked Baylor and at Texas Tech. Following a two-game skid to a pair of nationally-ranked teams, the Wildcats got back into the win column with a thrilling four-overtime victory over Texas A&M before ending the year with wins at Texas and against Iowa State.

For his efforts in 2011, Snyder was named the Woody Hayes National Coach of the Year, as well as picking up national coaching honors from Sporting News, Rivals.com and CBSSports.com, and the Big 12 Coach of the Year by the AP and Big 12 Coaches. He also tutored 11 players to All-Big 12 honors, including Defensive Newcomer of the Year Arthur Brown and Offensive Freshman of the Year and Walter Camp All-Americans Tyler Lockett and Nigel Malone.

In 2010, Snyder's Wildcats jumped out to a 5-1 start, which included big wins over UCLA, Conference USA Champion UCF and Iowa State, behind All-Big 12 running back Daniel Thomas, who became the fastest Wildcat in school history (in terms of games) to rush for 1,000 yards.

In his first season back as the head man of the program, Snyder led the Cats to a 6-6 record in 2009 and a second place finish in the Big 12 North. In fact, K-State was just one win away from advancing to the Big 12 Championship game as the Wildcats played at Nebraska in the regular season finale with a title game berth on the line.

K-State claimed more First Team All-Big 12 selections on offense than any other school with four. Big 12 Newcomer of the Year Daniel Thomas led the league in rushing, while Nick Stringer, Jeron Mastrud and Brandon Banks also garnered first team All-Big 12 accolades.

Named the 32nd head football coach at K-State on Nov. 30, 1988, and again as the 34th on Nov. 24, 2008, Snyder has amassed a 178-90-1 (.664) record during his tenure with the Wildcats, including a 102-69-1 (.596) mark in Big 8/12 games. His 178 victories are more than four times the man in second place on K-State's all-time coaching victories list. But to fully understand the turnaround ushered in by Snyder at

Kansas State one must only consider that the Wildcats were in the midst of an 0-26-1 run when he was hired. It also took K-State 51 seasons (1938-1988) to total just 130 wins, while the 12 head coaches prior to Snyder's arrival in Manhattan combined to win just 116 games from 1945-1988.

Snyder led Kansas State to 11 straight bowl berths between the 1993 and 2003 seasons, making K-State one of only seven programs in the nation to appear in the postseason every year during that stretch. During that span, Snyder's Wildcats won nearly 80 percent of their games, chalking up 109 victories - a staggering average of nearly 10 wins per season - and making Kansas State the nation's second-winningest program over that period.

And Snyder continued to break new ground with the Wildcats. Kansas State's 35-7 victory over top-ranked Oklahoma in the 2003 Big 12 Championship game lifted K-State to its first conference championship since Pappy Waldorf's 1934 squad and secured the school's first BCS bowl berth in the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl.

With an 11-4 record in 2003, K-State was the only team in the country to win 11 games in six of the previous seven years and just the second program in the history of college football to win 11 games six times in a seven-year stretch.

Snyder's unprecedented success in 22 years at Kansas State has not gone unnoticed. He has been named the National Coach of the Year on five occasions (1991, 1994, 1998, 2011 and 2012). He has been a finalist for the prestigious Bear Bryant/FWAA National Coach of the Year Award in 1993, 1995, 2011 and 2012 before winning in 1998; a finalist for the Football News National Coach of the Year Award in 1995 and 1998; and a finalist for the AFCA National Coach of the Year Award in 1993 and 1998.

In 1993, he joined legendary Nebraska head coach Bob Devaney as the only head coaches in Big Eight history to be named Associated Press Big Eight Coach of the Year three times in a four-year period (1990, 1991 and 1993).

Since the inception of the Big 12 Conference, Snyder's Wildcats truly have been a dominant force in the league, ranking in the top three in overall Big 12 wins. Kansas State also won more Big 12 road games than any team in the league during Snyder's first tenure and advanced to the championship game three times.

Those facts alone demonstrate the continuing evolution of a power in the Big 12 and with it the recognition that Snyder is truly one of the finest coaches in college football today.

The list of accomplishments Snyder has amassed in his 22 years is as endless as the time most people thought it would take for the Wildcats to be a consistent threat in the Big Eight, and now, Big 12 Conference.

Like so many in recent history, the 2003 campaign was a dramatically successful one for K-State, which ended the regular season with seven straight wins, a fourth Big 12 North title, its first Big 12 Championship and another top-20 finish.

But the 2003 season was not without its bumps in the road as the Wildcats overcame their share of adversity to produce perhaps the greatest season in school history. Ranked as high as No. 6 nationally in the early going, a key injury to quarterback Ell Roberson precipitated a three-game slide that threatened to wipe out a promising season.

The three losses all but erased K-State from the national consciousness, as the Wildcats slipped out of the both polls for the first time since the second game of the 2002 season. But Snyder was not about to allow the year to spiral out of control. He constantly reminded his players that they still controlled their own destiny, and if they could just go 1-0 each week the season would take care of itself and the team would ultimately achieve its goals.

And like everything Snyder seems to touch, this strategy too worked, as the Wildcats rode their 1-0 mantra week after week all the way to a berth in the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl.

Along the way, five different Wildcats were lauded for their efforts with All-America honors, including K-State's first Associated Press first team All-American running back, Darren Sproles, who finished fifth in voting for the Heisman Trophy, was the Doak Walker Award runner-up and finished third on the AP's Player of the Year ballot.

But Sproles was the lone player with star power that returned for the 2004 campaign. And though the little tank produced yet another record-breaking season capped by his third-straight selection to an All-Big 12 team, the lack of experience was one reason K-State struggled through a 4-7 rebuilding campaign.

The 2002 season was one of the best in Kansas State history, witnessed by the Wildcats' five-victory turnaround from the previous year's 6-6 team to a win in the Pacific Life Holiday Bowl and an 11-2 overall record.

In addition, the 2002 Wildcats set or tied 45 school records, including tying the mark for wins in a season.

Snyder's Wildcats finished the season with six consecutive victories, including the biggest wins in the history of the series in each of a three-week span against Kansas, Iowa State and Nebraska.

The Wildcats' dominant play down the stretch of the 2002 season earned Snyder the recognition of his peers as the Big 12 Conference Coach of the Year.

In 2001, Snyder directed one of the best in-season turnarounds in school history. Despite losing four straight in the middle of the year and facing the fourth-toughest schedule in the nation, the Wildcats recovered to win four of their last five games to end the regular season with a 6-5 record and a berth in the Insight.com Bowl.

Despite the record, the quality of players produced by the Snyder-led coaching staff continued to attract national attention from those who best know the game.

Six K-State players were selected in the 2002 NFL Draft, the most of any team in the Big 12 Conference, with only six schools in the country having more players picked in the draft.

The Wildcats started the 2000 season ranked in the Top 10 for just the second time in school history and made a four-week run into the Top 5 that saw K-State climb as high as No. 2 in the nation. K-State won the Big 12 North Division for the second time in three years and earned at least a share of the title for the third consecutive season. K-State had six players named first team All-Big 12 by the coaches, and PK Jamie Rheem, DT Mario Fatafehi and WR Quincy Morgan were All-Americans.

The 1999 season saw the Wildcats climb from No. 20 in the preseason poll to finish at No. 6, after starting the season with nine straight victories, and win 11 games for the third straight year. K-State tied Nebraska for the Wildcats' second consecutive Big 12 North Division Championship. All this came in what many thought would be a rebuilding season. K-State led the conference in first team picks with seven.

In 1998, Snyder led K-State to its second straight 11-win season and a No. 4 ranking in the final regular season polls. In November, K-State occupied a No. 1 ranking in a national poll for the first time in school history. The Wildcats won the Big 12 Conference North Division and advanced to a bowl game for the sixth year in a row. K-State won its first 11 games of the season and ran its winning streak to a school-record 20 games before falling to Texas A&M in the Big 12 Championship game. Quarterback Michael Bishop became the first Wildcat to be a finalist for the Heisman Trophy, and a total of six K-Staters earned All-America honors.

Snyder earned National Coach of the Year honors from the Walter Camp Foundation, the Bobby Dodd Coach of the Year Foundation, the Associated Press, the Paul "Bear" Bryant Award and the Schutt Sports Group.

In 1997, Snyder led the Wildcats to their first 11-win season in school history, a No. 7 final ranking and the first 10-win regular season since 1910. It was just the third 10-win season in 102 years of K-State football. Kansas State won a school-record seven conference games, finishing second in the North to undefeated and national champion Nebraska.

The Wildcats defeated South Division champion Texas A&M, 36-17. The season ended with a 35-18 win over Big East Conference champion Syracuse in the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl, with an estimated 50,000 K-State fans attending K-State's first-ever Alliance Bowl.

The 1996 season saw K-State finish with a 9-3 record, while more than 45,000 Wildcat fans painted Dallas purple for the Southwestern Bell Cotton Bowl, K-State's first-ever New Year's Bowl. Despite a 19-15 loss to No. 5 BYU, the respect for the K-State program grew to unprecedented heights.

In 1995, Snyder guided K-State to a 10-2 record, including a 5-2 Big Eight mark to tie for second place behind national champion Nebraska. Following a 54-21 blitzing of WAC champion Colorado State in the 1995 Holiday Bowl, the Wildcats finished the season ranked sixth in the USA Today/CNN coaches poll and seventh in the Associated Press poll. Both rankings were the highest ever attained by a Kansas State football team to that point.

In 1995, the Wildcats finished tied for second in the Big Eight and their 5-2 league mark gave K-State two consecutive 5-2 Big Eight seasons. In the last three years of the Big Eight, the Wildcats defeated or tied every team in the league except Nebraska. Since the inception of the Big 12 in 1996, K-State is 53-27 in league games under Snyder (10 seasons).

In 1993, Snyder guided K-State to its first bowl win in school history and, in 1994, the Wildcats cracked the Top 10 for the first time in school history. In 1998, the K-State achieved a No. 1 national ranking in one of the major polls for the first time in the program's history.

Individually, Snyder has produced 51 different All-Americans during his 21 years as head coach, including nine consensus first-team All-Americans: in 1992 (P Sean Snyder), 1993 (FS Jaime Mendez), 1995 (CB Chris Canty), 1996 (Canty), 1997 (PK Martin Gramatica), 1998 (PR David Allen), 1999 (LB Mark Simoneau) and 2002 (CB Terence Newman).

Newman became the third Wildcat to win a national award when he was voted the 2002 Thorpe Award. Gramatica was the 1997 Lou Groza Award winner, the first major award winner in K-State history. Michael Bishop became the first K-State player to be a finalist for the Heisman Trophy (finishing as runner-up) while winning the Davey O'Brien Award.

The foundation for K-State's turnaround was laid in 1989 during Snyder's first season in Manhattan. Although the season yielded just a 1-10 record, it became evident to everyone involved in the program that something special was happening. Most important, Snyder instilled a winning attitude and a healthy dose of self-respect and enthusiasm to a program that had been given up for dead.

In 1990, K-State was one of just four teams in the country to improve its record by four games with a 5-6 mark, including its first Big Eight Conference wins in four seasons with victories over Oklahoma State and Iowa State. Snyder again beat those two schools in 1991, while adding Kansas and Missouri to the list of his Big Eight victims to finish at 7-4 for K-State's first winning season since the Independence Bowl season of 1982. Heavy graduation losses on the offensive side of the ball resulted in a 5-6 mark in 1992, but the Cats were still able to hang their hats on their first perfect home season since 1934.

Of course, it should come as no surprise that Snyder would be this kind of architect for a building program. At Iowa, he played a key role in the renaissance of a Hawkeye program that went from 17 consecutive losing seasons to eight straight bowls. Snyder was the mind behind Iowa's potent offensive attack. The Hawkeye offense ranked first in passing efficiency and third in passing yardage nationally in Snyder's last five years of direction. In his final Iowa season, the Peach Bowl team led the Big Ten, and ranked seventh nationally, with 277 passing yards per game. Snyder also served as quarterback coach at Iowa and helped develop some of the best quarterbacks in NCAA history, including NFL players Chuck Long (second in Heisman voting), Mark Vlasic and Chuck Hartlieb, who wrapped up his career as the first Hawkeye to throw for 3,000 yards in back-to-back seasons.

Snyder began his full-time coaching career in 1964 as an assistant at Indio High School in California. In 1966 he served as a GA at USC under John McKay before returning to become head coach at Indio High School in 1967. He accepted the same position at Santa Ana Foothill High School in 1969, where he stayed until 1973.

In 1974, Snyder became the offensive coordinator and head swimming coach at Austin College in Sherman, Texas. He joined the North Texas staff in 1976 and helped author an impressive turnaround with a three-year record of 26-7. He left UNT for Iowa in 1979.

During his three-year hiatus, Snyder remained involved with the university and is currently a member of severall halls of fame that are listed below. The long-time mentor also involved in many organizations that are listed below.

Snyder, 74, received his B.A. from William Jewell in 1963. He earned his M.A. from Eastern New Mexico in 1965. As a player, he was a three-year letterwinner as a defensive back at William Jewell. Snyder and his wife, Sharon, have two sons (Sean and Ross) and three daughters (Shannon, Meredith and Whitney). They also have eight grandchildren, Sydney, Katherine, Tate, Matthew, Alexis, Gavin, Kadin and Tylin, and one great-grandson, D.J.

Assoc. Head Coach/Special Teams Coord./Dir. of Football Operations
20th Year - Kansas State '94

Former All-American punter and long-time staff member Sean Snyder is in his fourth season as the Wildcats' Associate Head Coach/Special Teams Coordinator and Director of Football Operations.

The former Consensus All-American enters his 20th year as a member of the Kansas State staff and his fourth as a full-time assistant coach. Snyder will also continue his role as Director of Football Operations, a position he has held the past 18 years.

In his second and third seasons as the special teams coordinator in 2012 and 2013, K-State enjoyed unprecedented success in both the return game and kick coverage as Snyder was named a finalist for the Special Teams Coordinator of the Year by FootballScoop both seasons. The 2012 Wildcats led the nation in kickoff-return average at 29.24 yards per return as they shattered both the school and Big 12 records. Additionally, the average was the best mark in NCAA history among teams with 35 or more returns in a season. K-State also ranked second in the NCAA with an 18.95 punt-return average, while its punt return defense average of two yards tied for fourth.

Individually, sophomore Tyler Lockett, who earned All-America and All-Big 12 honors as a kick returner as well as receiving votes for Big 12 Special Teams Player of the Year, ranked third nationally in kickoff return average at 32.76 yards per return. Junior Tramaine Thompson claimed the top spot in punt-return average at 19.75, which ranked third in school and Big 12 history.

That success continued in 2013 as Snyder's units ranked fifth nationally with five blocked kicks, including four from national leader Travis Britz. The punt-return unit averaged 12.5 yards per return to rank 17th in the nation, while the Wildcats ranked 26th nationally with a 23.4-yard average per kickoff return. In addition, Kansas State continued a nation-leading streak of nine-straight years with a kickoff-return touchdown when Thompson took one back 94 yards against Louisiana.

Snyder tutored Lockett to Big 12 Special Teams Player of the Year accolades, while he was also named a First Team All-Big 12 kick returner. The school's career leader in kickoff-return yardage, Lockett finished sixth in school history with 583 return yards in 2013 and enters his senior campaign ranked second in school history in career average (31.1) and touchdowns (4). Additionally, Thompson left Kansas State ranked fourth in school history in career punt-return yards (718) as he was named an Honorable Mention All-Big 12 performer as a kick returner in 2013.

In his first year as a full-time coach in 2011, K-State was among the nation's best in kickoff returns as Lockett, a true freshman, earned Walter Camp All-America honors after leading the nation with his 35.2-yard average. Punter Ryan Doerr was also a candidate for the Ray Guy Award, while place-kicker Anthony Cantele was a semifinalist for the Lou Groza Award in 2012 and was an Honorable Mention All-Big 12 pick in 2011.

Snyder received his start as a part-time assistant coach with the Wildcats in 1994 and served in that capacity until 1996, when he began focusing his efforts on the administrative side of the program as the Director of Football Operations.

In 1999, Snyder was promoted to Assistant Athletics Director for Football Operations. He was named Associate Athletics Director in 2001 and Senior Associate Athletics Director in 2010.

A member of Kansas State's inaugural Ring of Honor Class in 2002, Snyder was one of the program's most prolific punters during his playing days at K-State from 1991-92. As a senior, Snyder earned First Team All-America honors from the Associated Press, Kodak and Athlon after averaging a school-record 44.7-yards per punt. In 1991 he was tabbed as the Big Eight Defensive Newcomer of the Year after averaging 40.5 yards in his junior season.

A First Team All-Big Eight selection in 1992 after earning honorable-mention honors in 1991, Snyder was also selected to play in the 1992 Blue-Gray Game.

K-State's Special Teams MVP in 1991 and 1992, Snyder held K-State's record for punting average in a career (43.0) before having it broken by James Garcia in 1998, while his 3,572 punting yardage in 1992 still remains a school record.

Following his collegiate career, Snyder signed a free agent contract with the Phoenix Cardinals in 1993 and the following year with the San Diego Chargers.

Snyder earned his bachelor's degree from K-State in money and banking in 1994. Married to the former Wanda Boyett, the couple has three children, daughter Katherine, and sons Tate and Matthew, and one grandchild, D.J.

DANA DIMEL

Co-Offensive Coordinator/Running Backs/Tight Ends
17th Year - Kansas State '86

Dana Dimel, a 1986 Kansas State graduate, serves as the co-offensive coordinator and running backs/tight ends coach for head coach Bill Snyder. Dimel began his third tour of duty with the Wildcats in 2009 after serving three seasons on Mike Stoops' staff at Arizona.

The 2012 season perhaps was Dimel's best at K-State as he co-coordinated an offense that finished 11th nationally in scoring offense, ninth in yards per attempt and 13th in yards per completion. The offense was fourth nationally in fewest turnovers, 15th in number of loss yardage plays and fewest sacks allowed. K-State also ranked among the nation's best in third down efficiency (7th) and red zone efficiency (23rd).

K-State was led on the ground in 2012 by running back and All-Big 12 selection John Hubert as the second-year starter finished fourth in the Big 12 at 72.8 yards per game and placed second in the league with 15 rushing touchdowns. Quarterback Collin Klein, a Heisman Trophy finalist, also placed in the top 10 as he finished sixth at 70.88 yards per game.

Dimel's units found success again in 2013 as the K-State offense ranked eighth nationally in yards per completion, 13th in passing efficiency, while the Wildcats ranked fifth and third in school history in those categories, respectively. One of the best offenses in the nation on third downs (No. 13) and inside the red zone (No. 27), K-State ranked in the top 10 in school history in yards per play (second), total yards (fifth), passing yards (fifth) and points (eighth).

Under Dimel's tutelage, Hubert broke through after 900-plus yard seasons in 2011 and 2012 as he produced the 14th 1,000-yard rushing season in school history in 2013. Hubert earned Honorable Mention All-Big 12 honors, while he was also a candidate for the Doak Walker, Maxwell and Walter Camp Player of the Year awards. Dimel guided Hubert to the No. 2 spot on K-State's career rushing yardage lists and top-10 marks in 100-yard games (second), attempts (fourth), all-purpose yards (fifth) and rushing touchdowns (sixth). Hubert's main blocking back, Glenn Gronkowski, also garnered All-Big 12 accolades.

In 2011, Dimel led a rushing offense that saw Klein set a new Big 12 record and NCAA record by a quarterback with 27 rushing scores. Klein surpassed the 1,000-yard rushing mark on the season as well, while Hubert, a first-year starter, just missed the 1,000-yard barrier on the season. K-State maintained one of the top rushing offenses in the Big 12 in 2011 en route to a 10-3 record and a berth in the 2012 AT&T Cotton Bowl.

In 2010, the Wildcat offense ranked third in the Big 12 and among the top 25 nationally at 33.6 points per game. K-State was also ranked among the top 10 teams in the country in total red zone efficiency and No. 1 nationally in touchdown percentage in the red zone. The Cats' 47-percent conversion rating on third down ranked second in the league, while they were the least penalized offense in the Big 12.

In 2009 and 2010, Dimel had the charge of grooming a former community-college quarterback and molding him into a physical running back in the always tough Big 12 Conference. That player was Daniel Thomas, and 2,850 yards and 30 touchdowns later, Thomas left Kansas State as a two-time Big 12 rushing champion, an All-American and one of the most decorated running backs in school history. Thomas ranks third in K-State history for career rushing yards, a feat he accomplished in just two seasons, fifth in rushing touchdowns and also second in single-season school history with 1,585 rushing yards in 2010. Thomas burst onto the scene in 2009 as he eclipsed the 100-yard mark five times in a game and finished the year with 1,265 rushing yards and 11 touchdowns en route to Big 12 Newcomer of the Year honors.

Dimel joined Stoops' staff at Arizona in early 2006 in his previous post to coach tight ends and then took on bigger responsibilities calling plays as the running game coordinator and H-backs coach. In 2008, he worked primarily with tight ends and later became running backs coach as well as the associate head coach for the Wildcats. Arizona finished 8-5 in 2008, which included its first bowl win in 10 years after a 31-21 triumph over No. 17 BYU in the Las Vegas Bowl. The Wildcats' top scoring threat in 2008 was Rob Gronkowski, a tight end tutored by Dimel. Gronkowski, despite missing the first three games of the season due to illness, was a unanimous First Team All-Pac-10 selection at tight end after collecting 47 receptions for 672 yards and 10 touchdowns. Gronkowski, the older brother of current K-State fullback Glenn Gronkowski, was drafted by New England in the second round of the 2010 NFL Draft and has become one of the top tight ends in the NFL.

A K-State alumnus who lettered for the Wildcats in 1985 and 1986 as an offensive lineman, Dimel spent 10 years on the K-State staff from 1987 to 1996. Kansas State's offensive line coach for much of his tenure, Dimel also served as offensive coordinator during the 1995 and 1996 campaigns. In 1995, his first at the controls of the Wildcat offense, Kansas State set school records for both touchdowns and total points as well as total offense. He mentored 11 offensive linemen who went on to sign NFL contracts. He was also instrumental in developing All-Americans Barrett Brooks, Jim Hmielewski and Quentin Neujahr along with all-conference selections Jason Johnson, Todd Weiner and Ryan Young.

In 1997, Dimel became the youngest head coach in NCAA Division I when he took the reins at the University of Wyoming at the age of 34. Dimel spent three years at Wyoming, guiding the Cowboys to an impressive 23-12 overall record, and left Laramie as one of only 10 head coaches at the time to win no fewer than seven games in every year as a head coach.

Considered one of the nation's most successful young head coaches at the time, Dimel led the Cowboys to eight-win seasons in both 1997 and 1998 before being named head coach at the University of Houston, where he guided the Cougars' football program from 2000-2002. While at Houston, his 2001 and 2002 recruiting classes were ranked No. 1 in Conference USA by Rivals.com. In his final season at Houston, Dimel's team finished 5-7, including a final-game win over conference champion Louisville. Also, running back Joffrey Reynolds set the Conference USA rushing mark of 1,545 yards. Dimel also had three players earn Academic All-America distinction at Wyoming, including linebacker Brian Lee, who was also a Consensus All-American linebacker.

During his career as a head or assistant coach, Dimel has coached 34 players who have gone on to play in the NFL. A native of Columbus, Ohio, Dimel and his wife, Julie, have a son, Winston, and a daughter, Josey. Winston is a freshman fullback for the Wildcats.

TOM HAYES

Defensive Coordinator/Secondary
Fourth Year - Iowa '71

Tom Hayes, a 31-year coaching veteran with previous coordinator experience at three BCS institutions, enters his third season as the Wildcats' defensive coordinator and his fourth year at Kansas State. Hayes was instrumental in the Wildcats' resurgence on defense in 2011, while he directed a defense that helped the Wildcats produce a Big 12 Championship in 2012.

A University of Iowa graduate with extensive Big 8 and Big 12 coaching ties, Hayes just completed his 25th year of coaching at the collegiate level and participated in his 16th career bowl game when the Wildcats were victorious over Michigan in the 2013 Buffalo Wild Wings Bowl.

Focusing his positional work on defensive backs, Hayes has taught a distinct ballhawking mindset as the Wildcats have combined for 53 interceptions over the last three years, the fifth-most in a three-year span in school history and the most since the 2001-03 seasons.

One of those ballhawking defenses was in 2012 as Hayes directed the Wildcats to the top mark in the Big 12 in scoring defense in his first year as the coordinator in 2012. Kansas State yielded only 22.1 points per game – a six-point improvement from the year before – thanks to a stout rush defense that placed second in the league by yielding only 128.0 rushing yards per game, while the Wildcats pulled in 18 interceptions for a second-straight year to tie for 10th in school history.

Hayes helped tutor a pair of All-Americans in linebacker Arthur Brown and defensive back Ty Zimmerman, while Brown was the Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year by the league's coaches and Meshak Williams picked up Big 12 Defensive Lineman of the Year honors. The Wildcat defenders totaled 11 All-Big 12 selections under Hayes' guidance.

The defense was a major reason for K-State's historic in-season turnaround in 2013 as the Wildcats surrendered only 20.1 points per game in the final seven contests, six of which were victories. Over that seven-game stretch, Hayes' unit intercepted 13 passes and totaled 17 on the year to rank 23rd nationally. The Wildcats were efficient with their interceptions as well as they set the school record for return yards (401) and ranked fifth in school history with three returns for touchdowns.

Individually, Hayes helped guide four defenders to All-Big 12 honors, including Big 12 Defensive Lineman of the Year Ryan Mueller and Zimmerman, who became the first four-year all-conference player in school history. The safety also earned numerous All-America honors, was an honorable mention pick for the Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year award, a semifinalist for the Jim Thorpe Award and a candidate for the Bednarik Award and Nagurski Trophy. Thanks to Hayes' coaching, Zimmerman left K-State third in career interceptions, second in career interception-return yards and fourth in career interception-return touchdowns, while he is one of only 25 players in school history with 250-plus career tackles.

Tutoring the K-State secondary and serving as the pass game coordinator in 2011, Hayes helped Nigel Malone become an instant playmaker at cornerback as the junior was named a Walter Camp All-American after leading the Big 12 with seven interceptions. David Garrett, Tysyn Hartman and Zimmerman all earned All-Big 12 honors in 2011 from their positions in the defensive backfield, while the defense overall ranked fifth in the Big 12 in total defense, second in interceptions (18) and second in turnover margin (+12) in 2011.

Prior to arriving at K-State, Hayes spent the 2010 season on Bob Toledo's staff at Tulane where he coached the secondary and tutored First Team All-Conference USA cornerback Phillip Davis. Davis, who became Tulane's first all-conference first team selection on defense since 2005, ranked eighth nationally in 2010 and tops in Conference USA with 15 passes defended.

Hayes also served on the New Orleans Saints staff as a defensive backs coach for two seasons in 2006 and 2007. Hayes molded a group of young players and veterans into key contributors as the Saints possessed the NFC's top-ranked pass defense in 2006. In New Orleans, the Saints gave up just 178.4 passing yards per game in 2006, leading the conference and ranking third in the NFL. The Saints held eight different offenses to under 160 yards passing that season - including two under 100 yards.

During his career, Hayes has served as defensive coordinator at BCS institutions Stanford, UCLA, Oklahoma and Kansas and also coached for the Washington Redskins for five years.

Hayes has been a part of teams that have compiled an 11-5 record in bowl games throughout his career - including three Rose Bowl victories - and has coached 26 defensive backs who moved on to NFL rosters, including five first-round draft picks.

Prior to arriving at Stanford in 2005, Hayes spent the 2001 season at Kansas. He was the Jayhawks' defensive coordinator and secondary coach and was interim head coach for the final three games of the season.

Hayes spent the 1995-1999 seasons coaching the secondary for the Redskins under Norv Turner. A list of the NFL standouts Hayes has worked with includes cornerbacks Darrell Green, Cris Dishman and Champ Bailey while with the Redskins. At UCLA, Hayes was a key part of establishing the school's history of NFL-bound safeties by tutoring Kenny Easley, Don Rogers, James Washington, Eric Turner and Carnell Lake. In his stint at Texas A&M, Hayes coached cornerback Kevin Smith.

Hayes coached under Gary Gibbs at the University of Oklahoma for four years (1991-94), under R.C. Slocum at Texas A&M for two years (1989-90) and under Terry Donahue at UCLA for nine seasons (1980-88).

At Oklahoma, Hayes was the defensive coordinator and secondary coach. He helped the Sooners to a pair of nine-win seasons and three bowl games, including a win over Virginia in the 1991 Gator Bowl and a victory over Texas Tech in the '93 Hancock Bowl.

He was the assistant head coach and secondary coach for two seasons at Texas A&M. He helped direct the Aggies to a combined 17-7-1 record and trips to the Hancock Bowl in 1989 (lost to Pittsburgh) and the Holiday Bowl in 1990 (victory over BYU).

Hayes worked for nine years as an assistant coach under Donahue at UCLA (1980-88). He was the secondary coach in 1980-81, then was promoted to co-defensive coordinator/secondary coach from 1982-88. In nine seasons in Westwood, Hayes was part of a Bruin program that won four Pac-10 Championships, appeared in three Rose Bowls and eight bowl games overall, went 7-1 in bowl competition and finished among the top five nationally five times and among the top 20 eight times. The Bruins never won less than seven games during Hayes' nine-year tenure.

Hayes was the defensive coordinator and secondary coach at Cal State Fullerton in 1979 and was the secondary coach at his alma mater, Iowa, in 1977-78. He coached for five years on the high school level and one year at Coe College in Iowa before getting his first Division I job at Iowa in 1977.

Hayes was a three-year letterwinner as a defensive back for the Hawkeyes from 1967-71, and earned his degree from Iowa in Finance/Insurance in 1971. Born in Keokuk, Iowa, he and his wife Cindy have three children, Andy, Lindsay and Sarah.

DEL MILLER

Co-Offensive Coordinator/Quarterbacks
18th Year - Central College '72

Del Miller, who has worked with some of the most prolific offenses in K-State history, will be entering his 18th season overall at Kansas State in 2014 which includes four different stops in Manhattan under head coach Bill Snyder. Miller serves as the Wildcats' co-offensive coordinator while also tutoring the quarterbacks.

In 2012, Miller tutored Heisman Trophy finalist Collin Klein as the signal caller guided K-State to an 11-2 record and the school's second BCS Bowl berth. Klein was also the 2013 Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award winner, a finalist for the Maxwell and Manning awards and Walter Camp Player of the Year, while he was named an All-American by numerous organizations. Under Miller's guidance, Klein improved upon or established 34 career, season or single-game top-10 marks in K-State history, including eight school records. He also became the only quarterback from a BCS automatic qualifying school in the BCS era to rush for at least 20 touchdowns and pass for at least 10 scores in multiple seasons, while he broke the FBS record for rushing touchdowns by a quarterback in consecutive seasons.

Miller led a 2012 offense that saw Klein set a new Big 12 record and NCAA record by a quarterback with 27 rushing touchdowns. Klein surpassed the 1,000-yard rushing mark on the season as well, and became one of the nation's top players in 2011 under Miller's guidance. K-State maintained one of the top offenses in the Big 12 in 2011 en route to a 10-3 record and a berth in the 2012 AT&T Cotton Bowl.

With K-State needing to break in a new starting quarterback for the 2013 season, the transition was seamless due to Miller's guidance of K-State's 1-2 punch of Jake Waters and Daniel Sams, which combined to rank eighth nationally in yards per completion (14.83) and 13th in passing efficiency (155.72). Additionally, K-State was fine-tuned on third downs leading the Big 12 and ranking 13th nationally at 48.8 percent.

Waters, a community-college transfer, started all 13 games and played especially well when K-State won six of its final seven games as he went 83-of-138 for 1,433 yards and 14 touchdowns while only throwing four interceptions down the stretch. His 2,469 yards on the year ranked 10th in school history, and he ranked sixth in K-State history with 18 touchdown passes. Waters, who was a Second Team All-Big 12 selection by Phil Steele, was also one of the most efficient quarterbacks in the country as his 15.53 yards per completion ranked fourth in the NCAA and his 156.84 quarterback rating was 14th.

Used as a change-of-pace, Sams, an Honorable Mention All-Big 12 performer, dazzled with his running ability by rushing for 807 yards and a team-high 11 touchdowns as he compiled the fifth-most rushing yards by a quarterback in school history. His rushing total was given a boast by his 199-yard effort against No. 15 Baylor, which ranked as the second most in a single game by a quarterback in school history. The sophomore was also proficient through the air by his own right, completing 71.7-percent of his passes (38-of-53).

In 2010, Miller helped the Wildcat offense average 33.6 points per game en route to the program's first bowl appearance since 2006. K-State was also ranked among the top 10 teams in the country in total red zone efficiency and No. 1 nationally in touchdown percentage in the red zone. The Cats' 47-percent conversion rating on third down ranked second in the league, while they were also the least penalized offense in the Big 12. Quarterback Carson Coffman recorded the fifth-highest efficiency rating in school history in 2010 after completing 65-percent of his passes for a passing efficiency rating of 143.1.

In 2009, Miller ushered in a new quarterback as Grant Gregory took over the offense and led the Cats to a 6-6 mark and a second-place finish in the Big 12 North. Behind Gregory's leadership, K-State was one win away in the final game from advancing to the Big 12 Championship.

Prior to coming back to K-State in 2009, Miller was the offensive coordinator at San Diego State from 2006-08. In his final season there, the Aztecs were led by two redshirt freshmen in quarterback Ryan Lindley - who is currently on the roster with the Arizona Cardinals - and wide receiver Vincent Brown. Lindley threw for 2,653 yards and ranked 40th nationally in total offense, while Brown, an All-Mountain West selection by Phil Steele, ranked 44th nationally with 5.33 receptions per game and hauled in 64 catches for 631 yards and five touchdowns in 2008.

In 2007, the Aztecs ranked 28th nationally in passing offense, throwing for over 3,000 yards, while SDSU also led the Mountain West Conference in red zone offense, scoring nearly 90-percent of the time. Following the season, his quarterback, Kevin O'Connell, was selected in the third round of the NFL Draft by the New England Patriots.

One of the first hires made by Snyder when he first came to K-State in 1989, Miller returned to Manhattan in 2001 as offensive coordinator for his third stint on the staff after serving as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Oklahoma State for the 2000 season.

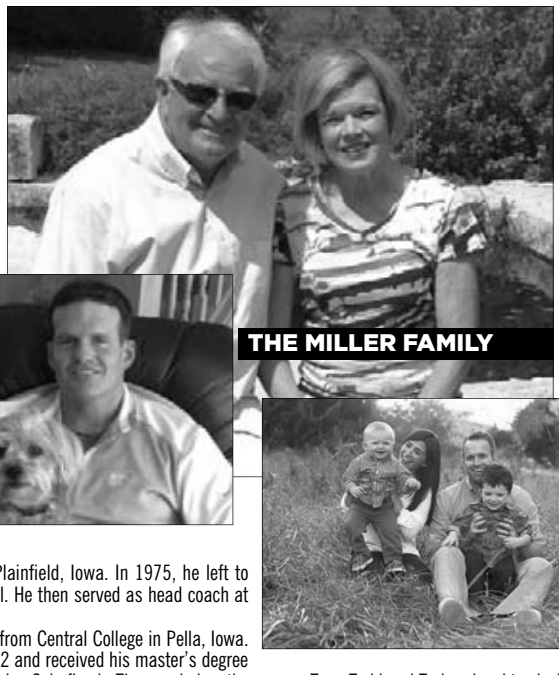
Miller has played a major role in the building of two major college programs, first at Iowa under the legendary Hayden Fry from 1978-88 before becoming a member of Snyder's original Kansas State coaching staff. He has coached in 17 bowl games, including nine at Kansas State.

Miller returned to Kansas State in 1999 to serve as a graduate assistant, helping the Wildcats to a third consecutive 11-win season and a Big 12 North Division co-Championship. After a year at Oklahoma State, he returned to Manhattan in 2001 to serve as the assistant director of football operations before being elevated to defensive ends coach in 2002.

Miller began his second stint as the school's offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach in 2003. He helped the Wildcats rank ninth nationally in both scoring and rushing offense and 17th in total offense en route to capturing their first conference championship in nearly 70 years. The offense was one of just seven in the country to average over 200 yards per game in both rushing and passing. Miller was instrumental in developing quarterback Ell Roberson, who at one time was the school's all-time leader in total offense and passing touchdowns.

With the opportunity to run his own program, Miller left Kansas State in 1995 to take over as head coach at Southwest Missouri State. He guided the Bears to a 21-23 record in four seasons, including their first winning mark in three years in 1996 at 7-4.

Miller followed Snyder to K-State in 1989, serving as the program's offensive coordinator as well as quarterbacks and wide receivers coach. After two seasons, he was elevated to assistant head coach for the 1991 season. Later that year, Miller helped the Cats post their first winning season in nine years at 7-4. Miller coached six all-league players from 1989 to 1994, including two-time picks Chad May and Michael Smith.



THE MILLER FAMILY

Miller began his coaching career in 1972 when he became head coach at Plainfield High School in Plainfield, Iowa. In 1975, he left to become the defensive coordinator at Eagle Grove High School. He then served as head coach at Eagle Grove from 1977-78.

A native of Marengo, Iowa, Miller played and graduated from Central College in Pella, Iowa. He earned his bachelor's degree in physical education in 1972 and received his master's degree in physical education in 1976. Miller is married to the former Jan Schafbuch. The couple has three sons, Troy, Todd and Tad, a daughter-in-law, Maria (Tad's wife), and two grandsons, Gabriel and Benjamin.

ANDRE COLEMAN

Wide Receivers
Second Year - Kansas State '11

Former Kansas State standout Andre Coleman returned to his alma mater prior to the 2013 season to tutor the Wildcat wide receivers, and he didn't waste any time making an impact.

A four-year letterwinner at wide receiver under Bill Snyder from 1990-93, Coleman coached a position group in 2013 that recorded the most receptions and yards ever by a Snyder-coached team and the fifth-most touchdowns in Snyder's 22 years at the helm of the Wildcats.

The group was led by All-American Tyler Lockett, who ranked 11th nationally with 105.2 receiving yards per game and 19th in the NCAA with 11 touchdown receptions. Lockett, who was a candidate for the Biletnikoff Award, set the school's single-game receiving yardage record at Texas (237) before smashing his own mark later in the season against Oklahoma (278). The junior, who holds two of the school's five 200-yard receiving games, also tied the single-game school record with three receiving touchdowns on three occasions. The 2013 Big 12 Special Teams Player of the Year thanks in part to Coleman, Lockett obliterated the school's single-game all-purpose yardage record with 440 against Oklahoma, a mark that ranked as the fifth-most in FBS history.

Although Lockett was the driving force behind Coleman's successful receiving corps, he was hardly the lone threat as senior Tramaine Thompson and junior Curry Sexton gave the Wildcats solid No. 2 and 3 options for Coleman. Thompson, who left K-State No. 12 on the all-time receiving list, was an Honorable Mention All-Big 12 kick returner thanks to Coleman's tutelage, while he and Sexton teamed with Lockett on two occasions during the year for double 100-yard receiving games, just the eighth and ninth occurrences in school history.

Prior to returning to K-State, Coleman spent the previous three seasons on head coach and former K-State offensive lineman Eric Wolford's staff at Youngstown State. In 2011 and 2012 at Youngstown State, Coleman worked with no seniors and only one junior as he coached multiple freshmen and sophomores who were called into action early in their careers to the tune of 109 total receptions by underclassmen. He helped YSU post a 7-4 record, including a 31-17 victory at Pittsburgh, which served as the school's first-ever victory over a BCS opponent.

During his first season as the receivers coach in 2011, Coleman guided a group that caught 22 of a school-record 27 touchdown passes, while the Penguins' 227.5 passing yards per game were the second most in school history and the highest since 1972. Christian Bryan set school freshman records in receptions (46) and yards (722) under Coleman's watch, while his yardage total was the most by a freshman at the FCS level that season. Coaching the tight ends in his first season on the staff in 2010, Coleman's group hauled in 17 receptions and two touchdowns, helping YSU's offense set a then-school record at 412.0 yards per game.

A 1993 All-America and All-Big Eight performer, Coleman left his mark at K-State during his four years by accumulating 3,443 all-purpose yards, including 1,556 receiving yards and 12 touchdowns on 95 receptions and 1,458 kickoff-return yards on 60 returns. He still sits in K-State's top 10 in 14 offensive or return categories, including top marks in both single-game all-purpose yards per play (27.0 vs. Missouri in 1993) and career all-purpose yards per play (18.2), a second-place ranking in career kickoff-return attempt and the No. 3 spot in kickoff-return yards.

The Hermitage, Pa., product was drafted in the third round of the 1994 NFL Draft by San Diego and put together a solid five-year professional career playing for the Chargers, Seattle Seahawks and Pittsburgh Steelers. A two-time Pro Bowler and 1994 NFL All-Rookie squad honoree, Coleman helped the Chargers win the 1994 AFC Championship and earn a trip to Super Bowl XXIX in which he established eight Super Bowl records at the time, including a then-record 98-yard kickoff return touchdown as he became the first Wildcat football player to score a touchdown in a Super Bowl.

Coleman completed his degree in social sciences from Kansas State in the summer of 2011. He and his wife, Brandi, have three daughters, Shyla, Kyla and Brielle.

MIKE COX

Linebackers
Third Year - Idaho '89

A 26-year coaching veteran who has been influential in preparing many players for the NFL, Mike Cox is entering his third season as the Wildcats' linebacker coach under legendary head coach Bill Snyder.

A 1989 graduate of the University of Idaho, Cox came to K-State in 2012 from Washington where he served as linebackers coach for three seasons. Prior to joining the Huskies, Cox worked two seasons (2007-08) for the St. Louis Rams, coaching the secondary and linebackers.

Cox made an instant impact on the Wildcat linebackers in 2012 as he tutored three All-Big 12 performers, including All-American and Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year Arthur Brown. Under Cox's tutelage, Brown was named a finalist for the Lott IMPACT Trophy and a semifinalist for the Bednarik Award. He also helped K-State finish first in the Big 12 in scoring defense as the Wildcats yielded 22.1 points per game and finish second in the conference and 10th in school history in fewest rushing yards allowed per game. In addition, Kansas State's 376.5 yards allowed per game were the third-fewest in the conference.

In 2013, All-Big 12 linebacker Blake Slaughter led a defense that ranked third in the Big 12 in rushing defense, scoring defense and total defense. Slaughter's 110 tackles on the season ranked sixth in the Big 12, were the third-most of all Big 12 linebackers and were the most by a Wildcat since 2003. Cox also tutored former walk-on and first-year starter Jonathan Truman, who ranked second on the team with 89 tackles.

Cox was vital to the success at Washington in his three years as he tutored Cort Dennison to All-Pac-12 honors in 2011 before coaching one of the conference's top linebacker groups in 2010. Senior Mason Foster led the league and finished second in the nation with 163 total tackles, most by a Pac-10 player since 1989. Foster went on to earn First Team All-Pac-10 and First Team All-America honors. Meanwhile, Victor Aiyewa finished first the conference and seventh in the nation in tackles per loss, while Dennison was seventh in the league in total tackles.

In his first season as the UW linebackers coach in 2009, Cox helped oversee one of the Huskies' strongest units. Washington's 2009 linebackers corps was led by veterans Donald Butler and Foster. Those two combined for 193 tackles, including 94 from Butler, who was a Second Team All-Pac-10 selection. Cox also helped coach a defense that made vast improvements over the previous season as opponents' total offense was reduced by an average of 62 yards per game and opponents scored 12 fewer points per game than in 2008.

Cox, a native of Coeur d'Alene, Idaho, joined the UW staff from the St. Louis Rams, where he worked for two seasons. In 2007, he was a defensive quality control/defensive line coach before moving to assistant secondary coach in 2008. After a mid-season coaching change, he became linebackers coach for the Rams. Before his time in the NFL, Cox spent four seasons as linebackers coach at Michigan State, where he was also the recruiting coordinator in 2006.

Much of Cox's coaching career has been spent on the various coaching staffs of John L. Smith. In all, Cox served 17 seasons on a Smith staff at Michigan State, Louisville, Utah State and Idaho.

He coached the linebackers for five seasons at Louisville (1998-2002), helping the Cardinals to consecutive Conference USA championships in 2000 and 2001. He coached three All-CUSA selections and, in 2000, was part of a defense that forced an NCAA-best 37 turnovers. The 2002 Louisville team was 17th in the nation in rushing defense and 22nd in total defense.

From 1995-97, he was on the staff at Utah State, where he coached a pair of All-Big West linebackers, David Gill and Tony D'Amato. In 1995, Gill broke Utah State's season record for tackles with 168. Utah State won back-to-back Big West Conference championships in 1996 and 1997.

As an assistant at Idaho (1987-94) coaching linebackers and defensive line, Cox helped his alma mater to a combined record of 73-26 (.733) from 1987-94, winning four Big Sky Conference championships and finishing in the top 10 five times. In 1994, the Vandals led the Big Sky in rushing defense, allowing only 65.3 yards per game.

Cox was a four-year letterwinner at linebacker for Idaho from 1983-86, starting for three seasons. He played for head coaches Dennis Erickson and Keith Gilbertson. He still ranks among the Vandals' all-time leaders with 252 career tackles. For his efforts in both high school and college, Cox was inducted into the Idaho Athletic Hall of Fame in April.

Cox earned a bachelor's degree in general studies from Idaho in 1989. He and his wife, Jill, have three children, Zac, Jake and Addison.

CHARLIE DICKEY

Offensive Line
Sixth Year - Arizona '87

Charlie Dickey enters his sixth season at K-State tutoring the Wildcat offensive line as he joined Bill Snyder's staff upon his return in 2009.

Dickey continued his streak of stout offensive lines in 2013 as four of his five starters earned All-Big 12 honors, including center junior B.J. Finney, who was also a candidate for the Lombardi, Outland and Rimington national awards, and senior tackle Cornelius Lucas, who was up for the Outland Trophy.

The veteran unit helped K-State advance to its fourth-straight bowl game and earn its first bowl victory in 11 years and did so by helping the Wildcats be one of the most effective offenses down the stretch. During the final seven games of the year when K-State went 6-1, the Wildcats averaged 35.9 points and 404.7 yards per game, including an average of 172.7 yards on the ground. The Wildcats finished the season ranked 13th nationally and first in the Big 12 in third-down conversions, which was due in large part to the offensive line as the Kansas State converted 61.5-percent of its third downs when needing six or fewer yards. Additionally, the 2013 Wildcats ranked 10th in school history in average yards per rush (4.5) and rushing touchdowns (29).

In 2012, Dickey guided an offensive line that helped Kansas State finish fourth in the Big 12 in rushing offense and yield the second-fewest sacks in the league with 14. Dickey's linemen helped K-State place in the top 10 of school history in yards per carry (third; 4.79), rushing touchdowns (fourth; 41), yards per game (fifth; 411.2) and total offense (sixth; 4,935). He saw four of his five regular starters earn all-conference accolades for the Big 12 Champions, including Finney, who was on the watch list for the Rimington Award and a semifinalist for the Burlsworth Trophy. The group paved the way for Collin Klein in both the running and passing game as they helped Klein become an All-American and a finalist for the Heisman Trophy.

In 2011, K-State remained one of the most physical offenses in the Big 12 Conference, led by an offensive line that paved the way for Klein. Three Wildcat linemen led the group as seniors Clyde Aufner and Zach Hanson earned All-Big 12 honors from their tackle positions, while Finney came on strong in his first year on the field and earned both Freshman All-Big 12 and All-America honors in 2011. The Cats were again the least penalized team in the league, while the offensive line helped the Cats average 31 points a game and total 34 rushing touchdowns on the year.

In 2010, Dickey tutored an experienced K-State line that included three seniors in the middle, headlined by All-Big 12 guard Zach Kendall and Rimington Award candidate Wade Weibert at center. The group paved the way for running back Daniel Thomas, who led the Big 12 in rushing in both 2009 and 2010. K-State averaged 33.6 points per game in 2010 en route to the program's first bowl appearance since 2006. Additionally, the Cats' 47-percent conversion rating on third down ranked second in the league, while they were also the least penalized offense in the Big 12.

The 2009 group, led by senior All-Big 12 tackle Nick Stringer, proved to be one of the most improved units on the team as the Wildcats' averaged 180 yards rushing per game, a figure that ranked 36th nationally and fourth in the Big 12 Conference.

Dickey came to K-State after capping his fourth season at Utah with an undefeated 13-0 season and a win over No. 4 Alabama in the Sugar Bowl. Dickey was instrumental in the Utes' success on offense when he took charge of the line in 2005 and his position was regarded as a Ute stronghold from that day on. In 2006, Utah was the last team in the country to allow a sack (six games).

In 2008, offensive tackle Zane Beadles and guard Robert Conley were First Team All-Mountain West Conference selections under Dickey and protected and paved the way for quarterback Brian Johnson, the 2008 MWC Offensive Player of the Year and Sugar Bowl Most Outstanding Player.

During his time at Utah, Dickey coached four first-team all-conference players in center Jesse Boone (2005), tackles Tavo Tupola (2006) and Beadles (2008) and guard Conley (2008). In 2007, both Beadles and Conley won second team honors for the Utes.

Dickey coached in the Pac-10 for 13 years before heading to Utah, spending 12 years at his alma mater, Arizona, and one season at Washington. At Arizona, he coached the offensive line from 1992-2002 and the tight ends in 2003. In 2004, Dickey went to Washington as the Huskies' offensive line coach.

While at Arizona, Dickey developed first-team all-conference linemen Warner Smith (1994) and Yusuf Scott (1998). Scott won the 1998 Morris Trophy, which goes to the league's outstanding offensive lineman.

Dickey began his coaching career after playing one season for the Pittsburgh Steelers during the 1987 NFL strike. In 1988, he worked at Arizona as a graduate assistant coach before tutoring the offensive line at Scottsdale Community College in 1989 and at Northern Arizona from 1990-91.

In his playing days, Dickey started at offensive guard at Arizona from 1983-84 - compiling a streak of 1,230 consecutive offensive plays (including all 840 offensive plays of the 1983 season). He was named Second Team All-Pac-10 in 1984 and was Arizona's Offensive Most Valuable Player. Before going to Arizona, he completed an all-conference community-college career at Scottsdale Community College.

Dickey, who earned his bachelor's degree in business administration from Arizona in 1987, is married to the former Lisa Bradshaw, a native of Jetmore, Kan., and a member of the Arizona women's basketball team from 1983-85. The couple has five children, daughters Jazmin Wagner, Tasha and Shyanne, son Charles Jr., and son-in-law Alan Wagner. A daughter, Chanel, passed away at the age of three. Tasha played basketball at K-State during the 2011-12 season and is the current Director of Video Services for the women's basketball program.

THE DICKEY FAMILY

MO LATIMORE

Interior Defensive Line
31st Year - Kansas State '76

A former All-American lineman for the Wildcats in the 1970s, Mo Latimore is the longest tenured assistant coach in the Big 12 Conference and will enter his 31st season at Kansas State in 2014 as the team's interior defensive line coach.

Latimore has been a fixture at Kansas State since returning to his alma mater in 1994 following a five-year stint at Missouri. He has played an integral role in Kansas State's ascent to one of the nation's elite programs, helping the Wildcats to 11 seasons of nine or more wins and 15 bowl games. He has also been a big reason for K-State's strong presence on defense and has mentored lines that helped the Wildcats rank among the nation's top 10 in total defense several times, including top-five rankings in 1995, 1997, 1998, 1999, 2000, 2001 and 2002.

During the last 19 seasons, Latimore has helped coach four All-Americans, including first-team honorees Tim Colston (1995) and Mario Fatafehi (2000), two conference Defensive Newcomers of the Year (Fatafehi in 1999 and Tank Reese in 2001) and one conference Defensive Player of the Year (Colston; 1995). Over the past five seasons, seven Wildcat defenders have earned all-conference honors, including Travis Britz, Vai Lutui, Ray Kibble, Jeffrey Fitzgerald, Ian Campbell, Eric Childs and Brandon Harold.

Britz was a 13-game starter in 2013 that made 37 tackles, including 6.5 for loss and three sacks, while he was the national leader with four blocked kicks. Britz followed in Lutui's footsteps, who was also a 13-game starter the year prior that helped K-State rank first in the Big 12 in scoring defense, second in rushing defense and win the Big 12 title for the second time in school history.

Kibble was a mainstay in the middle in 2011 and a big part of K-State's 10-win season and berth in the AT&T Cotton Bowl. Defensive tackle Raphael Guidry also made a lasting impact on special teams in 2011 as he set a new K-State record with five blocked kicks on the season.

Campbell earned three straight all-conference awards and left Kansas State as one of the program's best defensive ends. Harold was one of the top freshmen defenders in the country in 2008 and led the nation in sacks and tackles for loss among freshmen defensive linemen.

In 2005, protégé Alphonso Moran received Big 12 All-Freshman honors as well as Honorable Mention Freshman All-America accolades from Sporting News, and, in 2006, Campbell was selected as a consensus first team All-Big 12 performer as well as the Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year by the Houston Chronicle. Campbell again added first team honors in 2007, while defensive end Rob Jackson also garnered all-league accolades in 2008.

In his first season back at his alma mater, Latimore helped guide the Wildcats to the nation's top ranking in total defense, while also coaching Colston to third team All-America honors from the Associated Press. In 1995, Latimore helped Colston become the first defensive lineman in school history to earn First Team All-America accolades and Big Eight Defensive Player of the Year honors.

Beginning in 1997, Latimore coached at least one all-conference linemen for six consecutive seasons, including three first-team honorees. Fatafehi became the first of two Latimore protégés to earn Big 12 Newcomer of the Year honors. In 2000, he coached a defensive line that saw three of its four starters (Monty Beisel, Chris Johnson and Fatafehi) earn All-Big 12 honors, while Fatafehi became Latimore's second First Team All-American in six seasons. Also, the line recorded 39 sacks and helped the Cats finish fourth nationally in total defense. Latimore saw his second player, Tank Reese, earn Big 12 Defensive Newcomer of the Year honors in 2001, as well as first team all-league recognition in both 2001 and 2002.

The 2006 campaign brought even more success as Latimore's unit was at the forefront of a defense that led the Big 12 in sacks and ranked sixth nationally with 40, including a school-record 11.5 by Campbell. The 2007 line ranked second in the Big 12 in sacks, again led by Campbell.

Latimore began his coaching career at K-State in 1976 under Ellis Rainsberger as a graduate assistant. After 10 years in various roles on the Kansas State staff, Latimore moved to UTEP in 1986 under Bob Stull, where he coached the defensive line for three seasons. He helped the Miners to the school's first 10-win season in 1988, which cumulated in the school's first bowl game in 21 years - the 1988 Independence Bowl. In 1989, Latimore moved with Stull to Missouri, where he coached until 1993.

One of the top lineman in K-State history, Latimore earned Third Team All-America honors and First Team All-Big Eight accolades while also serving as team captain in 1971. He played in the 1971 Senior Bowl and North-South Bowl before being drafted in the seventh round by the New York Jets. He went on to play four years in the CFL with Calgary, Saskatchewan and Hamilton. He transferred to K-State prior to the 1970 season after two years at Hutchinson Junior College. In 2013, Latimore was inducted into the Hutchinson Quarterback Club Hall of Fame.

A native of Byron, Ga., Latimore, earned his bachelor's degree in physical education in 1976. He is married to the former D'Anne Mitchell. The couple has two children, M.L. and Mallory.

BLAKE SEILER

Defensive Ends
Sixth Year - Kansas State '07

A former defensive end for the Wildcats who spent the 2011 and 2012 seasons as a graduate assistant, Blake Seiler enters his sixth season at Kansas State and the second as a full-time assistant coach tutoring the Wildcat defensive ends.

It didn't take long for Seiler to make an impact as he coached former walk-on Ryan Mueller to Second Team All-America and Big 12 Defensive Lineman of the Year accolades. Mueller tied the school record with 11.5 sacks in 2013, a mark that ranked eighth nationally. Mueller, who also ranked 14th in the NCAA with 18.5 tackles for loss, was a First Team All-Big 12 performer by numerous outlets, a semifinalist for the Burlsworth Trophy as the nation's top former or current walk-on and was a candidate for the Ted Hendricks Award as the nation's best defensive end.

A letterman at K-State form 2004-06, Seiler returned to his alma mater in 2009 as a quality control assistant for defense for two years. He then spent two seasons as a defensive graduate assistant coach where he assisted with the defensive secondary, ran the scout team offense and broke down film. Prior to coaching, Seiler spent two years working as a structural engineer at Cessna Aircraft Company in Wichita, Kan.

As a player, Seiler transferred to K-State from Oklahoma State where he was a member of the Cowboys 2003 National Championship wrestling team. The Goddard, Kan., product earned First Team Academic All-Big 12 honors during his final three years in Manhattan while becoming one of the biggest contributors on defense.

As a senior in 2006, Seiler was voted team captain and named the Kansas State Male Scholar-Athlete of the Year. He made 21 tackles that season, including four sacks, as he registered at least one tackle in 11-of-13 games. He had multiple stops in six games as he helped the Wildcats earn a trip to the 2006 Texas Bowl.

During an 11-game 2005 season, Seiler carded a career-best 34 tackles, including a season-high seven against Texas A&M. That season, Seiler was honored with the program's Nancy Bennett Award, representing fight, spirit and a positive nature.

Seiler saw action in all 11 games in 2004 as a sophomore, being credited with six tackles, including 1.5 for loss. He earned the Kansas State Purple Pride Award as the walk-on that displayed quality play, leadership and work ethic.

Seiler graduated from Kansas State in 2007 with a degree in mechanical engineering. He also holds a master's degree in Business Administration from Wichita State University. He was married to the former Inge Jorgensen this past summer.

ZACH HANSON

Offensive Graduate Assistant
Third Year - Kansas State '10

A former standout at Kansas State along the offensive line, Zach Hanson is in his third season on the staff and his second as an Offensive Graduate Assistant. In his role, Hanson will assist offensive line coach Charlie Dickey and will help run the scout team. Hanson served as an Offensive Quality Control coach in 2012 as he assisted in film breakdown and scouting reports among other duties.

Hanson, who played in 37 games as a Wildcat from 2009-11, earned All-Big 12 Second Team honors from the league's coaches in 2011, while he was an honorable mention pick by the Associated Press and a Second Team Academic All-Big 12 honoree. He started the final 11 games of 2011 at left tackle, helping K-State earn a 10-3 record and an appearance in the AT&T Cotton Bowl. Hanson also started four games in 2010.

A native of Linden, Calif., Hanson originally signed with Nevada out of high school but opted to attend Sacramento City College prior to K-State. He obtained a degree in social sciences from Kansas State in 2010 and is currently pursuing a master's degree in sociology.

SCOTTY OHARA

Offensive Graduate Assistant
Third Year - Arizona '08

Scotty Ohara enters his fourth season at Kansas State and his third as the Offensive Graduate Assistant. During the 2011 season, Ohara served the position of Offensive Quality Control.

Prior to his stint at K-State, Ohara worked three years as an undergraduate at the University of Arizona, working with current Wildcat assistant coach Dana Dimel. He was a three-year student manager from 2005-07, while he was a volunteer assistant during the 2007 season in which he was in the press box on game days to chart offensive notes. During the 2008 season, he took on an increased role as he assisted Dimel with the running backs and tight ends by working on opponent film breakdown, produced weekly run game and third-down analysis, while he met with younger running backs for weekly film study, blitz recognition and playbook review.

Following his time at U of A, Ohara was the wide receivers coach at Menlo College in Atherton, Calif., as he helped develop offense schemes and create game plans while making all personnel decisions associated with the wide receiver position.

A native of San Jose, Calif., Ohara prepped at Pioneer High School before playing one year collegiately at Chapman University in Orange, Calif. He obtained his Bachelor's Degree in Molecular and Cellular Biology from Arizona in 2008.

DREW PAPUCHIS

Defensive Graduate Assistant
Second Year - Ohio '11

Drew Papuchis is in his second year at Kansas State and will serve as a graduate assistant working with defensive coordinator Tom Hayes and the Wildcat defenders, specifically the linebackers. Prior to coming to Manhattan, Papuchis worked at Ohio University under the direction of Frank Solich.

During his four-year undergraduate stint, Papuchis assisted in all areas pertaining to daily operations and team preparation. After obtaining his degree in Sports Science with a double minor in business and marketing, Papuchis was hired as a Defensive Graduate Assistant in which he was responsible for the outside linebackers, ran the scout special teams as well as the scout offense.

Born and raised in the Washington, D.C. area, Papuchis comes from a coaching family as his father was a long-time high school football coach and his brother, John, is the defensive coordinator at Nebraska.

REMINGTON REBSTOCK

Defensive Graduate Assistant
Fifth Year - Kansas State '11

Remington Rebstock is in his fifth season at Kansas State and his third as a Defensive Graduate Assistant. In his role, Rebstock assists defensive coordinator Tom Hayes with the defensive backs and helps run the scout team.

Rebstock began working at K-State as a volunteer defensive office assistant in January of 2010, assisting with film breakdown and scouting reports. In the spring of 2011, he obtained the title of Defensive Student Coach. After graduating from K-State in December 2011 with a degree in economics, Rebstock was retained as a defensive quality control coach from January to August of 2012.

A product of El Dorado, Kan., Rebstock is working on his master's degree in economics. He also holds an associate's degree from Butler Community College.

CHRIS DAWSON

Strength and Conditioning
Fifth Year - Oklahoma '95

Chris Dawson, a veteran of more than 15 years in the field of strength training, is in his fifth season as Kansas State's Director of Strength and Conditioning.

Dawson manages the department's total strength program, overseeing six full-time assistant coaches, while providing daily leadership for the Wildcats' football strength and conditioning program. The Houston, Texas, native spent the previous seven seasons as the head strength and conditioning coach at the University of Kansas before coming to Manhattan. Under Dawson's tutelage, 34 players have been drafted by NFL teams including eight that were taken in the first two rounds of the NFL Draft.

Prior to his tenure at K-State - which has included four bowl appearances - Dawson was a part of four bowl teams from 2003-2008 at Kansas, including a 2008 BCS appearance in the Orange Bowl. Following the successful 2007 campaign, Dawson was awarded the National Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coach of the Year Award by the Professional Football Strength and Conditioning Coaches Society.

Dawson worked the 2001 and 2002 football seasons as the head strength and conditioning coach for the University of Minnesota after serving five-year stint at Oklahoma, his alma mater. While with the Sooners, Dawson worked with the football and men's basketball teams.

Before taking the position at Minnesota, he spent three months with the Las Vegas Outlaws of the XFL and two months with the Dallas Cowboys as a strength and conditioning intern.

Dawson credits his success in the strength field to his mentors at Oklahoma. He learned under Joe Juraszek, who was the strength coach at OU during his playing days and was the head strength coach for the Dallas Cowboys for 14 years. He also received valuable guidance from Blair Prince, Pete Martinelli, and Jerry Schmidt, the current strength coach at Oklahoma.

Dawson played linebacker for the Sooners from 1992-94 and participated in a pair of postseason contests - the 1993 John Hancock Bowl and the 1994 Copper Bowl. He received his bachelor's degree in business management in 1995 and his master's degree in business administration in 1999, both from Oklahoma.

Dawson and his wife, Dawn, have three children, Macey, and twins Madison and Meyer.

CLINT DOWDLE

Chief of Staff/ Asst. AD for Administration

Second Season

Clint Dowdle is in his second year at K-State as Chief of Staff/Assistant A.D. for Administration. In his role, Dowdle is a member of the senior staff and serves as the daily sport liaison for the football program. In addition, he is the Sport Administrator of the tennis and rowing programs, oversees the equipment operations, supervises special projects, manages the K-State Nike Contract and coordinates department communication with the KSA Board of Directors. Dowdle is heavily involved with the strategic planning of the athletic department and capital projects, including the new Vanier Football Complex and the Vanier Locker Room campaign. He also supervised the completions of the Mike Goss Tennis Stadium and Intercollegiate Rowing Facility and assisted in the search and hiring process for the Women's Basketball, Men's Golf and Women's Tennis coaches.

Prior to his arrival in Manhattan, Dowdle spent four years at Bowling Green State University. There he served as the director of football operations and Player Personnel and spent his final three years as Assistant Athletics Director for Football and External Relations. At BGSU, Dowdle oversaw external and internal operations for the football program and was a member of the department's senior staff. He spear-headed the Locker Room Renovation Project in 2012 and established the Gridiron Classic, which proved to be the largest fundraising event for the Athletic Department. During his tenure, Dowdle was a member of a development team that increased annual giving 300% under AD, Greg Christopher.

Prior to arriving at Bowling Green, Dowdle served as a Graduate Assistant at the University of Tennessee before being hired as the assistant director of football operations. While at Tennessee, he earned his master's degree in Sport Management.

The Memphis, Tennessee, native earned his business management degree in 2005 from Christian Brothers University, where he was a four-year basketball starter and three year captain. He led the team in minutes, assists and steals all four years and twice was named Academic All-Gulf South Conference. Dowdle captured high school All-State honors in both basketball and football, quarterbacking Evangelical Christian School to a pair of state championships and earning Tennessee's Mr. Football Award. In addition, the Memphis Commercial Appeal named him their 2000-2001 Male Athlete of the Year. He and his wife, Catherine, reside in Manhattan.

KACEY HARPER

Asst. Director of Football Operations

Seventh Season

Kacey Harper is entering her seventh season at Kansas State and her first full season as the assistant director of football operations. Harper assists with much of the daily operations of the football program including coordinating team travel, camps & clinics, and overseeing K-State's Golden Cats alumni program.

Harper began working with the football program in 2005, serving three years as a student assistant and one year as a graduate assistant before being hired on full time in 2009. Prior to her current position, Harper served as the Assistant Director of Recruiting Operations.

A native of Emporia, Kansas, Harper earned her bachelor's degree in Family Studies and Human Services from Kansas State University in 2008 and obtained a master's degree in Counseling and Student Development from Kansas State University in 2011.

BILL BANKS

Program Director for Football Academics

Sixth Season

Bill Banks enters his sixth year at Kansas State and second as the Program Director for Football Academics. In his current role, Banks monitors student-athlete course work, degree progress and eligibility, while he is also responsible for study table supervision and tutorial development.

A former college football player himself, Banks came to K-State in 2009 to serve as a graduate assistant in football academics before earning a full-time job as an academic advisor for the College of Education in 2011. Banks was an academic counselor for football before being promoted.

Banks, a native of Houghton Lake, Michigan, played football at Alma College in Alma, Mich., and earned his degree in exercise and health science in 2007. He obtained his master's degree in College Student Personnel from Kansas State in 2011.

TAYLOR BRAET

Dir. of Recruiting/ Special Teams Quality Control

Ninth Season

Taylor Braet enters his ninth year at Kansas State and his fourth as a quality control assistant for special teams. Additionally, he was named director of recruiting during the 2013 season.

Braet came to K-State as a student assistant coach in 2006 working with the defense and special teams and continues to help in those areas as a quality control assistant.

Prior to his stint in Manhattan, Braet was a student assistant at Butler Community College under his father, associate head coach Steve Braet, and head coach Troy Morrell. Braet worked with the linebackers during the Grizzlies' 2003 National Championship run, while he helped with the defensive ends in 2004 and 2005 as Butler won conference championships all three seasons.

Born and raised in Wichita, Kansas, Braet graduated from Wichita Heights High School in 2003 and went through spring practices at Butler until an injury ended his career and he began his coaching career. He is married to the former Leah Ost.

AL CERBE

Football Equipment Manager

Eighth Season

Al Cerbe is in his eighth season at K-State and his fourth as the equipment manager for the Wildcats football program.

Cerbe, who received his accreditation from the Athletic Equipment Managers Association (AEMA) in the summer of 2011, oversees all aspects of equipment and apparel distribution and maintenance. He also helps oversee the operations of K-State's student equipment managers.

Cerbe came to K-State from the University of Memphis, where he served as a student equipment manager. In addition to his work at Memphis, Cerbe has also served equipment manager internships with the Baltimore Ravens, the Las Vegas Gladiators and the Memphis Xplorers before becoming the Head Equipment Manager for the Xplorers in 2006.

A product of Horn Lake, Mississippi, Cerbe began his career in 2004 as the head equipment manager at Northeast Mississippi Community College and graduated from Kansas State in 2010.

IAN CANNOLE

Director of Sport Psychology

Second Season

Ian Connole, Ph.D., began working for K-State in January, 2014 and coordinates all sport psychology services for Wildcat Athletics. In his role, Connole helps student-athletes develop the skills to reach their goals and continue their pursuit of excellence with commitment, optimism, flexibility, and an all around positive mindset.

Ian understands the demands of NCAA DI athletics and works with student-athletes to achieve success and reach their personal goals in this world of high expectations. He knows that all student-athletes have the ability to grow and develop personally, athletically, and academically; his job is to help them tap into that capacity and discover more effective ways of thinking, acting, and responding in order to enhance their performance and overall college experience.

Ian attended California State University-Fullerton (CSUF) for his Master's degree in Sport Psychology / Performance Enhancement. At CSUF, he learned the art of sport psychology consulting from Dr. Ken Ravizza and Dr. Traci Statler, expert consultants to hundreds of collegiate, Olympic and Professional teams. He then completed degrees in Counseling (M.A.) and Sport and Exercise Psychology (Ph.D.) at West Virginia University under a faculty composed of leaders in the field of sport psychology. Ian taught several undergraduate courses in topics such as sport and exercise psychology, sport sociology, professional development, and physical activity and wellness. At each stop, Ian had the opportunity to work extensively with student-athletes and teams what were motivated to focus on the mental game, work hard, challenge comfort zones, and grow on and off the playing fields.

SCOTT EILERT

Director of Video Services

23rd Season

Scott Eilert is in his 23rd season overseeing the football program's state-of-the-art video editing system as Kansas State's senior video coordinator.

Eilert coordinates and implements the use of video technology for practices and games, while he manages statistical analysis tools for the coaching staff which are both used in preparing materials to create game strategies. Eilert also produces weekly highlights and manages all content for the annual K-State Football awards ceremony.

A founding member of the Collegiate Sports Video Association (CSVA) and former executive officer of CSVA, Eilert has been named Big 12 Video Coordinator of the Year three times by the organization and in 1998 was selected as the CSVA National Video Coordinator of the Year. In 2001 and again in 2003, Eilert won Savvy Awards for best motivational video. More recently, his 2010 submission in the "highlight" category placed second.

A 1991 K-State graduate, Eilert spent three years as K-State's assistant video director while an undergraduate student. He also spent one year as a video assistant with the Kansas City Chiefs as well as working for the Kansas City ABC affiliate, KMBC.

A native of Overland Park, Kansas, Eilert is married to the former Meggan Luke. The couple has two daughters, MaKenna and Hailey.

JOAN FRIEDERICH

Head Coaches' Secretary

43rd Season

Joan Friederich is in her 43rd year with the Kansas State athletics department, including her 41st with the Wildcat football program. After working with the assistant coaches for more than eight years, she has been the secretary to the head football coach since 1980.

Following the 1998 football season, the Joan Friederich Award was begun to honor the individual who, through his unselfishness, leadership and commitment to K-State football, best represents the team concept.

Friederich was presented with the Admiral U.S. Grant Sharp Trophy at the 1999 Culligan Holiday Bowl for the person who best exemplifies the spirit of unselfish dedication and teamwork which resulted in little recognition or acclaim for him or herself, but contributed significantly to an outstanding season for the team.

A native of Leonardville, Kansas, Friederich has three children - Rick, Nancy and Janet - and three grandchildren.

MINDY HOFFMAN

Associate Athletic Trainer

Ninth Season

Mindy Hoffman is in her ninth year overall at Kansas State and her eighth working with the football program. Hoffman, who was promoted to associate athletic trainer last year, also serves as the athletic trainer for the men's and women's golf programs in addition to football.

Prior to her arrival at K-State, Hoffman spent two years at the Texas Tech University Health Sciences Center where she received her master's of athletic training in May 2006. While at Tech, she worked primarily with the football team for two years and the women's basketball team for one season. She also spent time assisting an orthopedic surgeon while working on her master's degree.

Hoffman received her bachelor's degree in physical education from Purdue University in May 1999. She spent four years as a teacher and coach before pursuing a career in athletic training.

Hoffman, a native of Royal Center, Indiana, is a certified athletic trainer, member of the National Athletic Trainers Association.

DARREN HONEYCUTT

Assistant Strength and Conditioning Coach

Eighth Season

Darren Honeycutt is in his eighth season at K-State as the assistant strength coach for football and assists Chris Dawson in all aspects of the team's strength and conditioning training. Prior to arriving at K-State, Honeycutt served as the assistant strength coach at the University of Pittsburgh. Honeycutt received his start as a strength and conditioning coach and worked as an assistant on the staff at Appalachian State from 1991-94.

Honeycutt's background also includes plenty of Big 12 history. From 1994-96 he served as an assistant strength and conditioning coach at Texas Tech working with the Red Raiders' football program. Honeycutt also worked in a similar position at Baylor from 1996-2000 before eventually heading to Louisville, where he worked with the Cardinals from 2000-2003.

Honeycutt, who played collegiately at Lenoir-Rhyne College, earned his bachelor's degree in exercise science in 1991 and later added a master's degree from Appalachian State in 1994.

BEN KALL

Asst. Dir. of Recruiting/Off. Quality Control

Second Season

One of the nation's top threats as both a receiver and kick returner... Enters the 2014 season ranked fourth in school history in career receptions (143) and touchdown receptions (18), while he is fifth in receiving yards (2,195)... Needs 75 receptions, 838 yards and nine touchdowns, respectively, to break all three school records, which are held by his father, Kevin... Also ranks highly in career 100-yard receiving games (T3rd; 9)... Has also shined as a kickoff returner during his career, holding the school record for yards (1,834), ranking second in touchdowns (4) and average (31.1), while ranking third in returns (59)... Needs 10 returns and two touchdowns to break the school record in those two departments... Also ranks as one of the best all-purpose players in school history as he ranks second in career yards (4,290) and fifth in yards per game (126.2)... Ranks second among active players nationally in career kickoff-return average (31.1) and kickoff-return touchdowns... Named a preseason All-American and All-Big 12 performer by all major preseason publications, including the preseason Big 12 Offensive Player of the Year by Lindy's... The publication also ranks him as the best all-purpose player and third-best receiver nationally... Rated the ninth-best draft-eligible wide receiver and a contender for the Heisman Trophy by Phil Steele... A two-year team captain.

2013: Earned numerous national accolades as he was a Second Team All-American by the Football Writers Association and Phil Steele, while he picked up honorable mention honors from Sports Illustrated... Was named the Big 12 Special Teams Player of the Year by the league's coaches, while also earning First Team All-Big 12 honors from the coaches as a wide receiver and kick returner... Also earned votes for the Big 12 Offensive Player of the Year award... Picked up first team all-conference accolades from the Associated Press as both a wide receiver and all-purpose player... Was a candidate for the Biletnikoff and Hornung Awards... Ranked in the top-25 nationally in six categories, placing 11th in receiving yards per game (105.2), 12th in all-purpose yards per game (154.92), 16th in total receiving yards (1,262), 17th in kickoff returns (26.5), 19th in receiving touchdowns (11) and 22nd in receptions per game (6.8)... His national ranking in total receiving yards was impressive considering he missed a game due to injury... Led the Big 12 in receiving yards per game and all-purpose yards, while ranking third in kickoff returns and sixth in touchdown scoring... Finished second in school history in receptions (81) and yards (1,262), but set the school highs in each category among juniors... Also ranked second in 100-yard games (7) and fourth in touchdowns (11)... Tied for sixth in school history in kickoff-return yards (583)... Finished with 1,859 all-purpose yards to rank fifth in school history... Also named to the American Football Coaches Association Good Works team and earned Second Team Academic All-Big 12 honors.

Teamed with Tramaine Thompson against North Dakota State to have two 100-yard receivers in a game since 2008... His 111 yards against Louisiana made him the first K-State receiver with consecutive 100-yard games to open a season since 2010... Set a then-school record with 237 yards at Texas, a mark he later broke when he went for 278 yards against Oklahoma... His two 200-plus yard games were the top two marks in the Big 12 in 2013, while his yardage against the Sooners was the fifth most nationally and the fourth most in Big 12 history... That total included a 90-yard touchdown reception, which was the second-longest in school history (since 1969)... His 13 receptions against the Longhorns tied for third in K-State history, while his 12 against OU is tied for fifth... Coupled with his 162 kickoff-return yards against Oklahoma, he compiled a school-record 440 all-purpose yards to rank fifth in FBS history... His single-game all-purpose yardage record was nearly 100 yards better (89) than the previous record held by Brandon Banks and Darren Sproles, who broke the NFL single-season all-purpose yardage record in 2011... Also had 333 all-purpose yards against Texas as he held two of the top-five all-purpose yard performances in the nation during the 2013 campaign... Tied the school record with three touchdown receptions against West Virginia, Oklahoma and Michigan in the Buffalo Wild Wings Bowl... His three touchdown grabs in the bowl victory tied a K-State bowl record as he earned the bowl's Offensive MVP honors... Registered a then-career-long 74-yard touchdown reception against TCU.

▶ Game Notes

• A capacity crowd of 53,351 attended tonight's game... The sellout crowd was the second-largest in school history and the largest for a home opener.

• Junior quarterback Jake Waters made his first-career start on Friday night... He became the first player to enter K-State straight from the community-college ranks and start the season under center since Michael Bishop in 1997.

• Waters finished the night 21-of-29 for 280 yards and two touchdowns and two interceptions... He threw his first-career touchdown pass in the second quarter, a 45-yard strike to Tramaine Thompson, while he connected on a 56-yard touchdown pass to Tyler Lockett on the third play from scrimmage in the second half... His 280 yards were the most in a home opener since Dan Manucci passed for 343 yards on Sept. 16, 1978 vs. Auburn.

• Junior wide receiver Tyler Lockett carded seven receptions for 113 yards and a touchdown... It was his third career 100-yard receiving game, which is one shy of entering the school's top-10 list.

• Senior Tramaine Thompson joined Lockett with a 100-yard game, totaling 108 yards on six receptions and a touchdown... It marked the first time since the Oklahoma game in 2008 that K-State had two 100-yard receivers (Ernie Pierce - 176, Brandon Banks - 145).

• K-State extended its scoring streak to 204 consecutive games on a 45-yard touchdown pass from Jake Waters to Tramaine Thompson... The streak is the eighth-longest in the nation.

K-STATE FALLS TO NORTH DAKOTA STATE, 24-21

MANHATTAN, Kan. (AP) -- Brock Jensen backed into the end zone for the go-ahead touchdown with 28 seconds left, and North Dakota State upset defending Big 12 champion Kansas State 24-21.

The quarterback led the Bison on an 18-play, 80-yard march that ate up 8 1/2 minutes, helping them convert four third downs along the way, and left the Wildcats with virtually no time left to set up a tying field-goal try.

Jensen threw for 165 yards and two touchdowns for Bison, the two-time defending FCS national champions who have beaten Colorado State, Minnesota and Kansas in the last three years.

Jake Waters threw for 280 yards and two touchdowns for the Wildcats, who built a 21-7 lead by the third quarter before everything fell apart. Waters was picked off twice, including a desperation heave after the Bison had taken the lead to wrap up the biggest win in North Dakota State history.

When the final gun sounded, the Bison raced to midfield to celebrate, and then headed to the corner of the end zone that was painted yellow by their fans - a strong contingent in the crowd of 53,351, the second-largest ever to see a game at Kansas State.

Sam Ojuri had 10 carries for 127 yards, and John Crockett also ran for 50 yards for the Bison. Ryan Smith caught eight passes for 72 yards and a touchdown.

Kansas State struggled early on with Waters under center, punting on its first two possessions and then failing to pick up a first down on fourth-and-3 from the North Dakota State 26. The offense simply couldn't find a rhythm the way it seemed to under Heisman Trophy finalist Collin Klein.

The Bison took advantage of the lull - and a 49-yard punt return by Christian Dudzik - to take a 7-0 lead on Jensen's 5-yard pass to Smith late in the first quarter.

The Wildcats finally got on the board when Waters completed four straight passes, capped by a 45-yard touchdown toss to Thompson early in the second quarter. But both teams squandered chances to seize a halftime lead - Waters was picked off deep in his own territory, only for the Kevin Vaadeland to drop a TD catch and Adam Keller to clang a field-goal attempt off the left upright.

Kansas State threatened to break the game open in the third quarter.

Waters followed a couple short completions with a 56-yard touchdown pass to Lockett, who had run right past Williams to get open. On the ensuing series, backup QB Daniel Sams made his season debut on third-and-3 at the Bison 17 and ran almost untouched for a touchdown that made it 21-7.

North Dakota State was on the ropes when Jensen engineered a 12-play, 75-yard touchdown drive that he capped with a 9-yard pass to Vaadeland. The Bison twice converted short third downs.

Keller atoned for his miss by hitting from 41 yards to make it 21-17 after three quarters.

The Wildcats were still clinging to that lead when North Dakota State got the ball back in the fourth quarter. Jensen methodically led the Bison downfield, picking up a first down at every key juncture, and then used his legs to carry them into the end zone for the go-ahead score.

▶ Game Notes

• K-State scored its first two non-offensive TDs of the season, as Tramaine Thompson (kick return) and Ty Zimmerman (interception) each scored... Since 1999, K-State leads the nation in non-offensive TDs with 89... Since 1990, K-State is 50-15 when scoring a defensive touchdown and are 19-1 when scoring on both defense and special teams.

• Tramaine Thompson returned the second-half opening kickoff 94 yards for a touchdown... K-State has now returned a kickoff for a TD each of the last nine years, a streak that leads the nation... With the kickoff-return score, Thompson became the third player in school history to have rushing, receiving, punt return and kickoff return touchdowns during their careers (Mack Herron, and Yamon Figurs).

• Daniel Sams rushed eight times for 63 yards and one score... In each of his first two seasons, Sams has recorded at least one rushing TD in each of the first two games.

• John Hubert rushed 18 times for 56 yards and one touchdown... He became the ninth player in school history to eclipse 2,000 career rushing yards as he now has 2,024.

• Ty Zimmerman picked off a Louisiana pass in the third quarter and returned it 31 yards for a touchdown... It was his 11th career interceptions, which is tied for sixth in school history... He now has 178 career interception-return yards to rank fourth in school history but was just his first career interception return touchdown.

• A capacity crowd of 53,073 attended tonight's game... It was the fourth-largest in school history.

K-STATE ROLLS THE CAJUNS, 48-27

MANHATTAN, Kan. (AP) -- Kansas State rebounded in a big way with a 48-27 throttling of Louisiana Ragin' Cajuns Saturday night in front of a sellout crowd of 53,073 at Bill Snyder Family Stadium.

A suddenly pass-first Wildcat offense saw its two-headed quarterback attack in junior Jake Waters and sophomore Daniel Sams lead K-State to its first victory of the 2013 season.

Waters, making his second career start, once again shined as he connected with seven different receivers for 278 yards and one rushing touchdown. The community-college transfer became the first K-State quarterback to post back-to-back 250-plus yard efforts to open a season since current Tampa Bay Buccaneer Josh Freeman accomplished the feat in 2007.

The other head of the attack, Sams, was the Wildcats' leading rusher accumulating 63 yards on eight carries to go with 27 yards through the air. His 13-yard touchdown run in the second quarter put the Wildcats up 17-3 and was his second-straight game with a rushing touchdown.

For K-State, the receiving corps played exceptionally well. Junior receiver Tyler Lockett led the team with eight catches for 111 yards – his second-straight game topping the century mark, while wideout Curry Sexton nearly totaled his last year's total for receptions (7) with six for 46 yards. Rounding out the trio was Tramaine Thompson, who had a 94-yard kickoff return score to go along with 46 yards on 2 catches.

The contest was tied early at 3-3, but the Cats poured on 31 unanswered points to make it 34-3.

Thompson opened up the second half with a bang with a 94-yard kickoff return for a score to make it 27-3 – K-State's nation-leading ninth-straight year with a kickoff return score. He followed up that effort on the next drive with a 79-yard punt return that led to a one-yard plunge by Waters.

Louisiana made things interesting in the second half as wideout Darryl Surgent answered Waters' touchdown with a school-record 100-yard touchdown kickoff return. The Cajuns followed up the return with Dominick Jones picking off an errant Waters' pass and returning it to the Kansas State 17. Louisiana capitalized on the short field as quarterback Terrance Broadway scored from four yards out to make the score 34-17.

Forcing K-State's first punt of the night on the following drive, the Cajuns looked poised to get themselves back into the game. Preseason All-American Ty Zimmerman quickly put those thoughts to bed as he turned Broadway's 14th pass attempt of the night into a 32-yard interception return.

Louisiana refused to roll over though as they would tally two unanswered scores. An 18-yard connection from Broadway to wideout Jamal Robinson made it 41-27 and Stephen Brauchle's second field goal of the night got the Cajuns within 14, the closest they would get to cutting the lead.

K-State answered Brauchle's field goal with a seven-play drive that ended with two-yard touchdown run by John Hubert to make it 48-27. Sams started the drive and reinvigorated the Wildcat offense, accounting for 51 of the drive's 65 yards.

Hubert finished the game with 56 yards and two touchdowns as he became the ninth player in school history to reach the 2,000-yard plateau, ending the contest at 2,024 yards.

The teams combined for 824 yards of total offense and nine touchdowns, including two touchdowns on special teams and one on the defensive side of the ball.

▶ Game Notes

• A capacity crowd of 52,958 attended tonight's game... It was the third-straight sell-out to begin the year and the sixth-largest crowd in stadium history... K-State has drawn 159,382 fans for the first three games, which is the most in school history.

• K-State rushed for a season-high 329 yards... It was the first 300-yard rushing game since compiling 346 against Kansas last year... The Wildcats also had 324 rushing yards in last year's season opener against Missouri State.

• Daniel Sams rushed 11 times for a career-high 77 yards and a touchdown... His third touchdown this season and sixth of his career came on a one-yard sneak on fourth and goal in the second quarter to give K-State an 13-7 lead.

• John Hubert rushed 18 times for a season-high 118 yards... He recorded his eighth-career 100-yard game which is tied for seventh in school history... He also caught two passes for a career-high 50 yards and his second-career receiving touchdown, a 43-yard reception with 11 seconds remaining in the first half.

• Ty Zimmerman came away with seven tackles, including one for loss... He became the 51st player in school history with 200 career tackles.

• Kip Daily registered a pair of interceptions, including his first career pick in the first quarter in which he returned 38 yards for his first career touchdown... Daily's two picks marked the first multi-interception game by a Wildcat since Allen Chapman had three against Oklahoma State last season, while it tied for the sixth most in a single game in school history.

WILDCATS STOP THE MINUTEMEN, 37-7

MANHATTAN, Kan. (AP) -- Powered by a rushing attack that accumulated 329 yards, including 118 by running back John Hubert, Kansas State romped the Massachusetts Minutemen, 37-7, in front of 52,958 at Bill Snyder Family Stadium on Saturday night.

K-State's ground game, which had tallied 190 yards total on the ground its first two games of the season, got back on track thanks in large part to a strong game by Hubert as well as another solid performance from quarterback Daniel Sams.

For the second week in a row, Sams sparked the K-State offense by helping the Wildcats to an early 13-7 lead with his 1-yard run on fourth and goal. The sophomore, who finished the game with 77 yards on 11 carries and 89 total yards, accounted for 55 of the drive's 75 yards including a 37-yard scamper to the Minutemen 4-yard line.

The 11-play drive was the beginning of a stretch that saw K-State gain 156 yards on 16 straight runs resulting in two touchdowns to make it 20-7. A 26-yard touchdown run by Robert Rose, his first career rushing score, capped the stretch emphatically.

Hubert, who had a relatively quiet start to his season, topped his season's overall rushing total on just 18 carries while adding 50 yards receiving. The senior halfback's 43-yard receiving touchdown late in the second quarter gave the Wildcats a 27-7 lead going into the half.

The second half started much like the first half ended with the K-State once again hitting paydirt following a UMass three-and-out to make the score 34-7. Jake Waters faked out the Minutemen beautifully by showing run before threading the ball to freshman Glenn Gronkowski for a 50-yard score.

For Gronkowski, it was the redshirt freshman's first career visit to the end zone and the Wildcats' fourth straight touchdown.

Waters, after throwing for over 250 yards in back-to-back games in a combined 60 attempts, finished the game with 115 passing yards and two scores through the air. Sticking with the night's theme, the junior signal-caller added 74 yards on the ground as well.

The Wildcats would add another three points with a 42-yard Jack Cantele field goal in the fourth to make it 37-7.

K-State ended the game scoring 31 unanswered points and tallying 456 total yards. Five different Wildcats registered a rushing attempt against a UMass rushing defense that entered the game giving up 320 yards a game.

Much like last week though, the Wildcat offense started the game slow as UMass held them to a scoreless first and actually entered the second with a 7-6 lead thanks to a 2-yard run by Stacey Bedell. Cornerback Kip Daily, who had two picks on the night, gave the Wildcats their only points of the quarter with a 38-yard interception return on the Minutemen opening drive.

UMass almost added three more in the first, but Travis Britz blocked a 23-yard field goal attempt by Blake Lucas to keep the deficit at one for the Wildcats.

On the defensive side of the ball, the Wildcats held the UMass offense to a lone first quarter score. Despite being on the field for 30:29 minutes, the defense forced two turnovers, five punts and a putrid 5.8 yards per pass attempt. Senior linebacker Blake Slaughter led the K-State defense with 10 total tackles.

▶ Game Notes

• K-State extended its scoring streak to 207 consecutive games on a 15-yard rush by John Hubert with 1:01 left in the first half... The streak is the eighth-longest in the nation.

• Kansas State allowed season highs in rushing (227) and total (452) yards.

• Wide receiver Tyler Lockett caught a career-high 13 passes for a school-record 237 yards... He broke the single-game yardage record held by Jordy Nelson, who went for 214 yards at Iowa State in 2007... His yardage total also tied for 10th in Big 12 history... His 13 receptions were tied for second in school history... He carded his eighth-career 100-yard receiving game to tie for eighth in school history with Greg Washington (1988)... His previous career high in receptions was nine at West Virginia last season... Lockett sparked K-State's first scoring drive towards the end of the first half as he caught two passes for 69 yards.

• John Hubert rushed 12 times for 41 yards and two touchdowns... He now has 2,183 in his career to move into eighth place in school history, passing Issac Jackson (2,182; 1971-1973)... He now has 22 career rushing touchdowns to tie for 10th in school history.

• Linebacker Blake Slaughter came away with 10 tackles and his first three career passes defended... He has at least seven tackles in each of the first three games.

• Senior Kip Daily tied his career high with eight tackles.

• Ryan Mueller carded three tackles, including one for a loss, to improve his season total of TFLs to 5.5.

K-STATE'S RALLY FALLS SHORT IN LOSS AT TEXAS

AUSTIN, Texas (AP) -- Texas running back Johnathan Gray rushed for 141 yards and two touchdowns, quarterback David Ash threw a 63-yard touchdown pass and Texas beat Kansas State 31-21 Saturday night in the Big 12 opener for both teams at Royal-Texas Memorial Stadium.

Gray became Texas' first 100-yard rusher on the season and Texas' defense, pushed around in two consecutive losses, put up a solid and energetic performance, forcing three critical second-half turnovers.

Ash, who missed the previous game with concussion-like symptoms, passed for 166 yards in the first half but missed the second with a new head injury. Senior Case McCoy took over, leading two touchdown drives.

Running back John Hubert scored two touchdowns and wide receiver Tyler Lockett had 13 catches for a school-record 237 yards for Kansas State (2-2, 0-1 Big 12).

The Longhorns snapped a five-game losing streak in the series, beating the Wildcats for the first time since 2003.

Gray's first touchdown in the second quarter came after he made two dazzling cuts on a 21-yard run. His second put Texas up 24-7 in the third. Malcolm Brown ran for Texas' last touchdown after the Wildcats had pulled within 10 points early in the fourth quarter.

Texas came in as a team desperate to turn around it season. After consecutive losses, Brown urged his team to focus on the Big 12 and trying to win the league crown. The Longhorns, most notably the defense, responded with their most complete game of the season against the defending Big 12 champs.

The defense, which played so poorly in the two losses, gave up a huge night receiving to Lockett, but forced the three turnovers that swung momentum early in the second half and preserved the win late.

Ash, who had been cleared to play Friday night, showed no effects of the previous head injury early in the game. But he took several big hits, both on runs and when standing in the pocket, before floating a perfectly-thrown pass to Kendall Sanders for Texas' first touchdown.

Texas went up 17-0 after Ash converted a fourth down with a short pass to Jaxon Shipley to set up Gray's first touchdown. Kansas State responded with its first drive across midfield and Hubert spun through two tacklers on a 15-yard touchdown run with 1 minute left in the half.

Ash was removed at the game at halftime to be evaluated for a head injury and didn't return, putting the game and the job of managing the lead in McCoy's hands. Kansas State fumbled on the first possession of the third quarter and McCoy handed the ball to Gray seven times in eight plays on a 56-yard drive to a touchdown and a 24-7 lead.

Hubert's second touchdown pulled Kansas State within 24-14 early in the fourth. Kansas State had pulled within 10 and was driving for a touchdown when Waters, who ran for a touchdown and passed for 275 yards, fumbled on the Texas 6 with 2:03 left to play.

The Wildcats had one last chance when Tramaine Thompson returned a punt 40 yards inside the Texas 15, but Waters was sacked twice and fumbled with 17 seconds left.

▶ Game Notes

• Kansas State extended its scoring streak to 208 consecutive games on a 67-yard touchdown pass from Daniel Sams to Glenn Gronkowski with 1:47 remaining in the first quarter... The streak is the eighth-longest in the nation and the second-longest in the Big 12.

• K-State committed 12 penalties for 92 yards... It was the most penalties since committing 16 vs. Missouri St. in 2007 and the most penalty yardage since 99 vs. Syracuse in the 2010 Pinstripe Bowl... It was also the most by a Bill Snyder-led team since committing 14 at Nebraska in 2005.

• Daniel Sams went 15-of-21 for 181 and two TDs, while he rushed 27 times for 118 yards, setting career highs in both categories... He also set a new career high in attempts, completions and yards, while he threw his first-career TD pass, 67-yarder to Glenn Gronkowski to open the game's scoring.

• Torell Miller hauled in four receptions for 35 yards and one touchdown along with a two-point conversion... He set new career highs in both catches and touchdowns... His TD reception was a 17-yarder to open the scoring in the second half and was his second-career touchdown.

• Travis Britz blocked a field-goal attempt and Kip Daily returned it 65 yards for a touchdown... It was K-State's first TD on a blocked field goal since Randy Jordan (93 yards) at Baylor in 2002.

• Ty Zimmerman set a new career high with 14 tackles... His previous career high in tackles was 12 against Oklahoma State in 2010.

NO. 21 OSU COMES FROM BEHIND TO DEFEAT K-STATE

STILLWATER, Okla. -- Oklahoma State quarterback J.W. Walsh found Charlie Moore for a 6-yard touchdown pass with 4:13 left in the fourth quarter to help the 21st-ranked Cowboys rally for a 33-29 win over Kansas State.

Walsh finished 24-of-38 passing for 245 yards for the Cowboys, who narrowly avoided their second straight loss after a defeat at West Virginia last week.

After falling behind 29-23 in the fourth quarter, Oklahoma State (4-1, 1-1 Big 12) drove 75 yards in six plays. Walsh was 4-of-5 passing on the drive, including the go-ahead touchdown pass to Moore.

Ben Grogan later added a field goal for the Cowboys, one of four in the game for the freshman.

Daniel Sams accounted for 299 yards of total offense and three touchdowns for the Wildcats (2-3, 0-2). However, the sophomore also threw three interceptions and lost a fumble as Kansas State lost its second straight.

The Cowboys entered the season as the preseason favorite in the Big 12, but their lofty expectations appeared in jeopardy after Kansas State went ahead 29-23 with 6:09 remaining in the fourth quarter.

The Wildcats did so on a 3-yard touchdown run by Sams, who entered the game having only thrown four passes all season while sharing time with Jake Waters at quarterback.

Sams played the majority of the game on Saturday for Kansas State, finishing 15-of-21 passing for 181 yards and a pair of touchdowns. The sophomore also finished with 118 yards rushing on 27 carries, nearly helping the Wildcats overcome 12 penalties for 92 yards.

Oklahoma State led 17-14 at halftime thanks to a 3-yard touchdown run in the second quarter by Walsh, who bounced back from a difficult game in the loss a week ago to the Mountaineers.

The sophomore's best moment, however, came following the Sams' touchdown that put Kansas State up in the fourth quarter.

Following the score, Walsh opened the Cowboys' drive with completions of 12 and 26 yards to Josh Stewart and Tracy Moore, respectively. After a 16-yard run by Jeremy Smith, Walsh added a 15-yard strike to Brandon Sheperd before capping the go-ahead drive with his touchdown pass to Charlie Moore.

Oklahoma State's Shaun Lewis and Daytawion Lowe followed with interceptions to end the Wildcats' final two drives and secure the win.

Sams put Kansas State up 7-0 in the first quarter with a 67-yard touchdown pass to Glenn Gronkowski, a play on which he faked the run before pulling up and slinging the ball over the middle to the streaking fullback.

The sophomore also found Torell Miller for a 17-yard touchdown pass to put the Wildcats up 21-17 to open the third quarter.

Grogan, who missed a pair of field goals in the loss to West Virginia, answered with a pair of field goals following Kansas State turnovers to put the Cowboys back up 23-21. The freshman connected from 30, 34, 23 and 28 yards out.

▶ Game Notes

• K-State extended its scoring streak to 209 consecutive games on a one-yard touchdown run by Daniel Sams on the first play in the second quarter... The streak is the eighth-longest in the nation.

• Today's attendance of 52,803 - the seventh largest in school history - gave Kansas State its fourth sellout in as many home games this season... The Wildcats have averaged 53,046 fans this season and are on pace to break both the single-season total and average attendance records... The record for total attendance is 384,654 (2002) and average attendance is 51,136 (1999).

• Daniel Sams gained a career-high 199 yards on a career-high 30 carries and threw for 41 yards on 4-of-7 aim... His rushing total was the second-highest by a Wildcat quarterback in school history (Ell Roberson, 228 vs. NU in 2002)... His three rushing touchdowns were the most by a Wildcat since John Hubert had three against Texas in 2012.

• Ryan Mueller registered seven tackles, including two sacks, and a forced fumble and fumble recovery... It was Mueller's first career forced fumble and his fourth career fumble recovery... Mueller's fumble recovery set up a K-State rushing touchdown.

• Weston Hiebert blocked a Baylor punt in the third quarter, which led to a one-yard Daniel Sams rushing touchdown... It was K-State's first blocked punt since Chris Carney had one in Bill Snyder's first game back in 2009 against UMass.

• Mark Krause averaged 47.7 yards on three punts... One punt traveled a season-best 50 yards.

K-STATE FALLS SHORT TO NO. 15 BAYLOR, 35-25

MANHATTAN, Kan. -- Sophomore quarterback Daniel Sams gained a career-high 199 yards rushing with three touchdowns, but it wasn't enough as Kansas State dropped a 35-25 decision to No. 15 Baylor on Saturday afternoon at Bill Snyder Family Stadium.

Sams' rushing total was the second-highest by a Wildcat quarterback in school history and the most since Ell Roberson had 228 yards against Nebraska in 2002. His three rushing touchdowns, which gave him 10 in his career, were the most since John Hubert had three against Texas in 2012.

Quarterback Bryce Petty threw for 342 yards and three touchdowns and Ahmad Dixon made a critical interception late in the fourth quarter to run Baylor's (5-0, 2-0 Big 12) winning streak to nine game dating back to last season. The Bears got quality performances from Tevin Reese, who had five catches for 184 yards and two touchdowns, and Antwan Goodley, who added five catches for 139 yards and another touchdown.

The Wildcats (2-4, 0-3 Big 12) took a 25-21 lead in the third quarter. But they missed a tying field-goal attempt in the fourth and then Sams threw an interception on their ensuing possession.

Baylor, playing on the road for the first time this season, had been averaging a nation-leading 779.5 yards and 70-plus points per game. The Bears managed just 451 yards against the Wildcats, while running back Lache Seastrunk was held to just 54 yards on 12 carries.

Still, it was enough to give Baylor its first win in Manhattan in five tries, and extend the nation's fourth-longest active winning streak.

The Bears had scored at least 28 points in the first quarter of each of their games this season, so it was an impressive defensive effort that they only managed a lone touchdown on Saturday.

Petty finished off a grinding 12-play, 59-yard drive by sneaking across the goal line on fourth down to give Baylor the lead. But the Wildcats quickly answered early in the second quarter, when Sams carried eight consecutive times on a 78-yard drive that he finished off with a 1-yard plunge.

Baylor's score-a-minute offense finally got on track midway through the second quarter, and it was a breakdown by the K-State defense that provided the window.

Reese ran past defensive back Randall Evans and Petty hit him in stride for a 93-yard touchdown reception, the second-longest scoring pass in the Bears' 115-year history.

The Wildcats answered with a 68-yard drive that they capped with Jack Cantele's 24-yard field goal, but the Bears needed all of two plays and 38 seconds to score again. This time, it was Goodley who hauled in a 72-yard pass from Petty to give Baylor a 21-10 lead heading into halftime.

The Wildcats marched 13 plays on the opening drive of the third quarter and Cantele's 32-yard field goal made it 21-13. K-State quickly forced a Baylor punt, and Weston Hiebert broke through the line and got his hand on it to give the Wildcats prime field position. Sams then scored on a 2-yard plunge, but his 2-point conversion pass was batted away, leaving Baylor with a 21-19 lead.

The Bears gave the ball right back when Petty was stripped by Ryan Mueller while scrambling toward the sideline. K-State took over at Baylor 44 and needed just 12 plays to finally pull ahead as Hubert scored from 2 yards out for K-State's first lead of the game.

Undaunted by giving up 15 straight points, Baylor came right back early in the fourth quarter. Petty hit Reese on a 54-yard scoring strike to give the Bears a 28-25 lead with 14:33 to go.

The Wildcats had chances down the stretch, but Cantele pulled a 41-yard field goal wide left that would have tied the game with 6:49 left. After the K-State defense held, Sams was picked off with 3:48 remaining when it appeared that the sophomore quarterback was trying to throw the ball away.

▶ Game Notes

• Tyler Lockett hauled in eight passes for 111 yards and a career-high three touchdowns... His three touchdown receptions tied a school record as he became the eighth player in school history to accomplish the feat... He also improved his career touchdown total to 11 to tie for ninth in school history... His 111 yards gave him his sixth career 100-yard game to tie for seventh in school history; this marks the 139th 100-yard receiving game in school history... Lockett's 1,519 career receiving yards ranks 15th in school history.

• Jake Waters made his seventh start of the season, going 10-of-13 for 198 yards and three touchdowns... He set a season-high in touchdown passes with three; which were the most by a K-State quarterback since Collin Klein tossed three at West Virginia on Oct. 20, 2012... Waters added 55 rushing yards on 10 attempts.

• Tramaine Thompson brought in three passes for 53 yards and a touchdown... His TD reception was a 30-yarder from Jake Waters in the fourth quarter to give the Cats a 21-12 lead... It was his second touchdown reception this season and the seventh of his career... Thompson ranks 18th in school history for career receiving yards with 1,360.

• Junior Curry Sexton hauled in six passes for a career-high 112 yards... In the last three games, Sexton has 15 receptions for 205 yards.

• Travis Britz blocked a West Virginia extra point with 10:05 remaining in the second quarter... It was Britz's third blocked kick of the year, which moved him into a tie for fourth place in school history.

K-STATE USES BIG SECOND HALF TO UPEND WVU, 35-12

MANHATTAN, Kan. -- The second half of the 2013 season could have not gotten off to a better start for K-State (3-4, 1-3) as the Wildcats defeated West Virginia (3-5, 1-4), 35-12, for the team's first Big 12 win of the season in front of 52,898 at Bill Snyder Family Stadium on Homecoming Saturday.

Snapping a three-game losing streak in the process as well, K-State's offense was fueled, once again, by the two-headed quarterbacking duo of Jake Waters and Daniel Sams. The two signal-callers combined for 362 total yards and four combined touchdowns including 273 yards and three touchdowns in the Wildcats' 28-point second half alone.

The 23-point victory for K-State came despite trailing 9-7 at the half and 12-7 as late as 12:44 into the third quarter. Accumulating only 169 yards prior to a 50-yard field goal by Mountaineer kicker Josh Lambert to make the score 12-7, K-State's offense answered emphatically scoring 28 unanswered points. The scoring drives took a total of 18:58 off the clock with the Wildcats racking up 274 total yards of offense in the process.

Sams kick started the offensive explosion in the initial drive following the Lambert field goal. Leading the Wildcats 78 yards down the field, Sams converted on three third downs including hitting Tyler Lockett in the back of the end zone for a 9-yard touchdown on 3rd-and-goal. Even with the Mountaineers containing him on the ground (14 carries for 16 yards), the sophomore took to the air, finishing the game a perfect 8-of-8 in the pocket for 93 yards and one touchdown.

If Sams was the kick starter, Waters was certainly the closer. The community college transfer put the game away with touchdown passes of 30 yards and 24 yards in the ensuing two drives for the Wildcats. Finding success through both the air and on the ground, Waters finished the game 10-of-13 for 198 yards and three touchdowns through the air, while adding 55 rushing yards on 10 carries.

The game was shaping up to be a defensive battle with neither team giving up much on the ground or through the air. Both teams combined for only 363 yards in the first half with the Mountaineers averaging 5.6 yards per play and the Wildcats averaging 5.68 yards.

The K-State defense continued the trend in the second half of the game, allowing only the Lambert field goal and easily putting in its best effort against Big 12 competition this season. The Wildcats were stifling as West Virginia only converted four of its 16 third down chances and accumulated 110 yards total on its final four drives.

Senior Ty Zimmerman led all Wildcats with 12 tackles, while defensive end Ryan Mueller picked up a strip-sack for the second straight game. In all, the K-State defense forced three turnovers with two fumble recoveries and a game-ending fourth quarter interception by Dorrian Roberts.

The defensive effort allowed for several Wildcats to shine on offense, which totaled 448 yards for the game. John Hubert continued his strong play of late with 86 yards on 19 carries, adding a late fourth quarter 4-yard score to make it 35-12. Lockett, who played a major role on the game-changing third quarter drive, had 8 receptions for 111 yards and three touchdowns. Along with his 9-yard receiving score, Lockett had a 35-yard touchdown in the first quarter and 24-yard score in the fourth quarter both from Waters. The effort marked the fourth 100-plus yard receiving game for the Biletnikoff Award candidate this year.

Rounding a strong effort from the Wildcats receiving corps were Curry Sexton and Tramaine Thompson. Sexton tied a career-high in receptions with six and set career-high in receiving yards, 112, while Thompson hauled in three passes for 53 yards, including a 30-yard touchdown reception from Waters that made the score 21-12 Wildcats in the fourth quarter.

▶ Game Notes

• K-State extended its winning streak over Iowa State to six, including four-straight at home... It was the largest margin of victory in the series since a 45-0 win by K-State on Nov. 8, 2003 in Ames, as each of the previous five games were decided by eight points or less.

• K-State held a 17-0 lead at halftime... The Wildcats recorded their nation-leading 40th-straight victory when leading at the half... K-State shut out a Big 12 opponent in half for the first time since last year's TCU game (first half).

• The K-State defense held Iowa State to 249 yards of total offense... It was the fewest yards allowed by K-State this season... This marked the fewest yards allowed by K-State in a Big 12 game since surrendering 243 at West Virginia on Oct. 20, 2012... The 126 passing yards by Iowa State were the fewest by a K-State opponent since 81 by Kent State on passing yards on Sept. 17, 2011 against Kent State.

• John Hubert rushed 15 times for 105 yards - including a K-State season-long 54-yard rush - and two touchdowns... He moved into eighth place in school history in career rushing touchdowns (25) and passed Collin Klein (2,485; 2009-12) for fifth in career rushing yards as he now has 2,494... It was his ninth career 100-yard game, moving into a tie for sixth place in school history.

• Tyler Lockett hauled in five receptions for 72 yards... He moved into the school's top five for receptions and yards by a junior as he now has 44 receptions for 658 in eight games this year... He also moved into fifth place in career all-purpose yards with 3,352.

DEFENSE STELLAR IN 41-7 WIN OVER IOWA STATE

MANHATTAN, Kan. -- Wearning a purple camouflage-patterned Powercat on its helmet to celebrate the annual Fort Riley Day at Bill Snyder Family Stadium, K-State (4-4, 2-3) turned in a vintage Snyder-coached performance with a 41-7 win over Iowa State (1-7, 0-5). The Wildcats have now won two straight Big 12 games after starting out the conference slate winless in their first three.

Senior halfback John Hubert led a rushing attack that gashed the Cyclones for 227 yards on 48 rushes. Hubert, who is now averaging 93.67 yards per game in his past three starts, rushed for 105 yards on 15 carries with two touchdowns.

K-State's offense got off to an exceptional start as Jake Waters started the game by leading a seven-play drive that ended with a 5-yard plunge into the end zone by Hubert, giving K-State a 7-0 lead. On the drive, the Wildcats' racked up 72 yards in 3:09 minutes and had two plays of 20 or more yards including a 23-yard scamper by Waters to put K-State on the Cyclones' 28-yard line.

Forcing an Iowa State punt on the ensuing drive, K-State's offense took to the field again and promptly marched down the field, cashing in three more points on a 44-yard field goal by Jack Cantele. The five play, 48-yard scoring drive was highlighted by the Cats' longest run of the season, a 54-yard jaunt by Hubert to put K-State in field goal territory.

Play hit a lull after the two quick scores by K-State as the teams traded three-and-outs well into the second quarter. Sophomore Daniel Sams broke up the minor drought, taking the reins of the offense on K-State's final drive of the first half, leading the Wildcats to take a 17-0 lead.

With three-straight three-and-outs prior to the scoring drive for K-State, Sams accounted for 56 yards of the 12-play scoring drive's 71 total yards. His drive-capping 1-yard touchdown in the final minute of the first half was his eighth rushing touchdown on the season and marked the fifth game this season K-State has had multiple rushing touchdowns in a game.

The second half saw K-State's lead both balloon and remain secure as the defense turned in its second-straight stifling performance against conference competition. Forcing the Cyclones to punt six times on the day, the Wildcat defense allowed only 249 total yards.

Defensive end Ryan Mueller picked up his conference-leading seventh sack on the day to go along with seven tackles, while safety Ty Zimmerman, cornerback Dorrian Roberts and linebacker Dakorey Johnson had interceptions. For the game, Iowa State failed to find any room on the ground or through the air, averaging less than four yards per play.

K-State would add three more touchdowns in the fourth quarter. Sams and Waters combined to engineer an 11-play, 83-yard scoring drive to first give the Cats a 27-0 lead. Waters connected with both Tyler Lockett and Tramaine Thompson for two big-play third down conversions, including a 27-yard hook-up with Thompson to put the K-State inside the 5-yard line. Hubert finished off the drive on the next play with another rushing score, his seventh touchdown of the season.

Sams would later connect with Thompson, who made a sensational grab while being interfered with, for a 28-yard score to give the Wildcats a 34-0 lead. The sophomore quarterback finished the day with 111 total yards and one score on the ground and one through the air, while Waters had 157 yards on 9-of-15 passing, 32 rushing yards and one passing touchdown.

Both Lockett and Thompson finished the day with strong efforts as well. Lockett had 72 yards on 5 receptions, leading all receivers, while Thompson pitched in with 3 receptions, 71 yards and one touchdown.

▶ Game Notes

• Bill Snyder carded his 175th career victory to become the 46th coach to ever win 175 career games, but only the 11th to do so at a single school... Additionally, he earned his 100th conference victory to become just the third coach in Big 8/12 history to tally 100 conference wins at a single school... He joined Nebraska's Tom Osborne (153) and Oklahoma's Barry Switzer (100).

• K-State held a 35-10 lead at halftime... The Wildcats recorded their 37th-straight victory when leading at the half, which is the fourth-longest active streak in the nation... The 35 first-half points were the most in a half against a Big 12 opponent since the second half of the 2012 Texas game, while it was the most in a first half against a conference opponent since scoring 38 in the first half against Texas A&M in 2009.

• John Hubert rushed 23 times for 157 yards and one touchdown... He moved into fourth all-time in career rushing yards (2,651), while he moved into a tie for eighth place in career rushing touchdowns with 26.

• Jake Waters rushed eight times for 38 yards and two scores... He had only two rushing touchdowns on the season entering the game, while his first three scores of the year - including his first against the Red Raiders - was from one yard out until a 13-yarder with 5:14 in the second quarter.

• Ty Zimmerman intercepted a fourth-quarter pass and returned it 43 yards for a touchdown... It was his 13th career interception to tie for third in school history, while it was his second pick-six of the season (Louisiana), which is tied for third in school history for a season.

K-STATE BLOWS BY NO. 25 TEXAS TECH, 49-26

LUBBOCK, Texas -- Kansas State scored 28 consecutive points in the first half to carry itself to its third consecutive victory with a 49-26 win over No. 25 Texas Tech Saturday at Jones AT&T Stadium.

With the win, Bill Snyder became the 46th coach in history to tally 175 wins in a career and just the 11th to do so at one school. He also became just the third coach in Big Eight/12 history to tally 100 conference wins, joining Nebraska's Tom Osborne (153) and Oklahoma's Barry Switzer (100).

The Wildcats (5-4, 3-3 Big 12) used a powerful running game in the victory against the Red Raiders, totaling 291 yards and five touchdowns on the ground. The defense also came up big with five sacks and three turnovers, including a 43-yard interception return for a touchdown by senior captain Ty Zimmerman in the fourth quarter.

Junior John Hubert posted his 10th career 100-yard rushing game with a team-high 157 yards on 23 carries and one touchdown. With his performance, Hubert moved past Eric Hickson (1994-95, 1997-98) into fourth all-time in career rushing yards with 2,651. He also moved into a tie for fourth place in school history with his 10th career 100-yard rushing game.

The two-headed quarterback attack of Daniel Sams and Jake Waters each tallied two touchdowns on the ground to complement Hubert's effort. Sams rushed for 81 yards on 11 carries to go with one pass for 11 yards, while Waters added 38 rushing yards to his 6-of-9 passing attack for 69 yards and one touchdown.

The Red Raiders (7-3, 4-3 Big 12) struck first in the contest, getting a 23-yard field goal from Ryan Bustin to cap a 14-play, 69-yard drive. However, the Wildcats came right back, as Hubert went 63 yards for a touchdown on the team's second offensive play for a 7-3 lead. It marked Hubert's longest run of the season and the longest touchdown run since he went 95 yards for a score in the 2012 season opener with Missouri State.

Texas Tech regained the lead at 10-7 with its first touchdown of the day on a 2-yard pass play from quarterback Davis Webb to Eric Ward with 6:49 remaining in the first quarter.

K-State then rattled off 28 consecutive points to take a 35-10 lead at halftime. During this stretch, the Wildcats got a pair of touchdown runs from Waters and one from Sams before capping the spurt with a 20-yard reception by Tramaine Thompson from Waters just before halftime. The squad had 279 yards at halftime, including 218 on the ground.

The Red Raiders closed the gap to 35-19 with a pair of scores in the third quarter, including a 4-yard TD run from quarterback Baker Mayfield and a 31-yard field goal from Bustin.

The Wildcats responded with a 1-yard plunge from Sams to start the fourth quarter to widen the gap then Zimmerman put the exclamation point on the scoring day with 13th career interception and his second pick-six of the season just 48 seconds later. He now has 221 interception-return yards in his career, which ranks second in second history.

Jonathan Truman led a pair of Wildcats with double-digit tackles with a game-high 12, including 10 solo stops, while defensive back Randall Evans totaled 10 solo tackles and one interception. Reigning Big 12 Defensive Player of the Week Ryan Mueller had three sacks on the day for 19 yards.

The win moved Kansas State to within one game of qualifying for a bowl game for the fourth straight season.

▶ Game Notes

• The victory secured bowl-eligibility for the fourth-straight season... Kansas State will play in its 17th bowl game with 15 of them coming under head coach Bill Snyder.

• Jake Waters went 10-for-24 for 234 and 2 touchdowns... He threw a 74-yard touchdown pass to Tyler Lockett in the first quarter, which was the Wildcats' longest pass play since 2008 (Josh Freeman to Brandon Banks vs. Oklahoma), until he hit Tramaine Thompson on a 79-yarder in the third quarter, which was the longest pass play since 2005 (Allan Evridge to Jordy Nelson at Texas Tech)... With the pass to Lockett, Waters became the 26th player in school history to eclipse the 1,500-yard passing barrier in a season.

• Daniel Sams carded his third 100-yard game of the year, rushing for 109 yards and one score... He became the 26th player in school history to rush for 1,000 yards in his career.

• Tyler Lockett hauled in eight passes for 123 yards and one touchdown, which was a career-long 74-yard reception... He tied for seventh in school history in career touchdowns with 12... He now has 118 career receptions to rank 10th in school history, while he moved into third place in school history among juniors with 825 yards on the year, passing his father, Kevin (797; 1995).

• Kicker Jack Cantele finished the game 4-of-4 in field goals, including the game-winning 41-yard field goal to give the Wildcats a 33-31 lead... For Cantele, he improved to 11-for-13 on the season and set a single-game career high in field goals made while tying for second in school history with his four makes.

CANTELE'S FIELD GOAL LIFTS K-STATE PAST TCU, 33-31

MANHATTAN, Kan. -- Jack Cantele kicked a 41-yard field goal, his fourth of the game, with 3 seconds remaining to give Kansas State a thrilling 33-31 victory over TCU on Saturday.

The Horned Frogs had taken the lead on a 56-yard field goal by Jaden Oberkrom with 2:13 left, but the Wildcats (6-4, 4-3) quickly marched down field. Jake Waters hit Tyler Lockett for 12 yards to convert a third down, and hit him again for 8 more yards to get within field-goal range.

Cantele trotted onto the field, lined up and sent the kick through the uprights, leaping into the air as several Wildcats poured onto the field to celebrate.

They were penalized for excessive celebration, but the 15-yard mark-off didn't matter. TCU (4-7, 2-6) couldn't do anything with the kickoff as Kansas State wrapped up its fourth straight win.

The victory made the Wildcats bowl-eligible for the fourth consecutive year, while also ending the Horned Frogs' run of eight consecutive bowl games.

It was a rough way to return to Manhattan for TCU coach Gary Patterson, who played linebacker for the Wildcats in the early 1980s. He said it was his first trip back in 30 years.

The teams traded punts through a breezy opening quarter until Blake Slaughter picked off Casey Pachall. With a short field, Daniel Sams scooted 11 yards for a touchdown and a 7-0 lead.

Kansas State didn't waste much time adding onto it.

After holding the Horned Frogs to three-and-out, Waters entered the game and threw deep down the sideline on the first play of the series. Lockett had put a move on All-American cornerback Jason Verrett and ran open in front of the TCU bench, hauling in the pass for a 74-yard TD reception.

TCU finally got going on a 15-yard touchdown run by B.J. Catalon. But the Wildcats answered with a 51-yard drive that ended with a Cantele field goal and a 17-7 halftime lead.

The Horned Frogs kept momentum going through the third.

Boykin hit Dotson in the back of the end zone from a yard out, and then took advantage of a short field caused by Sams' fumble to carry 7 yards to the left side on fourth-and-1 for the score.

In a game of wild momentum swings, Kansas State quickly took it back.

On third-and-14 from the Wildcats' 21-yard line, Waters took advantage of time in the pocket to hit Tramaine Thompson in broken coverage. He out-ran safety Elisha Olabode to the end zone for a 24-21 lead -- the 79-yard scoring strike the longest for Kansas State since 2005.

Back came TCU, which took advantage of a depleted secondary. Pachall hit David Porter for a 51-yard touchdown pass to give TCU a 28-24 lead late in the third quarter.

Cantele added a field goal to pull within a point, and then Kansas State took advantage of a bizarre penalty to take the lead in the fourth quarter. The Horned Frogs were whistled for having two players wearing No. 2 on the field during a punt, giving K-State a fourth-and-short that was converted by Sams. The drive ended with Cantele kicking a 23-yard field goal for a 30-28 lead.

The Horned Frogs marched to the Kansas State 39 on their ensuing possession, but defensive end Alauna Finau got his hand on Pachall's pass on third-and-5. Patterson decided to send Oberkrom onto the field rather than punt, and his 56-yard field goal had a few yards to spare.

It turned out, though, that the Horned Frogs left too much time on the clock.

▶ Game Notes

• Saturday's attendance of 52,773 gave K-State its eighth sellout in as many home games this season and 13 straight... Kansas State broke both the total and average attendance records in school history with 423,095 total fans for an average of 52,887... The previous record for total attendance was 384,654 in 2002, while the high mark for average attendance was 51,136 in 1999.

• Tyler Lockett made 12 receptions for 278 yards and three touchdowns... He broke the single-game school record for receiving yards, topping his own mark of 237 at Texas earlier this year, while his performance ranks fourth in Big 12 history... He moved into the school's top-10 in single-season receptions with 68 (6th), yardage with 1,103 (7th) and touchdowns with eight (T-9th)... His 90-yard TD reception in the second quarter was the Wildcats' first 90-yard pass play since Lockett's uncle, Aaron, went 97 yards against Louisiana-Monroe in 1998... He is also now ranked sixth in career receptions with 130.

• Lockett also returned five kickoffs for 162 yards as he broke the school's career kickoff-return yardage record, a mark that now stands at 1,760... Lockett's all-purpose total off 440 yards broke the single-game school record of 351 by Darren Sproles against Louisiana-Lafayette in 2004 and Brandon Banks against Oklahoma in 2009.

• Quarterback Jake Waters made his 10th start of the season, going 17-for-29 for 348 yards and three touchdowns... It was his career high in passing yards and the first 300-yard game by a Wildcat since Collin Klein had 323 at West Virginia last season.

WILDCATS DOWNED BY NO. 20 SOONERS, 41-31

MANHATTAN, Kan. -- Tyler Lockett and Jake Waters piled up school records and career-highs on Saturday at Bill Snyder Family Stadium, but it was not enough for K-State to defeat No. 20 Oklahoma as the Sooners secured a 41-31 win. The loss ended K-State's four-game winning streak.

Tyler Lockett had 12 catches for a school-record 278 yards and three touchdowns for K- State (6-5, 4-4). Lockett carded a school record of 440 all-purpose yards, as he tallied 162 kick-off return yards. His three receiving ouchdown catches tied the school record for a single game.

Jake Waters threw for 348 yards and accounted for four TDs, but he also threw an interception that the Sooners' Zack Sanchez returned 74 yards for a fourth-quarter score that put the game out of reach. Waters' 348 passing yards were the most since Josh Freeman tossed for 478 yards against Oklahoma on Oct. 25, 2008 and marked the first 300-yard passing game for a K-State quarterback since Collin Klein threw for 323 yards at West Virginia last season.

OU's Brennan Clay ran for a career-high 200 yards and two touchdowns, while freshman quarterback Trevor Knight threw for 171 yards and accounted for two TDs for the Sooners.

The Sooners (9-2, 6-2 Big 12) struck first when Knight hit Sterling Shepard from 12 yards out on third-and-goal in the first quarter, but that was about the last pass that Oklahoma called in the first half.

At one point, Stoops called for runs on 17 of 18 plays, including all 14 on a 98-yard TD drive. Clay and Knight did most of the work, with Knight faking a handoff and running untouched the final 8 yards for a 14-0 lead.

While the Sooners were pounding the ball, Kansas State took advantage of the strong north wind at its back.

Waters and Lockett took advantage of blown coverage to hook up for the first time for a 48-yard scoring strike early in the second quarter. When the Wildcats got the ball back, Waters found his favorite target with a perfectly thrown 30-yard TD pass in the corner of the end zone.

Oklahoma answered on the ground with Clay scooting to his right and racing past the secondary for a 69-yard touchdown run.

It took all of one play -- a 90-yard pitch-and-catch from Waters to Lockett -- for the Wildcats to make it 21-all. The TD catch also allowed Lockett to match the school record for a single game. This was K-State's first 90-yard pass play since Tyler's uncle, Aaron, went 97 yards against Louisiana-Monroe in 1998.

Michael Hunnicutt's field goal in the final seconds gave Oklahoma a 24-21 halftime lead.

As entertaining as the first half was for offensive savants, the third quarter turned into a sluggish affair. Both teams muddled their way to field goals on time-consuming drives.

The Sooners finally seized control when they pinned Kansas State at the 3-yard line early in the fourth quarter. The Wildcats went three-and-out, and Mark Krause's punt was held up in the wind. Jalen Saunders caught it on the run and returned it to the 3, where Clay ran it in on the next play.

Oklahoma put the game out of reach moments later, when Sanchez picked off Waters and returned it up the sideline for a touchdown to make the score 41-24 with just over 11 minutes left.

Waters added a TD run for Kansas State in the closing minutes for the final margin.

▶ Game Notes

• K-State finished the regular season with a 7-5 overall record and a 5-4 mark in Big 12 play after starting the season at 2-4 overall and 0-3 in league action... The Wildcats are just the 19th FBS team in the BCS era to start 2-4 or worse before winning seven games and earn inga bowl berth... Prior to the 2013 season, only 18 of 596 teams (3.02-percent) had accomplished the feat.

• K-State allowed only 223 yards of total offense... It was the fewest yards allowed since giving up just 199 to Kent State in 2011, while it was the fewest in a Big 12 game since allowing only 160 to KU in 2003.

• The Wildcats intercepted four Kansas passes, their fourth multi-interception game of the year and the third in the last five games... K-State now has a school-record 350 interception-return yards this year, which bettered the 2002 squad's mark of 339.

• John Hubert rushed 30 times for a career-high 220 yards and one touchdown... His performance was the first 200-yard game since Daniel Thomas vs. North Texas in 2010 (269) and ranks as the 10th best in a single game in school history... He moved into second place in school history in career rushing yards, passing Ell Roberson (2,818).

• Ryan Mueller a sack, giving him 11.5 on the year to tie the schol record held by Ian Campbell (2006) and Nyle Wiren (1996).

• Blake Slaughter tallied a career-high 15 tackles, which were the most by a Wildcat since David Garrett had 16 at Colorado in 2010.

HUBERT LEADS CATS TO SUNFLOWER SHOWDOWN VICTORY

LAWRENCE, Kan. (AP) -- After the way that Kansas State ran the ball a week ago, Bill Snyder decided to make every effort to prove that the Wildcats were still a ground-and-pound kind of team.

No better opponent to ground and pound than its closest rival.

John Hubert ran for a career-high 220 yards, Jake Waters accounted for three touchdowns and the Wildcats beat turnover-prone Kansas 31-10 on Saturday for their fifth straight win in the series.

Unlike last week, when the senior running back had 17 yards in a loss to Oklahoma.

Hubert also had a touchdown run for the Wildcats (7-5, 5-4), who will become the fourth school in Big 12 history to start 2-4 and reach a bowl game when it learns its destination in the coming weeks. The most likely bet is the Holiday Bowl, where Snyder has never lost.

Meanwhile, Kansas (3-9, 1-8) stumbles into the offseason with its fifth straight losing record and few signs that coach Charlie Weis had made much progress in two years in charge.

Jake Heaps threw for 138 yards with three interceptions, while Montell Cozart also threw a pick. The Jayhawks also fumbled twice for a season-high six turnovers.

Waters finished with 160 yards passing, including touchdown throws to Zach Trujillo and Glenn Gronkowski. Waters also ran for a TD while playing almost the entire way, even in a stiff breeze, as run-first quarterback Daniel Sams watched from the Kansas State sideline.

Dante Barnett had two interceptions and recovered a fumble for the Wildcats, while Dylan Schellenberg had a pick and also recovered a fumble while playing for injured safety Ty Zimmerman.

James Sims had 22 carries for 82 yards in his final game for Kansas. Last week, the senior became the first player in school history with back-to-back 1,000-yard rushing seasons.

The 112th edition of the Sunflower Showdown went very much like the last four editions.

Kansas State needed just three plays to get on the board first. Waters found Trujillo down the seam on an option-pass, and the big tight end rumbled untouched 35 yards for the touchdown.

After the Wildcats forced a punt, it took four more plays to score again. This time, it was Hubert finding a crease and running nearly untouched 21 yards for the score.

Kansas State made it 21-0 moments later when Waters hit his big fullback, Gronkowski, on a 29-yard catch-and-run that closely resembled Trujillo's touchdown catch.

If there was any electricity in Memorial Stadium, it was gone by that point.

Heaps, took over for the ineffective Cozart, finally got Kansas going when he threw an 11-yard TD pass to Jimmay Mundine on fourth-and-2 in the second quarter. Then the Jayhawks took advantage of a fumble on the ensuing kickoff to tack on a short field goal.

Still, Kansas couldn't overcome its abundance of miscues.

Heaps delivered a perfect pass to Mundine in the third quarter that the tight end bobbled into the air and Barnett picked off. Five plays later, Waters fooled the entire Kansas defense by running around the right side for another touchdown and a 28-10 lead.

The Jayhawks were on the march again when Heaps threw a jump ball toward the end zone that Barnett intercepted again. Heaps was picked off one final time by Dorrian Roberts, and Ian Patterson knocked through a 31-yard field goal to put the game away.

▶ Game Notes

• K-State claimed its first bowl win since the 2002 Holiday Bowl, snapping an 11-year drought... The win gave K-State its third straight eight-win season... Of 630 FBS teams in the BCS era to start the season 2-4 or worse, the Wildcats are just the eighth with eight wins.

• The Cats held Michigan to 14 points, the fewest points K-State allowed in a bowl game since Boston College scored 12 in the 1994 Aloha Bowl.

• Tyler Lockett caught 10 passes for 116 yards and three touchdowns... He broke the K-State bowl record for receptions and tied the school's single-game and bowl record with three receiving touchdowns... It was the third time this season he hit the three-touchdown mark... He tied the K-State bowl record held by Darnell McDonald in the 1997 Fiesta Bowl, which was also played at Sun Devil Stadium.

• Lockett finished the 2013 season in second place in school history in receptions with 81, passing his father, Kevin... He finished his junior campaign with 11 touchdown receptions to rank fourth in school history.

• John Hubert finished his senior campaign with 1,048 yards, giving him the 14th 1,000-yard single-season performance in school history... He is the school's first 1,000-yard rusher since Daniel Thomas in 2010, while he concluded his career in second place in yards (2,993).

• Jake Waters threw for 271 yards and three scores on 21-of-27 aim... His 21 completions broke a K-State bowl record, while his 271 yards ranked fourth and his passing touchdowns tied for third.

CATS HANDLE MICHIGAN, EARN FIRST BOWL WIN SINCE 2002

TEMPE, Ariz. (AP) -- Jake Waters threw for 271 yards and connected with Tyler Lockett on three touchdowns, leading Kansas State to its first bowl victory in 11 years, 31-14 over Michigan in the Buffalo Wild Wings Bowl.

Kansas State (8-5) scored on its first three possessions, all touchdown passes from Waters to Lockett, and its defense dominated Michigan to end a five-game bowl losing streak.

Lockett set a school bowl record with 10 catches for 116 yards and Waters completed 21 of 27 passes, sending the Wildcats to their first bowl victory since the 2002 Holiday Bowl.

Michigan freshman Shane Morris was steady in place of injured starter Devin Gardner, leading Michigan (7-6) on two early scoring drives. The Wolverines settled for field goals on both and did little the rest of the way, finishing with 261 total yards.

Morris threw for 196 yards on 24-of-38 passing with an interception before leading Michigan on a late scoring drive with the game out of reach.

Michigan's defense also had trouble stopping Kansas State most of the night, giving up 420 total yards.

Kansas State finished the season strong after some early difficulties but won five of its final six games while scoring at least 31 points in each contest.

Michigan limped to the finish after a 5-0 start, losing five of its final seven games and Gardner along the way. The senior injured his toe in the regular-season finale against Ohio State and didn't recover in time for the bowl game, leaving the Wolverines in the hands of Morris.

The freshman hasn't played much over the past year, limited to four games as a high school senior due to mononucleosis and to nine pass attempts as Gardner's backup this season.

Morris didn't seem to mind being thrust into the spotlight as the first Michigan quarterback to make his first career start in a bowl game. He was helped by a conservative game plan filled with short throws early and started unleashing his big left arm by Michigan's second drive, completing 15 of 19 passes for 121 yards in the first half.

The problem for the Wolverines was they couldn't finish off drives, settling for field goals of 22 and 26 yards by Matt Wile.

That was good for Wile, who made one field goal all season, but not for Michigan since its defense couldn't seem to stop the Wildcats -- particularly the Waters-to-Lockett combination.

Kansas State set the tone on its opening drive, grinding out 75 yards in 15 plays and 7:51 off the clock. Lockett capped it with a 6-yard touchdown catch after the Wildcats' line gave Waters just enough time to get the throw off against Michigan's blitz. Lockett set up the next drive with a 40-yard kickoff return and capped with a 29-yard touchdown catch, set up by Waters' pump fake that gave him separation behind Michigan's defense.

Kansas State raced down the field again on its next drive, setting up Lockett's third touchdown, an 8-yarder from Waters that put the Wildcats up 21-6 at halftime.

The Wildcats bogged down in the second half, but so did the Wolverines. Michigan had 23 total yards in the third quarter and failed to capitalize on the game's first turnover -- a fumble by Daniel Sams -- by going three-and-out.

Kansas State's Ian Patterson hit a 22-yard field goal in the fourth quarter, John Hubert scored on a 1-yard run after Morris' interception and the Wildcats celebrated Bill Snyder's seventh bowl victory by chasing the 74-year-old coach down the sideline for a water-bucket dump.

1982 INDEPENDENCE BOWL

WISCONSIN 14, K-STATE 3

INDEPENDENCE STADIUM • SHREVEPORT, LA.
DECEMBER 11, 1982 • 49,523

Wisconsin quarterback Randy Wright tossed two touchdown passes and the Badgers overcame an early Kansas State lead for a hard-earned 14-3 victory over the Wildcats in the seventh annual Independence Bowl before an announced crowd of 49,523.

The low-scoring game was played in cold and wet conditions as a 23 mile-per-hour wind dropped temperatures to 10 below zero and made things difficult for both offenses.

After a scoreless first quarter, K-State took the game's first lead with 7:10 left in the second period when Steve Willis booted a 29-yard field goal after defensive end Bob Daniels recovered a fumble at the Badger 18-yard line.

The Wildcats' lead was short-lived, however. On Wisconsin's ensuing drive, the Badgers marched 79 yards in eight plays, scoring a touchdown on a 16-yard pass from Wright to Michael Jones for a 7-3 halftime lead.

Wisconsin struck again midway through the third quarter, when game offensive MVP Wright connected with Tim Stracka on an 87-yard pass for a 14-3 Badger advantage.

K-State drove deep into Wisconsin territory on its next two possessions, but was unable to score. One opportunity ended when a Wildcat pass was intercepted in the Badger end zone while the other was stymied at the Wisconsin 26-yard line when K-State could not convert on fourth down.

Darrell Ray Dickey completed just 13 of 35 passes for 127 yards and one interception on the game for 1982 Big Eight Coach of the Year Jim Dickey's Wildcat squad.

1993 COPPER BOWL

[20] K-STATE 52, WYOMING 17

ARIZONA STADIUM • TUCSON, ARIZ.
DECEMBER 29, 1993 • 49,075

Kansas State put the finishing touches on one of the finest football seasons in school history with a 52-17 domination of Wyoming before 49,075 in the 1993 Copper Bowl.

Wyoming took a quick 3-0 lead on a 35-yard field goal, but K-State put its high-powered offense into overdrive and scored on its first three possessions. J.J. Smith put K-State on the board with a two-yard TD run and Tate Wright added a 22-yard field goal before K-State drove 76 yards on its third possession to take a 16-3 edge on a Chad May TD plunge.

All-American Andre Coleman closed out the first half with a 68-yard punt return to put K-State ahead 24-10 at the break then blew things open with a 61-yard touchdown catch just 54 seconds into the third quarter.

Freshman All-American Kevin Lockett put K-State ahead 38-10 midway through the third quarter with a 30-yard touchdown reception before reserve running back Leon Edwards added a 13-yard touchdown run and cornerback Kenny McEntyre provided the game's crowning moment with a 37-yard interception return for a score.

1994 ALOHA BOWL

BOSTON COLLEGE 12, [11] K-STATE 7

ALOHA STADIUM • HONOLULU, HAWAII
DECEMBER 25, 1994 • 44,862

Kansas State played Boston College to a defensive standoff in the 1994 Aloha Bowl, but the Wildcat offense never got on track and fell 12-7 before 44,862 at Aloha Stadium.

The Eagles sacked K-State quarterback Chad May eight times, including a four-hit effort by end Mike Mamula, who was named the game's most valuable player.

BC couldn't distance itself from the Wildcats despite a 51-yard bolt by David Green on the game's second play. That carry led to an early 7-0 cushion for the Eagles but would be their only touchdown of the day.

K-State's lone score came with eight seconds left in the first quarter when Joe Gordon crashed the middle of BC's line and blocked a punt by Jeff Beckley. Chris Sublette recovered the ball on the first hop in the end zone and the game was tied, 7-7.

However, BC would answer with its own end zone patrol later in the half when Mamula applied the biggest of his hits on May for a safety with 2:37 left.

The Wildcats reached the BC 19 on their ensuing drive, but Eric Shorter intercepted a dropped pass in the flat on third-and-15 with 19 seconds left in the half.

Still, a defense that featured punter Eric Hardy, Gordon and a pair of 10-tackle performances from Chuck Marlowe and Mario Smith kept the Wildcats within striking distance until the end.

BC could only tack on a 35-yard field goal by David Gordon with 1:18 remaining in the second half.

1995 HOLIDAY BOWL

[10] K-STATE 54, [25] COLORADO STATE 21

JACK MURPHY STADIUM • SAN DIEGO, CALIF.
DECEMBER 29, 1995 • 51,051

For the second time in three years, Kansas State ran roughshod over the Western Athletic Conference's best as the Wildcats outran, outplayed and outscored Colorado State for a 54-21 win in front of 51,051 fans in the 1995 Plymouth Holiday Bowl at Jack Murphy Stadium.

K-State began the scoring on an Eric Hickson 4-yard run with 11:21 left in the first quarter. After CSU responded with a touchdown to knot the score at 7-7, it was all K-State.

The Wildcats outscored the Rams, 19-0, in the second quarter by virtue of an interception return by safety Mario Smith and a blocked punt. Brian Kavanagh, who would earn the game's Offensive MVP award, came in for the injured Matt Miller in the second quarter and immediately put the ball in the end zone.

Kavanagh completed 18-of-24 passes for 242 yards and a Holiday Bowl-record tying four touchdowns. The junior signal-caller tossed scoring strikes to Brian Lojka, Tyson Schwieger, Kevin Lockett and Mitch Running.

On the defensive side of the ball, Mario Smith's pair of interceptions earned him MVP honors.

1997 COTTON BOWL

[5] BYU 19, [14] K-STATE 15

COTTON BOWL • DALLAS, TEXAS
JANUARY 1, 1997 • 71,928

An estimated 45,000 K-State fans descended on Dallas to watch the Wildcats in their first-ever New Year's Day Bowl and were witness to one of the most exciting games of the bowl season.

After taking a 15-5 lead following a 72-yard TD pass from Brian Kavanagh to Kevin Lockett, BYU quarterback Steve Sarkisian tossed two fourth-quarter touchdowns to lead No. 5 BYU to a 19-15 Cotton Bowl victory.

Following Sarkisian's 28-yard scoring strike to Kealaluhi with 3:39 remaining in the game, Kavanagh drove the Wildcats to the BYU 12-yard line with about one minute remaining. But Kavanagh's pass to Jimmy Dean was picked off at the 3-yard line by Omarr Morgan to preserve BYU's win.

The game's first score came when Cotton Bowl Defensive MVP Shay Muirbrook tackled Kavanagh in the end zone for a safety in the first quarter. After the free kick, BYU scored again on an Ethan Pochman 39-yard field goal.

K-State had a hard time getting on track until the final play of the first half when Kavanagh heaved a Hail Mary into the end zone, where, after the ball was deflected by a BYU defender, K-State's Andre Anderson scooped the ball in for a touchdown. Following the PAT that gave K-State a 7-5 lead, a penalty on BYU forced the teams to return from the locker room, giving Wildcats a shot for two points. Mike Lawrence made it pay off giving K-State an 8-5 halftime lead.

1997 FIESTA BOWL

[9] K-STATE 35, [14] SYRACUSE 18

SUN DEVIL STADIUM • TEMPE, ARIZ.
DECEMBER 31, 1997 • 69,367

Kansas State capped one of its best seasons in school history with a 35-18 win over No. 14 Syracuse in the 1997 Fiesta Bowl.

Quarterback Michael Bishop stole the show by throwing for four TDs on 14-of-23 passing for 317 yards.

Darnell McDonald was on the receiving end of seven Bishop passes and turned them into a school-record 206 yards and three scores. His 77-yard reception in the fourth quarter was the longest in Fiesta Bowl history.

After allowing Syracuse to jump out to a 3-0 lead on the first of Nate Trout's three field goals, Bishop led the Wildcats to three consecutive TDs in the second quarter.

The first came following a failed fake field goal attempt by Syracuse, culminating in a 19-yard pass to McDonald. Bishop followed with a 12-yard TD dash on K-State's next possession, and wrapped up the first-half scoring with a 28-yard completion to Justin Swift on a tight end screen.

SU scored 12 points in the final 2:18 to close within 21-15 at the half. Following a scoreless third quarter, Bishop and the Wildcats put away the Orangemen behind 77-yard and 41-yard touchdowns to McDonald.

Bishop was named the Offensive Player of the Game, while Travis Ochs was Defensive Player of the Game.

1998 ALAMO BOWL

PURDUE 37, [4] K-STATE 34

ALAMODOME • SAN ANTONIO, TEXAS
DECEMBER 29, 1998 • 60,780

With more than 30,000 purple-clad fans cheering the Wildcats on, unranked Purdue shocked No. 4 Kansas State, 37-34, in the sixth annual Builders Square Alamo Bowl.

After a scoreless first quarter, the teams exploded for 71 points over the final three periods. Purdue was the first to get things going, taking a 17-7 halftime lead courtesy of a pair of Drew Brees TD passes and a 25-yard Travis Dorsch field goal.

Fumble recoveries in the end zone by both squads and another Dorsch field goal with four seconds to go in the third staked Purdue to a 27-13 lead heading into the final stanza.

But the Wildcats put together a furious rally over the final 15 minutes. David Allen scored from three yards out to get things going before Michael Bishop hit Darnell McDonald for an Alamo Bowl record 88-yard touchdown strike that pulled the Cats within a field goal at 30-27. Then, with just 1:24 left in the game, Bishop connected with Justin Swift for a 2-yard touchdown and a 34-30 K-State lead.

Brees then engineered an 80-yard drive that ended with a 24-yard pass to Isaac Jones to put the Boilermakers ahead for good at 37-34 with 30 seconds remaining.

QUALCOMM STADIUM • SAN DIEGO, CALIF.
DECEMBER 29, 1998 • 57,118

Kansas State used a stiff defense and three rushing touchdowns by quarterback Jonathan Beasley to defeat Washington, 24-20, in the 1999 Holiday Bowl.

Trailing 20-17 late in the third quarter, the Wildcats embarked on a 20-play, 92-yard drive that took 9 minutes, 54 seconds off the clock to score the eventual game-winning touchdown. The drive was set up after senior Lamar Chapman picked off Marques Tuiasosopo.

K-State took a 17-13 lead on its first possession of the second half, scoring on an 11-yard run by Beasley, the game's Offensive MVP. The Huskies struck back with Maurice Shaw scoring on a 5-yard run to cap a 73-yard drive.

The first half was a back-and-forth affair that saw the Huskies take a 13-10 lead into the locker room.

Washington got on the board first when John Anderson booted his first of two first-half field goals just 3:32 into the contests. K-State quickly responded as Beasley drove the Cats 47 yards on the ensuing possession, calling his own number from one yard out to cap the eight-play drive.

A 41-yard Jamie Rheem field goal pushed K-State's lead to 10-6, but the Huskies would put the half's final points on the board on a Pat Conniff 3-yard TD run.

2001 COTTON BOWL

[11] K-STATE 35, [21] TENNESSEE 21

COTTON BOWL • DALLAS, TEXAS
JANUARY 1, 2001 • 63,465

Jonathan Beasley threw two touchdowns and rushed for another as Kansas State rolled to a 35-21 win over Tennessee in the 65th annual Southwestern Bell Cotton Bowl Classic.

Beasley, the game's Offensive MVP, had touchdown passes of 56 and 10 yards to Quincy Morgan to key a rally in the second quarter. The touchdown throws, which came three minutes apart, turned a 7-7 tie into a 21-7 Wildcat lead.

Tennessee pulled within seven points before halftime when Jabari Greer scored on a 78-yard interception return.

But Kansas State got two touchdown runs from Josh Scobey in the third quarter to regain its cushion. Scobey finished with 147 yards on a career-high 28 carries, the most yards ever by a Wildcat in a bowl game.

Travis Henry's 81-yard run late in the game was the final Volunteers score. Henry finished with 180 yards on 17 carries.

Beasley totaled 210 yards on a 13-for-27 passing. He also rushed for 98 yards on 17 carries and put the Wildcats on the scoreboard first with a 14-yard run late in the first quarter.

Senior defensive end Chris Johnson was the Defensive MVP after leading the Wildcats with four tackles, including two sacks of Tennessee QB Casey Clausen, who completed just seven passes while tossing three interceptions.

2001 INSIGHT.COM BOWL

BANKONE BALLPARK • PHOENIX, ARIZ.
DECEMBER 29, 2001 • 40,028

Syracuse running back James Mungro rushed for 112 yards and three touchdowns to lead Syracuse to a 26-3 victory over Kansas State in the 2001 Insight.com Bowl at Phoenix's Bank One Ballpark.

Mungro scored on runs of 65, 1 and 1 yard to pace the Orange offense. SU added touchdown in the fourth quarter on a 52-yard pass from Robin Anderson to Johnnie Morant.

Junior Marc Dunn led the Wildcats with 151 yards passing in relief of starter Ell Roberson. Dunn completed 12-of-25 passes with one interception. Roberson was 2-for-15 for 70 yards for the Wildcats, who were sacked five times.

Mungro opened the scoring on his 65-yard run midway through the first quarter.

Kansas State responded just two minutes later with a 29-yard field goal by freshman Joe Rheem. The drive was sparked by a 47-yard pass from Roberson to Aaron Lockett and a 27-yard carry by Scobey.

Syracuse took advantage of a fumble deep in Wildcat territory early in the second quarter. Mungro scored from the 1-yard line to convert the turnover, but the extra-point was blocked by Josh Buhl.

On the next play from scrimmage, Willie Ford got the first of his two interceptions to set up the Orangemen again. Two plays later, Mungro went over from the 1-yard line again, but Buhl again blocked the extra-point.

2002 HOLIDAY BOWL

[6] K-STATE 34, ARIZONA STATE 27

QUALCOMM STADIUM • SAN DIEGO, CALIF.
DECEMBER 27, 2002 • 68,717

Derrick Evans caught a 10-yard touchdown pass from Ell Roberson with 1:15 left in the game to lift Kansas State to its first and only lead as the Wildcats defeated Arizona State, 34-27, in the 2002 Pacific Life Holiday Bowl.

Evans' catch completed a K-State comeback from deficits of 10-0, 20-7 and 27-20. Roberson, voted the Offensive MVP of the game, rushed for 63 yards, including touchdowns of 32, 3 and 1 yards, and totaled 215 yards through the air on 11-for-28 passing.

Roberson's 32-yard sprint came with just 54 seconds left in the second half and pulled the Wildcats within 20-14. Just 31 seconds earlier, Mike Barth converted on a 39-yard field goal to give ASU its largest lead of the game at 20-7.

K-State tied the game at 20-20 early in the fourth quarter when Roberson went in from three yards out. But Sun Devil quarterback Andrew Walter, who threw for 293 yards on 28-for-57 passing, found Mike Williams for a 10-yard score to put ASU back ahead on its next possession.

The Wildcats responded with an 80-yard drive on its next opportunity, setting up Roberson's 1-yard touchdown dive that tied the game again at 27-27 with 6:41 left, then forced a Sun Devil punt that Terence Newman returned 27 yards. From there, K-State needed just seven plays to cover 59 yards for the game-winning touchdown.

2004 FIESTA BOWL

[7] OHIO STATE 35, [8] K-STATE 28

SUN DEVIL STADIUM • TEMPE, ARIZ.
JANUARY 2, 2004 • 73,425

Kansas State started slowly but finished with a fury in the 33rd Annual Tostitos Fiesta Bowl. But it wasn't enough to overcome a 21-point third-quarter deficit as the Wildcats lost a hard fought 35-28 decision to Ohio State in their first ever BCS bowl game at Sun Devil Stadium.

Trailing 35-14 heading into the fourth quarter, Ayo Saba scored from three yards out and closed the game to 14 points. Ell Roberson's second rushing touchdown with just 2:47 to go then pulled K-State within a touchdown.

After recovering the ensuing on-sides kick, the Wildcats were flagged for being offsides, forcing a re-kick. This time the Buckeyes recovered at the K-State 36.

But the Wildcats held and got the ball back at their own 10-yard line with 1:12 to play. A 21-yard completion to Davin Dennis moved the ball to the K-State 26. On the next play Roberson connected with Jermaine Moreira for 26 yards to the OSU 48 to get Kansas State within striking distance.

However, Roberson's desperation pass from midfield was batted down at the 2, allowing Ohio State to escape with its second straight Fiesta Bowl victory.

2006 TEXAS BOWL

[16] RUTGERS 37, K-STATE 10

RELIANT STADIUM • HOUSTON, TEXAS
DECEMBER 28, 2006 • 52,210

Kansas State hung with No. 16 Rutgers for 30 minutes, but the Scarlet Knights scored 20 unanswered points in the second half to hand the Wildcats a 37-10 loss in the inagural Texas Bowl before 52,210 fans at Reliant Stadium.

Ray Rice, the Texas Bowl MVP, rushed for 170 yards and a touchdown and Tim Brown caught two TD passes, for the Scarlet Knights, who claimed their first bowl victory in 137 seasons of intercollegiate football.

Brown's two TD catches came in the opening period and staked Rutgers to a quick 14-0 lead.

Kansas State answered with a 44-yard field goal by Jeff Snodgrass and a 76-yard punt return for a touchdown by Yamon Figurs that was the longest in K-State bowl history to close the gap to 14-10 midway through the second quarter.

But Jeremy Ito connected on a 37-yard field goal to close the half and linebacker Quintero Frierson returned an interception 27 yards for a touchdown on the first play from scrimmage of the second half to put Rutgers ahead 24-10.

Rice sprinted 46-yards for his lone touchdown of the game on the Scarlet Knights' next posssession before Ito closed out the scoring with a pair of fourth-quarter field goals for the final margin.

2010 PINSTRIPE BOWL

YANKEE STADIUM • BRONX, N.Y.
DECEMBER 30, 2010 • 48,274

The first Pinstripe Bowl turned into a home run derby.

Delone Carter ran for 198 yards and two touchdowns, Marcus Sales caught three long TD passes and Syracuse got some help from a celebration penalty on Kansas State to beat the Wildcats 36-34 on Thursday at Yankee Stadium.

Adrian Hilburn slipped a tackle and raced to a 30-yard touchdown catch with 1:13 remaining to pull Kansas State within two. Hilburn saluted the crowd behind the visitor's dugout and was flagged 15 yards for unsportsmanlike conduct, which pushed the 2-point conversion attempt back to the 17-yard line.

Carson Coffman overthrew Aubrey Quarles in the end zone, and when Kansas State (7-6) couldn't come up with the onside kick, Syracuse (8-5) only had to take a knee to win a bowl game for the first time since 2001.

Daniel Thomas ran for three touchdowns for Kansas State, which was making its first bowl appearance since 2006.

In a bowl season filled with blowouts so far, the first bowl game in New York in 48 years turned out to be a hit.

2012 COTTON BOWL

[6] ARKANSAS 29, [8] K-STATE 16

COWBOYS STADIUM • ARLINGTON, TEXAS
JANUARY 6, 2012 • 80,956

Junior Kansas State quarterback Collin Klein tied the Big 12 single-season for rushing touchdowns and the NCAA single season record by a quarterback but the No. 8 Wildcats came up short in the 2012 AT&T Cotton Bowl Classic in a 29-16 loss to No. 6 Arkansas.

Kansas State (10-3) was trying to match its school record with 11 victories, but still finished a surprising season in Snyder's second Wildcats turnaround. K-State won 11 games six times during a seven-year span in Snyder's first tenure before his three-year retirement, and almost reached that mark again in his third season back.

The Cotton Bowl was the only non-BCS game with both teams in the top 10 of the Bowl Championship Series standings -- Arkansas came in sixth, Kansas State eighth. It also is the only bowl featuring the SEC vs. the Big 12, the top two conferences in the BCS computer rankings.

[7] OREGON 35, [5] K-STATE 17

UNIVERSITY OF PHOENIX STADIUM • GLENDALE, ARIZ.
JANUARY 3, 2013 • 70,242

De'Anthony Thomas returned the opening kickoff 94 yards for the first of his two touchdowns, Marcus Mariota accounted for three scores, and No. 5 Oregon raced past No. 7 Kansas State 35-17 at the Fiesta Bowl.

Oregon (12-1) jumped out to a 15-0 lead behind Thomas' opening return and 23-yard touchdown catch in the first quarter.

Kansas State (11-2) tried to bull its way behind Heisman Trophy finalist Collin Klein, only to get overwhelmed by the speedy Ducks, who got some help with an obscure 1-point safety on a blocked extra-point kick.

Mariota added a 24-yard touchdown pass to Kenjon Barner in the second quarter and ran for a 2-yard score in the third to give Oregon its second straight BCS bowl win after beating Wisconsin in last year's Rose Bowl.

Klein threw two interceptions and had 30 yards rushing on 13 carries.

2013 BUFFALO WILD WINGS BOWL

K-STATE 35, MICHIGAN 14

SUN DEVIL STADIUM • TEMPE, ARIZ.
DECEMBER 28, 2013 • 53,284

Jake Waters threw for 271 yards and connected with Tyler Lockett on three touchdowns, leading Kansas State to its first bowl victory in 11 years, 31-14, over Michigan in the Buffalo Wild Wings Bowl.

K-State (8-5) scored on its first three possessions, all passes from Waters to Lockett, and its defense dominated Michigan to end a five-game bowl losing streak.

Lockett hauled in 10 receptions for 116 yards and Waters completed 21 of 27 passes, sending the Wildcats to their first bowl victory since the 2002 Holiday Bowl.

Michigan's defense had trouble stopping Kansas State most of the night, giving up 420 total yards.

Kansas State finished the season strong after some early difficulties by winning five of its final six games while scoring at least 31 points in each.

The Wildcats set the tone on their opening drive, grinding out 75 yards in 15 plays and 7:51 off the clock. Lockett capped it with a 6-yard touchdown catch after the Wildcats' line gave Waters just enough time to get the throw off against Michigan's blitz. Lockett set up the next drive with a 40-yard kickoff return and capped with a 29-yard touchdown catch, set up by Waters' pump fake that gave him separation behind Michigan's defense.

Kansas State raced down the field again on its next drive, setting up Lockett's third touchdown, an 8-yarder from Waters that put the Wildcats up 21-6 at halftime.

TYSYN HARTMAN
2011 NATIONAL SCHOLAR ATHLETE

RETIRED NUMBER 11

The No. 11 jersey of quarterbacks Lynn Dickey and Steve Grogan was retired by Kansas State to honor the pair, who each donned the number while leading the Wildcats during some of the school's most successful football seasons. It is the only time in school history that a number has been retired in any sport.

11 LYNN DICKEY

Quarterback
1968-70

Lynn Dickey, a native of Osawatomie, Kan., spent most of his NFL career with the Green Bay Packers but also played several seasons with the Houston Oilers. He threw for more than 21,000 yards with the Packers, including 4,458 yards in 1983 which at the time ranked second in NFL history.

Dickey still holds numerous K-State passing records and ranks third on the Big Eight's all-time list with 6,208 career passing yards. He is also second on K-State's all-time total offense chart.

Dickey was chosen as the first-team quarterback on the all-time Big Eight football team in 1995 and is a charter member of the K-State Sports Hall of Fame (1990). He was inducted into the State of Kansas Sports Hall of Fame in 1997.

11 STEVE GROGAN

Quarterback
1972-74

Grogan retired from the NFL following the 1990 season after an illustrious career with the New England Patriots.

Grogan held nearly every New England career passing record, including yards (26,886) and touchdowns (182). He joined the team as a rookie in 1975 and led the franchise to its first Super Bowl appearance in 1986.

A native of Ottawa, Kan., Grogan still stands ninth on K-State's career list for total offense and 11th in passing yards.

Grogan is a member of the K-State Sports Hall of Fame (1995) and was inducted into the State of Kansas Sports Hall of Fame in 1999.

COLLEGE FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME

MARK SIMONEAU

Linebacker
1996-1999

Former K-State Consensus All-American Mark Simoneau will become just the second Wildcat football player and first under head coach Bill Snyder to be elected to the Hall of Fame. He will be enshrined in December as a member of the Class of 2012.

Simoneau was a Consensus All-American and the Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year in 1999 en route to being the runner-up for the Butkus Award that same season. A K-State Ring of Honor inductee and a four-year starter for Snyder, Simoneau led the Wildcats to a 42-7 record during his career while totaling 400 career tackles and a school-record 251 unassisted stops. K-State also collected a 28-4 Big 12 record during Simoneau's career, won two Big 12 North titles and appeared in four straight bowl games.

GARY SPANI

Linebacker
1974-77

Gary Spani became the first K-State player to be inducted to the College Football Hall of Fame in 2002. A member of the K-State Sports Hall of Fame (2000) and the Kansas Sports Hall of Fame (2004), Spani was Kansas State's first-ever consensus All-America in 1977, and also was a three-time All-Big-8 Conference selection.

Spani led the Wildcats in tackles three straight season and was twice named the team's most valuable player. To this day, he continues to dominate the Kansas State career record book as the program's all-time leader in career tackles (543), assisted tackles (343) and assists in a season (110).

Following graduation in 1978, Spani was chosen in the third round of the National Football League draft by the Kansas City Chiefs. He went on to play all nine years of his career with the Chiefs and led the organization in tackles four straight seasons.

CHARLES BACHMAN

Head Coach
1920-27

Charles Bachman, who coached the K-State football team from 1920-27, was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame on Jan. 8, 1978. Bachman began his coaching career at Great Lakes Naval Station in 1918 and led that team to the 1918 Rose Bowl title and the national championship. He moved to Northwestern University in 1919 before joining the Wildcats in 1920. A member of the K-State Sports Hall of Fame (1995), Bachman's eight-year won-loss record at K-State was 33-23-9.

"PAPPY" WALDORF

Head Coach
1934

Lynn O. "Pappy" Waldorf coached K-State to its first football championship in 1934 while posting a 7-2-1 record in the Big Six Conference with wins over Oklahoma, Nebraska and Kansas. He was elected into the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame in 1966. A graduate of Syracuse, his coaching career included stops at Oklahoma City University (13-5-3, 1926-27), as assistant at Kansas in 1928, at Oklahoma A&M (34-10-7, 1929-33), Kansas State (7-2-1, 1934), Northwestern (49-45-7, 1935-46) and California (67-32-4, 1947-56).

BILL SNYDER FAMILY STADIUM

Renamed in honor of legendary head football coach Bill Snyder by a proclamation of the Kansas Board of Regents on Nov. 16, 2005, Bill Snyder Family Stadium will host its 46th season of Wildcat football this fall.

Originally named KSU Stadium, the facility was built at a cost of $1.6 million and financed from student fees, athletics gate receipts and contributions. The stadium opened its doors Sept. 21, 1968, with a 21-0 shutout of Colorado State. The original seating capacity was set at 35,000, and an expansion in the summer of 1970 added 4,000 permanent bleachers on the east side and 3,000 temporary bleachers on the west side.

Following the 1998 season, the addition of a deck and sky suites on the east side of the stadium increased capacity to more than 50,000. On Nov. 11, 2000, 53,811 fans witnessed Kansas State's 29-28 win over Nebraska. It remains the largest crowd ever to witness a sporting event in the state of Kansas.

Multi-million dollar upgrades to the Vanier Sports Complex, the installation of new video and message boards, including a 23' X 61' ProStar VideoPlus display in the south end zone in 2006, and a complete upgrade of the lower bowl seating for 2007 are some of the major additions to the facility over the last several years.

Bill Snyder Family Stadium's most recent changes include a new playing surface - AstroTurf's Gameday Grass 3D infill system - and new restroom additions to the east side view level, while a $75 million project to construct the new West Stadium Center opens this season. The following is a rundown of the other facelifts that have been added during the 44-year history of the stadium:

1970: A statewide spring fund-raising drive raised $250,000 for the installation of Astroturf, replacing the original natural grass.

1972: The office/dressing room complex at the north end of the stadium was added. It houses all the K-State football offices and has dressing facilities for the Wildcats and their opponents.

1980: New artificial turf was installed prior to the season.

1983: Permanent stadium lights were added allowing the Wildcats to play night games.

1987: An addition to the office/dressing room complex was made in the summer of 1987, which provided more dressing and training room facilities.

1989-1992: A $2 million renovation project was undertaken to revamp the entire football complex. The result is one of the most spectacular football complexes in the country, complete with plush locker rooms, a 6,500-square foot weight room, state of the art classrooms equipped with the latest video equipment, a training room, a players' lounge and the picturesque Big Eight Room. The structure now carries the title "Vanier Football Complex" in honor of the Vanier family of Brookville, Kan.

1991: New Astroturf was laid down prior to the 1991 season, and the field was named "Wagner Field" in honor of Dave and Carol Wagner of Dodge City.

1993: K-State put the finishing touches on its facility improvements with a $3.3 million five-level press box, including suites, and a $2.2 million indoor facility.

1996: The $1 million Academic Learning Center became a part of the Vanier Complex, hosting study facilities for all K-State student-athletes. A $2.6 million project added a 20x26 foot JumboTron, new scoreboards and marquis messageboard.

1999: Following the 1998 season, the facility underwent a $12.8 million expansion project. An additional 8,000 permanent seats were added, including a club seating area and 31 additional sky suites. The project raised the total capacity of KSU Stadium to over 50,000 with temporary seating.

2002: A new FieldTurf playing surface is installed. The $850,000 project was completed in late May of 2002 and features an innovative sand and rubber infill mixture and is the newest technology in competitive field products.

2003-07: The Vanier Football Complex received a complete makeover that includes a new training facility, weight room, equipment room, coaches' offices, meeting rooms, locker room and permanent seating in the north end zone.

2006: New video and message boards are installed at the north and south ends of Bill Snyder Family Stadium at a cost of $1.7 million. The south end of the stadium receives a fully integrated ProStar VideoPlus display system that measures a whopping 23' X 61'.

2007: The seating in the lower bowl of Bill Snyder Family Stadium is completely upgraded, including new chairbacks below the press box on the west side of the stadium and aluminium benches throughout the balance of the lower bowl. A new stadium sound system was also installed.

2011: Phase I of the Bill Snyder Family Stadium master renovation plan began. A new AstroTurf Gameday Grass 3D infill playing surface was installed as well as construction of additional restroom facilities on the east side view level of the stadium.

2012: Construction began on Phase II of the Bill Snyder Family Stadium master plan - the West Stadium Center. The new $75 million WSC includes new amenities for all fans at Bill Snyder Family Stadium. New concessions, restrooms, press level, suites, club and loge seating and ticket offices will replace the current west side facilities. Additionally, a new Team Fan Store and Hall of Honor will be included on the main Concourse Level.

2013: Construction on Phase II of the Bill Snyder Family Stadium master plan - West Stadium Center completed in time for the start of the season.

2014: Construction to begin on Phase III of the Bill Snyder Family Stadium master plan - the new Vanier Football Complex - following the completion of the season.

Note: Prior to the opening of Bill Snyder Family Stadium, the Wildcats played in Memorial Stadium, which opened in 1924 and still stands on the main campus.

WILDCAT NICKNAME

Through its first 19 seasons of athletic competition, Kansas State had used "Aggies" as its nickname. But prior to the 1915 season, new coach John "Chief" Bender gave his squad the nickname "Wildcats."

K-STATE COLORS

The school color Royal Purple was adopted in the fall of 1896 by a committee of "Miss Minnie L. Copeland, Jr. and Miss Winnifred Houghton and Miss Ina E. Holyrod, of the senior class, and perhaps one or more others." Although K-State's only official color is purple, white has been used as a complimentary color for many years. Silver is also a common second or third color. Former head basketball coach Cotton Fitzsimmons incorprated gold during his two-year stint (1968-70), but gold or yellow has not been used since that time. The term "Purple Pride," which is often used in association with K-State athletics, was given rise during the tenure of head football coach Vince Gibson (1967-74).

K-STATE SONGS

The Alma Mater was selected as a result of a 1903 campus contest. H.W. Jones ('88) was responsible for K-State's prized result. Jones' original work was four stanzas including the chorus. His version has been slightly altered over the years to include just two stanzas and the changing of the words from Kansas State Agricultural College to Kansas State University.

Alma Mater

"I know a spot that I love full well, 'Tis not in forest nor yet in dell, ever it holds me with magic spell, I think of thee Alma Mater.

"KSU, we'll carry the banner high, KSU long, long may thy colors fly. Loyal to thee thy children shall swell the cry.

"Hail, Hail, Hail Alma Mater."

Wildcat Victory

"Fight you K-State Wildcats. For Alma Mater fight-fight-fight.

"Glory in the combat for the purple and white. Faithful to our colors, we shall ever be, fighting ever fighting for a Wildcat Victory!"

FIRST GAME

History has forgotten the actual score of the first football game played at the school now called Kansas State University.

On Dec. 2, 1892, a team from Kansas State Agricultural College played its first game. At "quarter back" was a sophomore from Colfax, Ill., named A.D. Benson. Benson had introduced his schoolmates to football when he arrived at KSAC in 1891.

The sport, however, was quickly banned by the college. Five years later, the school's newspaper, the K-State Industrialist, remarked, "It is hoped that our students have the good sense to play even football without violence, but the game as sometimes played is next to barbarism."

In 1896, KSAC played the first game now recorded in K-State's list of all-time scores. A team coached by Ira Pratt traveled to Fort Riley on Thanksgiving Day and lost to a squad comprised of soldiers, 14-0. Later that fall, KSAC played Fort Riley again, and this time the game ended in a 6-6 tie. It was during the 1896 season that KSAC adopted the mascot "Aggies," and selected Royal Purple as the school's official color.

FIRST NIGHT GAME

On Oct. 7, 1932, Kansas State played its first night football game in school history. The team traveled to Salina, Kan., to play Kansas Wesleyan on a Friday evening and won 52-6, before a crowd of about 4,000. All-time great Ralph Graham, known as The Rammer, scored 28 points on four touchdowns and four extra points.

Fifteen years later, on Sept. 20, 1947, K-State played its first night game in Manhattan, losing 12-0 to Oklahoma State at Memorial Stadium.

K-STATE SLOGANS

Several chants and slogans are used in association with the team. "Purple Pride" and "Eat 'Em Up, Eat 'Em Up K-S-U" are just a few. The slogan "Every Man A Wildcat" was popular in the '50s, '60s and early '70s, and once adorned the front of the Ahearn Field House press box.

Kansas State, itself, is referred to in many different shortened versions. The most popular is "K-State," which is used by alums, friends and journalists from coast to coast.

POWERCAT LOGO

One of the most recognizable athletic logos in the nation is the K-State Powercat. The logo was introduced by Bill Snyder shortly after his arrival in Manhattan as the attitude of the entire athletics department and university was changing.

Manhattan native Tom Bookwalter, in cooperation with head coach Bill Snyder, created the powerful logo that is a prominent feature on the K-State football helmet, at Wagner Field, on the back of the Dev Nelson Pressbox, clothing, flags, bottled water, vanity plates for cars and just about anywhere in Manhattan.

Previous logos used by the athletics department included a line drawing of a wildcat head and the "Willie the Wildcat" that is used today by the Alumni Association.

WILLIE WILDCAT

Willie, a student bedecked in an oversized Wildcat head, is Kansas State's No. 1 fan. Willie Wildcats are selected yearly by a panel appointed by the cheerleading coach. The mascot is a central part of athletic contests, but also attends functions around the state as an ambassador. Traditionally, the identity of the student portraying Willie is kept secret.

TOUCHDOWN I-XI

In 1922, Hall-of-Famer Charles Bachman asked alumni to consider donating an actual Wildcat to the school to serve as a mascot. KSAC alumni Herbert R. Groome and John E. McCoy, both veterinarians in Twin Falls, Idaho, donated "Touchdown I" to the school shortly after the animal was nursed back to health under their care. (The bobcat had an encounter with a porcupine, and his face and throat were punctured by numerous quills. Unfortunately, Touchdown I never fully recovered from its fight, dying of pneumonia shortly after arriving in Manhattan.)

Although several bobcats served as Kansas State's wildcat mascot since being introduced in 1922, the animals no longer attend K-State games. Touchdown XI, the 11th in the line, was kept at Manhattan's Sunset Zoo.

WABASH CANNONBALL

Everyone knows that familiar tune Wabash Cannonball. In fact, Wabash and K-State are almost synonymous. What many people do not know is how the song became an integral part of Wildcat athletics. In the fall of 1968 the department of music burnt down. Every piece of music in the building was destroyed. The only thing that was salvaged was what was in the band director's brief case. That included a piece of music titled the Wabash Cannonball. With an upcoming basketball game and no music, that left only one thing to do. The band members played the song loud and often. A song that originally had no connection to KSU became a second fight song.

TROPHY GAME

The Governor's Trophy Game between Kansas State University and the University of Kansas was initiated in 1969 by Gov. Robert Docking. The original traveling trophy was retired following the 1996 K-State victory. A new trophy was introduced following the 48-16 win at Manhattan in 1997. The trophy is presented to the winning team and coaches in the winner's dressing room immediately following each year's game.

GOOD FOR A WILDCAT... FIRST DOWN!

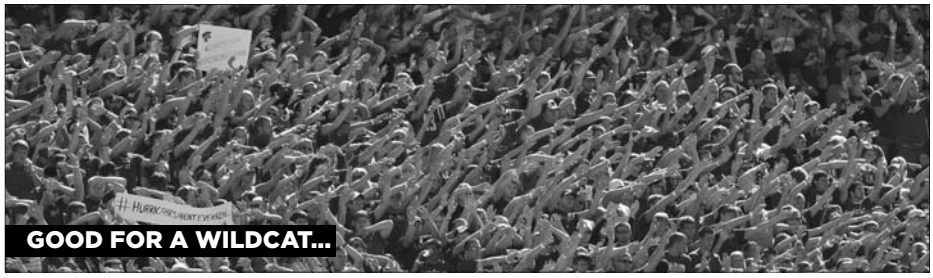
It was 1993 and the first year of the new $3.3 million press box. K-State's public address announcer began what would become a K-State tradition. After a Wildcat first down, he would say, "Good for a Wildcat first down." Throughout the 1993 season, the P.A. announcer did this ritual alone. However, at the beginning of the 1994 season the crowd started to join in on the catchy phrase and began to shout it with him. Now, with the addition of the first down and touchdown arm motions, K-State's P.A. announcer no longer even needs to finish the phrase as the Wildcat fans finish it for him.

ROBINSON BREAKS COLOR BARRIER

In 1948, Harold Robinson graduated from Manhattan High School and prepared to become Kansas State's first black student-athlete. After sitting out the 1948 season as all freshmen were required, K-State head coach Ralph Graham in 1949 made Robinson the first African-American to receive an athletic scholarship in the Big Seven Conference.

Robinson, who passed away in May of 2006, was named an All-Conference center in 1950, his junior season, despite playing for a 1-9-1 K-State team. Robinson gained the considerable respect of opponents and fans despite the smoldering racism that was so pervasive during his playing days. He wasn't allowed to stay at the same hotel as his teammates on many road trips, instead staying in private residences. Hoyt Givens did not play in 1949, but joined Robinson on the varsity in 1950 as a non-scholarship player.

Following Robinson as a barrier breaker in Big Seven baseball in 1952 was Earl Woods, the father of golf superstar Tiger Woods. Other K-Staters instrumental in breaking down the color barrier were Gene Wilson in basketball in 1952, Veryl Switzer, Norman Mills, Clifford Bizek and Herman Wilson in track in 1953 and Don Harris in tennis in 1952. Switzer earned All-America honors in football and went on to be the fourth player selected in the NFL draft by the Green Bay Packers in 1954.



GOOD FOR A WILDCAT...

RING OF HONOR

Kansas State started a new tradition in 2002, as the football program announced the inaugural Ring of Honor Class. The distinction is designed to recognize those in the football program who have distinguished themseleves on and off the field. Among the criteria considered is graduation from Kansas State with a student-athlete having been out of school for at least five years, quality of character, whether the person is an excellent representative of K-State and whether a person has achieved performance that warrents consensus All-America level status at K- State.

KEN OCHS COURAGE AWARD

Ken Ochs was a 6-foot, 208-pound long shot to make the K-State football team in 1966. The La Crosse, Kan., native made the K-State team but suffered a leg injury during that spring's drills. After his leg didn't respond to treatment, it was discovered that Ochs had a malignant bone tumor. His leg was amputated six inches above the knee. Ochs returned to K-State and earned his degree in the spring of 1969. By then, he was a manager for the football team, and the program had named an honor for personal courage in his name. Ochs died of cancer Oct. 3, 1969.

HARLEY DAY

A creation of former athletic director Max Urick, Harley Day, is one of the most popular days of the year for Wildcat fans. Led by Willie Wildcat, Harley Day participants, with their engines blaring, take the short ride around the playing surface of Bill Snyder Family Stadium, where they are greeted by a boisterous crowd.

HARLEY DAY

GOLDEN CATS

One of the truly unique aspects of Kansas State football is the Golden Cats Program - a group of former K-State football players, managers, trainers, coaches and support staff who make contributions directly to the football program. The primary purpose is to bring together all of the past members of the football program, to provide opportunities for them to reunite and spend time with teammates of the past, support the student-athletes who presently represent their program and help unite Kansas State in a way never accomplished before.

The Golden Cat program was developed in 1990 with each Golden Cat making a financial contribution to help assist with capital improvements related to football. The Golden Cat Club is the strongest team-sport support group at K-State. The club has provided strong financial assistance through the purchase of such things as weight equipment, rehab equipment and computers for the Academic Learning Center.

For the Golden Cats, it's a great opportunity to give back to the program, plus they can witness first-hand how their contributions have enhanced the opportunities of football student-athletes. In turn, the Golden Cats truly remain a part of the program, while receiving various privileges such as the brass name plates, pregame tailgate parties, Golden Cat clothing, video tapes, game program recognition and other memorabilia.

KANSAS STATE UNIVERSITY

"Our next five years will be very busy, but we will gain great visibility and recognition within the state and nation, and we will be firmly on the path toward becoming a Top 50 public research university."

-- K-State President Kirk Schulz

HALE LIBRARY

What will K-State look like in 2025? K-Staters have an idea. We are working toward the goal of becoming recognized nationally as a Top 50 public research university in the next 11 years. To do that the university is working to boost total research and development expenditures, the total endowment and the number of undergraduate students involved in research, among other goals. In many ways K-State is already well on its way to meeting this goal. Check out the progress at k-state.edu/2025.

History and Location

Throughout its history, K-State's mission has been rooted in the principles set forth in the Morrill Act: to provide teaching, research and service to the citizens of Kansas and beyond.

The 644-acre wooded main campus with historic limestone buildings is located in northern Manhattan (population 56,143) and is convenient to both business and residential districts. It is located 125 miles west of Kansas City in the rolling Flint Hills of northeast Kansas. The university also has a campus in Salina and the Olathe campus in the Kansas City metro area. The K-State Salina campus offers master's, bachelor's and associate degrees. The Olathe campus offers master's and doctoral-level curricula and research in animal health and food safety and security. K-State also has numerous extension fields, offices and other facilities in Kansas and Nebraska.

The university hosts the prestigious Landon Lectures on Public Issues, honoring the late Kansas statesman Alfred M. Landon. Since 1966 the series has featured more than 160 nationally prominent speakers. Past speakers include presidents Richard Nixon, Jimmy Carter, Gerald Ford, Richard Nixon, Ronald Reagan, George H.W. Bush, George W. Bush and Bill Clinton, as well as U.S. Supreme Court Associate Justice Sonia Sotomayor.

Kansas State University is one of the six universities governed by the Kansas Board of Regents.

Student Achievement

K-State students have an outstanding record when it comes to winning national competitions. K-Staters have placed in the top five in areas like robotics, debate, forensics, aviation, construction science, architecture, engineering, leadership and more.

Academic Recognition

• The College of Engineering offers the only engineering graduate program in Kansas to be included in U.S. News & World Report's 2014 Best Graduate School rankings.

• Kansas State University is a program site for First Scholars, a national program aimed at increasing graduation rates among first-generation students. The Suder Foundation awarded the university $850,000 to cover student scholarships and start-up costs to launch the program.

Academic Recognition

• For the third year in a row, the College of Business Administration's sales program was named one of the top programs in the country by the Sales Education Foundation. The program is offered through the college's National Strategic Sales Institute.

• Ross Allen, senior in economics and philosophy, is the university's newest Harry S. Truman Scholarship recipient. K-State ranks first among all state-supported universities for recipients of the prestigious scholarship.

• The College of Human Ecology offers the only graduate certificate in financial therapy in the nation. The personal financial planning program provides training for both financial and mental health professionals.

• For the 16th time in the last 17 years, the quarter-scale tractor design team won or placed in the top three at the American Society of Agricultural and Biological Engineers International Quarter-Scale Tractor Student Design Competition.

• Three programs offered by the College of Architecture, Planning & Design are rated among the Top 10 in the nation in a survey by DesignIntelligence magazine. The graduate program in landscape architecture is No. 2 in the nation. The graduate architecture program ranks No. 8, and the interior architecture & product design graduate program ranks No. 7 in the interior design category.

• Two Kansas State University doctoral students are 2014 Lindau scholars. Melissa Lynes and Hedieh Shadmani visited with the world's best economists at the fifth Lindau Meeting of the Laureates of the Sveriges Riksbank Prize in Economic Sciences in Memory of Alfred Nobel in Lindau, Germany.

• The College of Education is included in U.S. News & World Report's 2014 Best Graduate School ranking, placing it among the best in the nation.

HOLTON HALL

• The Princeton Review, Forbes magazine, and U.S. News & World Report all rank Kansas State University as one of America's best public universities.

• The Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching classifies Kansas State University as a research university with "high research activity."

• Kansas State University received $151.3 million in research funding during the 2013 fiscal year, a jump from the previous fiscal year.

• More than $200 million in financial assistance is distributed to students each year. The Princeton Review named Kansas State University as one of the best values in the country.

• Manhattan is becoming the world's global food systems center with Kansas State University's expertise. The state Department of Agriculture offices co-located at the university's research park, and the nation's premier federal animal health laboratory is under construction adjacent to K-State.

• K-State continues to set record enrollments, a testament to the university's popularity and academic reputation. Freshman-to-sophomore retention rates continue to increase with programs like K-State First, which provides new students with a transition to college-level learning.

Building the Future

• The Chester E. Peters Recreation Complex underwent a $23 million renovation that includes more workout space, a 40-foot indoor rock climbing wall and relaxation lounges.

• A residence hall on the west side of campus will hold 450 beds, while a connecting dining center will serve 1,850 students.

• A 14,000-square-foot College of Business Administration building will feature classroom space, financial trading rooms and areas for professional development.

• A $40 million wing is being added to the existing Durland Hall, part of the College of Engineering complex.

• The K-State Student Union is undergoing a renovation.

• The K-State Welcome Center at Memorial Stadium will centralize services for incoming students, serve as a campus gateway, and feature interactive technology and customized information for visitors.

2012 CASE EXECUTIVE LEADER OF THE YEAR

Kirk H. Schulz was selected as the 13th president of Kansas State University in February 2009 by the Kansas Board of Regents. He initiated the campus-wide goal to move K-State forward — to be recognized as a Top 50 Public Research University by 2025. At the end of the K-State 2025 planning process the goal is to have a visionary plan that is inclusive of the K-State family, is exciting and innovative, and most importantly, is a plan that has enjoyed campuswide involvement and participation.

Other recent highlights include:

- Fundraising and Development

This past year, fundraising by the Kansas State University Foundation hit a record $121 million.

- Research and Scholarship

Faculty researchers brought in nearly $137.5 million in extramural funding.

- Athletics

Athletics completed construction on the new West Stadium Center at Bill Snyder Family Stadium and announced the Vanier Football Complex and north stadium enhancements would start in winter 2014.

- Alumni

With more than 40,000 members, K-State continues to be ranked No. 1 in the Big 12 for the 18th consecutive year for percentage of graduates who are members.

- Awards

Schulz received the 2012 Chief Executive Leadership Award from the Council for the Advancement and Support of Education.

- Government Relations

Worked with the Kansas Delegation, the Office of the Governor, and the Kansas Legislature to secure funding for the construction of the National Bio and Agro-Defense Facility, or NBAF.

- Communications and Marketing

Combined Web, video, publications, design, news services, photography and marketing into a one-stop shop to provide free services to campus; launched a new university website.

- Student Life

Enrollment set a record in fall 2013 with 24,581 students. Maintained K-State's longtime status as the top choice among Kansas high school graduating seniors for fall 2013.

Schulz also holds the Kansas State Leadership Professorship and represents the Big 12 Conference on the National Collegiate Athletic Association Division I Board of Directors.

Before his appointment as president, Schulz served as vice president for research and economic development at Mississippi State University. He has also served on the faculty at Michigan Technological University and the University of North Dakota. He is active in several professional societies including the American Institute for Chemical Engineers and the American Society for Engineering Education. In recognition of achievements in the field of Chemical Engineering, he was selected as a Fellow in both the American Society of Engineering Education and the American Association for the Advancement of Science.

He is active in the Boy Scouts of America, and serves on the Executive Board of the Coronado Council. Schulz also serves various roles on the boards of Cereal Food Processors, the Greater Manhattan Community Foundation, the Kansas Bioscience Authority, and the Accreditation Board for Engineering and Technology.

He is married to Dr. Noel Nunnally Schulz, who serves as the associate dean for research and graduate programs at the College of Engineering and Paslay professor of electrical engineering. They have two sons — Timothy, a graduate student at the University of Tulsa, and Andrew, a freshman at Oklahoma State University. Kirk Schulz's parents are Carl and Judy Schulz, Norfolk, Va.

Since John Currie's introduction as director of athletics in May 2009, Kansas State has experienced a tremendous turnaround and unprecedented athletic and academic accomplishments. Driving toward the vision of a Model Intercollegiate Athletics Program, Currie's rebuilt senior leadership team has turned an inherited deficit into national acclaim as one of the NCAA's most financially solvent programs, while initiating $190 million in comprehensive facility improvements – $125 million of which have been completed in the last 24 months including the West Stadium Center, Basketball Training Facility, Intercollegiate Rowing Facility and Mike Goss Tennis Stadium.

Athletically Currie's tenure has been marked by across the board success including a 2013-14 year that saw K-State defeat Michigan in the Buffalo Wild Wings Bowl, earn the school's fifth straight NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament appearance, and see a total of nine track and field student-athletes claim Big 12 Championships en route to Top 20 national finishes for both squads. The 2012-13 campaign was also one for the ages as K-State became just the fourth BCS school since 1998 to win league titles in football, men's basketball and baseball the same year.

Academically, all Wildcat programs boast multi-year APR marks of at least .949, with the football, men's golf, women's golf, men's cross country and women's cross country teams sporting Big 12-leading scores. Approximately one-half of all Wildcat student-athletes (260) achieved a 3.0 GPA or higher this past academic year, while 37 student-athletes have earned Academic All-American honors in the past five years.

With the tag line of "Welcome to K-State" symbolizing the goal of providing The Best Fan Experience in the Big 12, K-State's marketing and fundraising efforts have been completely overhauled in Currie's tenure. Responding to a new emphasis on personal interaction and communication, K-State supporters have pushed attendance to new heights, while more than $143 million in total gifts have been raised for K-State Athletics in Currie's five years including FY14's cash total exceeding $46 million – almost quadrupling the annual amount prior to his arrival. Meanwhile, history was made as Currie and his staff worked hand in hand with President Kirk Schulz and the KSU Foundation to secure the largest individual donation in university history, a $60 million gift benefitting various academic and athletic initiatives. Currie's award-winning Fan Experience staff, which was named the national 2014 NACMA Marketing Team of the Year, has created new ticket initiatives that have led to 22 sellout crowds at Bill Snyder Family Stadium since 2009, including a current streak of 13 straight, while the 2013 football season saw K-State set new school records for total and average attendance.

K-State also navigated its way through the tumultuous waters of conference realignment and capitalized on the Big 12's unique retained rights opportunities when it launched K-StateHD.TV, which has remained the nation's No. 1 premium digital network for the past three years and provides all K-State student-athletes unprecedented live coverage.

The recipient of the 2013 Bobby Dodd AD Award and a 2013 UnderArmour AD of the Year, Currie served as chair of the Big 12 ADs in 2013-14 and is a member of the NCAA Division I Administrative Cabinet. He was one of only two intercollegiate ADs named to Sports-Business Journal's 2011 prestigious Forty Under 40 list of national sports leaders.

CURRIE SPEAKS TO 25,000-PLUS FANS AT THE 2012 AT&T COTTON BOWL PEP RALLY.

K-STATE

A Model Intercollegiate Athletics Program

- A world-class student-athlete experience.
- Value to our University, community and state.
- Integrity and transparency in matters of ethics, finance and NCAA compliance.
- Championship athletic performances.
- The best fan experience in the Big 12 Conference.

THE CURRIE FAMILY INSIDE THE NEW WEST STADIUM CENTER AT BILL SNYDER FAMILY STADIUM: JOHN, MARY LAWRENCE, JACK, VIRGINIA AND MARY-DELL.

K-State's Highlights Under Currie

- All Wildcat programs have remained well above the NCAA .930 APR standard with five teams currently leading the Big 12 (FB, M/W Golf and M/W CC).
- Epic 2012-13 year with Big 12 Championships in FB, MBB and Baseball.
- In the past five years, 99 student-athletes have earned All-American distinction, while Wildcats have won five NCAA individual titles and 30 Big 12 titles.
- Brand new facilities include the new West Stadium Center at BSFS, Basketball Training Facility, Intercollegiate Rowing Center and Mike Goss Tennis Stadium.
- Fundraising has been completely overhauled with more than $143 million in actual gifts raised for K-State Athletics in five years.
- FY14's cash total of $46 million is the fifth-straight record total and almost quadruple the annual total prior to Currie's arrival.
- K-State donors have stepped up with 21 private gifts in excess of $1 million since fall 2009, while grassroots Ahearn Fund membership has soared past the 10,000 member mark for the first time in department history.
- Operated with a budget surplus in each of the last five years, allowing for annual investments and budget growth from $44 million to $65 million.
- Implemented a complete phase-out of direct university funding as a source of revenue, enabling K-State to redirect those funds to critical academic needs.
- New ticket initiatives have led to 22 sellouts at Bill Snyder Family Stadium since 2009, which includes a current streak of 13 straight heading into 2014.
- Also set new season total and average attendance records in baseball while selling a record number of season tickets for volleyball and baseball.
- Hired 300-game winner Bruce Weber as the head men's basketball coach, who captured Big 12 Coach of the Year honors in his first season, while recent hires of veteran head coaches Jeff Mittie (WBB) and Grant Robbins (MGolf) bring instant credibility and national recognition.

TICKET INFORMATION

For the second straight season, all available public football season tickets have been sold as department officials announced in June that K-State fans have stepped up in record fashion for the Wildcats' 2014 seven-game home schedule. Following one of the greatest in-season turnarounds in college football history, excitement is building toward the 2014 campaign. As of July 1, only scattered singles and standing-room-only tickets remain for a selected number of home games. With a full season sellout anticipated by the start of the season, fans can call the ticket office or go online to be placed on the 2015 football season ticket waitlist.

Welcome to K-State! Thank you for your interest in Kansas State football. The K-State Athletics Communications Office has produced the 2014 media guide to assist in your coverage of the Wildcats. Please feel free to contact any member of our staff with questions, requests or concerns. We look forward to working with you throughout the 2014 season.

COVERING K-STATE

Weekly News Conference

Head football coach Bill Snyder hosts a weekly news conference each Tuesday at the Vanier Football Complex beginning with lunch at 12 p.m. Snyder will address the media at 12:30 p.m., with requested players available from 1 to 2 p.m. To request players for the weekly news conference, media should contact Assistant AD for Communications Kenny Lannou each Sunday via email - klannou@kstatesports.com. Quotes from the news conference are available on www.k-statesports.com each Tuesday afternoon.

News Conference Video

Broadcast-quality video files for television newscasts of each weekly news conference are available for download on Tuesday afternoons. Contact the K-State Athletics Communications for FTP access instructions.

Other Availability

Bill Snyder: In addition to Kansas State's Tuesday news conference, head coach Bill Snyder is available to the media each Monday morning on the Big 12 Conference's weekly teleconference. Coach Snyder is also available via telephone for out-of-town media outlets on Wednesdays from 7 p.m. to 7:30 p.m.

Assistant Coaches: Media access to assistant coaches is restricted to selected pre- and post-season opportunities during the year. Please contact the K-State Athletics Communications office for information relating to these limited opportunities.

Players: All player interviews MUST be arranged through the K-State Athletics Communications Office. During the season, Wildcat players are available to the media at Tuesday news conferences. No player interviews will be arranged after Tuesday on the week of a game.

GAMEDAY INFORMATION

Working Credentials

Media outlets interested in covering Kansas State football on either a season or individual-game basis are requested to submit all applications for credentials through the K-State Athletics Communications football credential application website. To access the website, please visit www.k-statesports.com/media. K-State is unable to process written requests for football credentials. Please be sure and review the department's credential policies on page 205 as new restrictions were put in place prior to the 2013 season.

Because of inconsistent mail delivery service on tight deadlines, media passes may not be mailed in some instances. If this is the case, passes may be picked up at the Will Call window located on the west side of Bill Snyder Family Stadium beginning two hours prior to kickoff. Individuals picking up credentials will be required to furnish positive identification. All credentials are non-transferable and are issued based on Kansas State's credential policy.

Admission to the press level is for working media only. Only those media with official K-State credentials will be admitted. Friends, spouses, children under the age of 16 and non-workers are not welcome in the press area.

Press Parking

Press parking is limited and will be issued upon request on a first-come, first-served basis as available. Contact the Kansas State Athletics Communications Office regarding details and directions to press parking areas.

Photographers

Only accredited photographers on assignment from recognized media outlets will be issued sideline credentials. All photographers must obtain and wear a K-State Athletics vest (available in the press box on gamedays) and a media pass to shoot inside Bill Snyder Family Stadium. NCAA rules limit shooting to outside the restraining line enclosing the playing field and outside the 25-yard lines (the team areas). Children under 16-years-old are not permitted on the sideline.

Visiting Radio Stations

To inquire about access to Kansas State's existing radio courtesy lines, visiting radio stations should contact Ben Boyle, K-State Sports Network General Manager, at 785.532.2702. Only those stations recognized as the official originator for the visiting team will be afforded broadcast facilities. For national networks, a rights fee is charged. National networks are also required to protect the broadcast footprint of the K-State Sports Network. Broadcast facilities for national networks are available on the photo deck on a first-come, first-served basis.

Websites

Kansas State reserves the right to deny media credentials to any individual whose website is not affiliated with an official news-gathering organization or publication. Credentials will be issued to official online services of national, over-the-air or cable networks or established publications which are staffed by full-time employees whose primary function is to produce content from the game.

Credentials will not be granted to any online agency operating sites that are in any way affiliated with gambling, or to "freelance" or "fan-based" sites that are not affiliated with a legitimate news gathering organization or publication.

Membership in a writer's association does not automatically qualify an agency for credentials.

Road Credentials

Obtaining media credentials for K-State road games is the sole responsibility of each media outlet. Credentials are granted at the discretion of the host institution. Please be specific when requesting the type of credential needed. Opponent SID telephone numbers are listed in the Opponent pages of this media guide.

MEDIA SERVICES

Weekly Release

The K-State Athletics Communications Office provides its weekly football release via email. Updated notes and statstics are faxed only when specifically requested. Game notes are posted on www.k-statesports.com Monday in both text and PDF (Adobe Acrobat) formats. To receive K-State's weekly notes package via email, please contact Kenny Lannou, Assistant AD for Communications.

Working Space

Kansas State provides work space for media outlets in the Athletics Communications Office following each Tuesday news conference. The office is located on the sixth level of the new West Stadium Center at Bill Snyder Family Stadium and is fully equipped with wireless internet access. Telephone lines, a copier and archived materials are also available to working media members.

Dev Nelson Press Level

The new Dev Nelson Press Level includes a working area for print media, home and visiting radio networks, home and visiting coaches' booths, opposing athletics director booth, TV booth, radio spots, coaches' video and a photo deck.

Press Box Services

Packets including statistics, pregame notes, flipcards and programs will be available for media in the press box prior to each game. Quarter, halftime and final statistics, a running play-by-play and postgame quotes from coaches and players of both teams also will be provided. Live running statistics are also available throughout the press box and on the Internet at www.k-statesports.com during the game. Final statistics, notes and quotes will be made available to the media following the game and are posted on the official K-State Athletics website shortly after the conclusion of each contest.

Internet Access

The Dev Nelson Press Level is equipped with high-speed wireless Internet. Media wishing to file stories electronically as well as photographers may access the network with a wireless internet card. Please contact a member of the K-State Athletics Communications Office for access and usage instructions.

Postgame Policy

Kansas State's locker room is closed. Media in the press box will be asked to submit a list of player requests to Kenny Lannou at the start of the fourth quarter. Coach Snyder and requested players will be available in the team room on the second floor of the Vanier Sports Complex following a brief cooling off period.

Postgame news conferences for visiting teams will take place outside the visitor's locker room.

Postgame Highlights

The Kansas State Athletics Department produces broadcast-quality files of highlights for use in newscasts following all non-televised home games. Please contact the Athletics Communications Office or K-StateHD.TV staff for FTP access instructions and information.

Telephones

All media or broadcast crews wishing to have phone lines installed in the press box are responsible for making their own arrangements. Phones may be ordered through KSU Telecommunications at 785.532.7001. Please provide the following address to telephone service personnel when requesting phone line installation: Bill Snyder Family Stadium Press Leve, 1700 Kimball Avenue, Manhattan, KS 66502. The stadium press row phone number is 785.539.3423.

Media Meals

A pregame meal is served in the Dev Nelson Press Level 90 minutes prior to each game. The meal is reserved for working members of the media with proper credentials. Milk and ice cream are also provided for all games by Hiland Dairy of Manhattan.

K-STATE CREDENTIAL POLICY

Credentials and working space for media members are issued at the sole and exclusive discretion of the Kansas State Athletics Communications Office based on the following priorities and guidelines:

1. Originating radio and television personnel involved in a live broadcast.
2. Daily newspapers regularly covering Kansas State University, the current-game opponent or another Big 12 school. Wire services, regional and national publications are also afforded this priority.
3. Non-originating radio and television personnel producing reports on the game. Only local radio stations with a full-time sports director conducting a regular sports show receive consideration.
4. Officially recognized Kansas State University student publications or electronic media outlets.
5. Non-daily newspapers reporting on the game.

Other Credential Guidelines

1. With the exception of beat writers covering Kansas State daily, all passes are issued on a game-by-game basis with consideration of available working space.
2. Passes are non-transferable and are subject to immediate revocation if transferred to non-working members of a media outlet.
3. Kansas State University and the NCAA prohibit the issuance of credentials to representatives of organizations that regularly publish gambling information, such as "tout" or "tip" sheets.
4. Websites that sponsor "message boards" or "chat rooms" where people are allowed to post anonymous information or rumors are ineligible for credentials or access to media functions.
5. If a news-gathering medium has an online website that sponsors anonymous forums, it may continue to request credentials under its traditional medium (newspaper, magazine, radio or television), but will not be granted additional passes or access for online staff.
6. Kansas State University reserves the right to deny media credentials to any individual whose website is not affiliated with a recognized news-gathering organization.
7. All persons picking up credentials will be required to furnish positive identification. All credentials are non-transferable.
8. Spouses, dates, non-workers and anyone under 16 years of age are not permitted in the working press area.
9. Restrictions have been made on the usage of internet video of K-State Athletic events. Highlights of game action and/or press conferences from K-State events are limited to and cannot excede three (3) minutes in length per event.
10. Each outlet requesting credentials will be permitted a MAXIMUM of TWO "on-field" passes which can be designated for still photography or video use. These two passes MUST be utilized in a working fashion and each user must check out a PHOTO VEST from the press level (which must be worn on the field at all times).

2014 BIG 12 MEDIA TELECONFERENCE

The Big 12 Conference hosts individual media teleconferences with each Big 12 head coach throughout each football season. The briefings are conducted between 9:50 a.m. and 11:30 a.m. each Monday from the league's headquarters in Irving, Texas, and are available to local and national media outlets. To participate in the teleconference, please contact Bob Burda or Joni Lehmann in the Big 12 Communications Office at 469.524.1000 for details on how to join the weekly call. The weekly call-in schedule for 2014 season is as follows:

WYATT THOMPSON

Voice of the Wildcats

The 2014 and 2012 Kansas Sportscaster of the Year and 2011 recipient of the Hod Hummiston Award, play-by-play announcer Wyatt Thompson serves as the anchor of the K-State Sports Network and returns for his 13th season behind the mic as "Voice of the Wildcats."

K-State's Director of Sportscasting, Thompson also serves as host of the Bill Snyder and Bruce Weber shows on both television and radio. In addition, he is involved in various Catbacker Club, alumni and athletic department functions, frequently serving as a keynote speaker.

Thompson came to K-State from Colorado State, where he was the play-by-play voice for the Rams' football and men's basketball teams for five years. An accomplished broadcaster, he won the Colorado Broadcasting Association award for best play-by-play in 2000. In addition to his duties at CSU, he was also a sports reporter for Clear Channel Denver, the "Countdown to Kickoff" host for the Denver Broncos on KOA Radio and hosted the "Zone Sports Insiders" show on 760 The Zone in Denver.

Thompson started his broadcasting career in 1976 as a sportscaster for various high schools, colleges and universities in Kansas, spending time at stations in Hays and Goodland. He was recognized with the Kansas Association of Broadcasters Play-by-Play Award in 1982 and the Oscar Stauffer Sportscaster of the Year Award in 1989. He and his wife Karen reside in Manhattan.

STAN WEBER

Analyst

Providing the color analysis is former Kansas State quarterback Stan Weber. Now in his 28th year in the booth, Weber has passed legendary broadcaster Dev Nelson, who called games for 25 years, for the longest tenure of a K-State radio broadcaster.

In addition to these duties, Weber provides color commentary for men's basketball games on the K-State Sports Network as well as FSN Kansas City. A native of Goddard, Kan., he served as captain of the 1984 team and led the Wildcats in rushing while earning Academic All-American honors.

Weber, who graduated magna cum laude, received his bachelor's and master's degrees in accountancy from Kansas State and currently serves as Vice President - CFO of Tower Properties, in addition to his broadcast duties. Weber was also a 2009 inductee into the K-State Accounting Hall of Fame in addition to the Kansas Shrine Bowl Hall of Fame this past year.

Weber and his wife, Nancy (Freshnock), a former K-State cheerleader, have four children (Brittani, Stanton, McKenzi and Landry) and reside in Overland Park, Kan.

MATT WALTERS

Sideline Reporter and Postgame Host

Local radio personality Matt Walters is in his 10th year as the Wildcats' sideline reporter and host of the network's postgame show. The 2013 Kansas Sportscaster of the Year is an 18-year veteran of K-State baseball broadcasts and host of the popular 'Powercat Gameday' football pre-game show on KMAN and KMKF, Walters is in his 10th year as a color analyst for the men's basketball team for the K-State Sports Network. He also serves as the public address announcer for the women's basketball team.

A 1992 graduate of Kansas State and native of Russell, Kan., Walters spent 16 years at KMAN before being named Vice President/Business Developer at Manhattan's Commerce Bank.

An award-winning broadcaster, Walters recently received the prestigious Oscar Stauffer Sportscaster of the Year for 2005. Walters and his wife, Megan, live in Manhattan.

K-STATE FOOTBALL IS ON THE AIR

Wildcat football is on the air! The 2014 football season marks the 10th year of the K-State Sports Network, a joint venture of Kansas State Athletics and Learfield Communications. Learfield Communications is a national leader in collegiate sports broadcasting and marketing, owning the rights to more than 100 of the nation's top collegiate programs.

Bill Snyder Shows

Bill Snyder Radio Show

Affiliates on the K-State Sports Network carry the Bill Snyder Show each Thursday night during the season. The show originates from the Big 8 Room of the Vanier Complex from 7-8 p.m. during the season and is open to the public.

Bill Snyder Television Show

The weekly Bill Snyder Television Show can be seen throughout the Midwest each Sunday at 10:30 p.m. during the season on FOX Sports Kansas City. The half-hour program, hosted by Wyatt Thompson, features head coach Bill Snyder, player and coach spotlights, highlights of previous games and previews of upcoming contests.
